Mr Wright died of cancer aged 61. He was a physicist and engineer who had an early career in student politics and later campaigned for people with Asperger's Syndrome, with which he was diagnosed in his mid-50s. After briefly attending Liverpool University, he worked in industry before going to Leicester in 1973 to take a degree in Physics with Astrophysics. There he became president of Beaumont Hall, stood unsuccessfully for Student Union President and, in 1976, was elected the Leicestershire Area Sabbatical Officer of the National Union of Students (NUS).

Members of Staff*Allen David.

Mr Allen died suddenly but peacefully at home on 24 April 2010. He was Sub-Librarian (Technical Services) in the University Library from 1963 until his retirement in 1984 and further as an Associate until 1986. Under David's leadership the Library stock expanded not only in terms of quantity but also in quality. David has left the legacy of a strong library collection, but he has also left fond memories from those staff who were privileged to have worked with him, as witnessed by the number that attended his funeral.

Bumford Evan.

Mr Bumford died on 11 February 2010. He was the first Secretary of the Leicester Medical School. His lasting memorial is the Leicester Medical School which he helped to start and establish with Bill Crammond, the first Dean. Mr Bumford studied History and French at King's College London, which was punctuated by his service to the RAF. In spite of his disability he did a full-time onerous job never asking for any special consideration. He could not of course have done this without the help of his wife, Olive, whom he married in 1945. He was a family man and enjoyed the company of his children and grandchildren making light of his physical problems and enjoying life with them to the full.

Honorary Graduates*Corah (George) Nicolas.

Died in September 2009. Mr Corah served as Pro-Chancellor of the University of Leicester from 2004-2008 and was awarded an Honorary Doctor of Laws in July 2008. He was Chair of the Fundraising Committee and was able to raise close to £14million for the University. In the words of the Vice-Chancellor, Professor Sir Robert Burgess: "We in particular have much to thank him for and members of this University are indebted to him for the energy and enthusiasm he brought to fundraising, principally for our recent Library project." In 2008 Mr Corah was presented to Her Majesty The Queen and HRH The Duke of Edinburgh on the occasion of the Royal Opening of the Library to which he had contributed so much.
