

Personalia 2009

1950

Watson Denis, BA English, 1948; BA Combined Studies (full-time), 1950. Enjoying an active and contented retirement with wife Jean. Was head of English in secondary school, Head of English and then Expressive Arts in Bretton Hall College, Wakefield.

1951

Warren Alfred, BSc Economics, 1951. Defeating his age, and keeping as well as possible!

1952

Dickman Alan, BSc General Science, 1952. Parochial church council member and eucharistic minister, Holy Trinity Church, Orton Longueville, Peterborough. Member Parnwell Residents Association, and British Pteridological Society. Enjoy holidays in the USA (especially Boston and New York).

1953

Crabtree Derek, BA Economic and Social History, 1953. Ordained as a Priest in the Church of England in 1995, now retired.

1954

Dawes Derrick, BSc Economics, 1954. Singing tenor line with a small choir in North Norfolk and with a Festival Chorus in London. Performed various Polish Folk songs for a Polish concert by the Queen Mary (London) Music Society (Russian learnt on National Service helped a bit!).

Fey Derek, BSc General Science, 1954. Retired. Degree in Electrical Engineering at Southampton University. 31 years in the aerospace/aircraft industry as an electrical designer, 8 years auditing and assessing to BS9091 (freelance). 10 years as an elected councillor of Bristol City Council. Honorary Alderman of the City of Bristol upon retirement. 3 years on the National Executive of the Conservative party.

Warrell Alan, BA Geography, 1953; PGCE, 1954. Read Theology, BA (1956) MA (1957) at Wesley House, Cambridge. Served five years in Nigeria, then in Derby, Wolverhampton; Chaplain Kent College, Pembury, Hastings, Dover (Super), Shetland (Chairman).

1955

Klar Anne, Dip, Social Studies, 1955. Committee member of Arts Centre in Ealing, involving frequent concerts.

1956

Corum Michael, BA History, 1956. Is surviving! Studied history/sociology at Leicester, LSE and Sussex. Married with three children, seven grandchildren. Learnt history, taught it, reading it. Aged 75.

1958

Copping Arthur, BSc Mathematics, 1958. Correcting the "Polish" English in scientific papers for the Polish Academy of Sciences, Cracow. BSBI festuca referee.

Garnett Alan, BA French, 1958.

Cultivating his garden, volunteer for the local police authority, membership of local choral society, Devon Wildlife Trust, Devonshire Association, National Trust, RHS, Branscombe Project, Union work with ATL, and generally enjoying holidays and grandchildren.

Simpson Bernard, BA Mathematics, 1958; BSc General Science, 1958.

Retired from teaching in 1994. Still riding the bike he had at university and continues to enjoy choral singing with two local choirs.

Whitworth Eileen, BA History, 1958.

Enjoying retirement including voluntary work in local community; music and theatre, mainly in Norwich; the garden; recently travelled to Costa Rica; experienced first cruise, to Rio, in 2007.

1959

Jarrett Peter, BA French, 1959.

Reading, going to concerts, watching BBC World and TV5 Monde, travelling (mostly England and France), keeping in touch with old friends (eight Leicester graduates).

Parkinson Robert, BSc Combined Studies, 1959.

Derbyshire County Councillor since 1967; Erewash Borough Councillor since 1974 (leader 1976-1990, 2003-2007, now lead member for environment).

1960

Rogers Angela, BA History, 1960.

Very gradually coming to understand a little of the history of these Isles from the perspective of an island in the middle of the Irish Sea. Voluntary work; courses etc. Still computer illiterate.

Small John, BSc Combined Studies, 1960.

After seven years on seismic crews joined Chevron as a seismic interpreter. Later Exploration Director for Ultramar Exploration and Managing Director MMS Petroleum PLC. Now a part time consultant.

1961

Wallis Trevor, BSc General Science, 1961. After a career as a meteorologist (forecasting, teaching and research), retired in Asheville, North Carolina (USA) and is enjoying an active life in scenic, mountainous, western NC.

1962

Greatrex Julian, BA Sociology, 1962. Tearing her hair out with black labrador puppy "Hooligan" Berry.

Watts Hugh, BA Geography, 1962. After spending most of his career in the Department of Geography at Sheffield, he retired from his post of Reader in Geography in September 2006. Pleased to hear from contemporaries.

1963

Amouzegar Parvis, MA English Literature, 1963.

After 44 years of teaching, 15 years as Chancellor of University in France and 7 years as Dean of Faculty in France, has taken retirement. Has just received the highest French Academic distinction "Chevalier de Palmes Academiques".

Harris Peterm, BSc Combined Studies, 1963. House husband. Active in politics - School Governor and Parish Councillor.

Staniforth Rose Mary, BSc Combined Studies, 1962; Graduate Certificate in Education, 1963. Would love to hear from former CU members.

1964

Holden Kenneth, BSc Combined Studies, 1964. Retired from post as Professor of Applied Economics at Liverpool Business School, and is honorary treasurer of Hospice Africa.

Wilmot Vivian, BSc Geography, 1964. Voluntary work in adult basic skills; gardening, walking, Pilates and yoga; travelling; family.

1965

Hartnall Peter, BSc Mathematics, 1965. From 2000-2005 school Principal in New Zealand South Island. Retired in 2005. Travelled Eastern Europe, 2005; Australia, 2006; circumnavigation via Hong Kong, Beijing, Mongolia, Russia, UK, Canada, Honolulu, 2007; Ecuador, overland to Brazil, 2008.

1966

Deazeley Alan, BSc Engineering, 1966. Worked in Zambia for 4 years; has 3 children; lived in Canada for 28 years.

Kitson George, Education, 1966. Principal of several Teachers Training College in London, Principal of the Central School of Speech and Drama, London. Retired in 1987.

Shipp Susan, BA Social Sciences 1966. 15 years Investment Manager Private Clients in Investment Bank of Ireland, Dublin. 10 years TEFL one to one with bankers in Co. Wicklow sheep farm. Last 10 years Psychotherapist practice.

Sutherns Beryl, BA French, 1966. Enjoying life!

Vinson Penelope, BA English, 1966. Retired from a demanding career in mental health social work in December 2004 and now enjoy theatre, travel (especially to the Middle East), seeing friends.

1968

McKenzie Ann, BA French, 1967; PGCE, 1968. Continues to enjoy rural ministry and engaging with so many different people.

Rogers Pauline, BSc Combined Studies, 1968. Retired from Cancer Research UK in 2006 and now working part-time in the UCL/UCLM Biomedical Research Centre.

Wingrove Marian, BSc Combined Science, 1968. Enjoying retirement after nearly 40 years of teaching maths in state schools.

1969

Brown Colin, BA Combined Studies (full-time), 1968; Graduate Certificate in Education, 1969. Following a Secondary Headship ran my own consultancy company. Now retired and about to take the chair of Cheshire Crimestoppers, a voluntary position. Also helps run a business club.

Hayward-Hall Caroline, BA French, 1969. Retired, writing, awaiting first grandchild of French Nationality.

King Michael, BSc Chemistry, 1969. Redundant software developer and finding at 60 years old, it is not easy to get a new job.

Perham Linda, BA Classics, 1969. Member of Parliament for 8 years, now a director in the public and voluntary sector. Husband Ray has now retired from his second career teaching maths.

1970

Dewar Justine, BA Combined Studies (full-time), 1970.

Married with four children. Has just built a wooden house in a wood ("keryavec house"), living in Morbihan, France.

Dudeny Rose, BA Combined Studies (full-time), 1970.

Retired from publishing world, happy teaching swimming from babies to adults. Enjoys competitive (masters) swimming, reading, gardening and travel. Thinks fondly of student days at Leicester and will be donating her extensive library to the University.

1971

Lewin John, BA Geography, 1970, PGCE, 1971. Taught at Hinckley 1971-1974; Groby High 1975-1989; ran Tower Dene Prep School in Southport 1989-2004. Now semi-retired and an Architectural Historian. Lives in Chippenham, married to Alison and has two children.

1972

Lewin Alison, BA Social Sciences, 1972. Taught for Leicestershire schools until 1986. Two children Bruce 1978 and Anna 1979. Opened two nursery school in Loughborough. Owned and ran a Prep. school in Southport 1989-2004.

Nash Christine, BSc Biological Sciences, 1972. Stepped down from management role in F.E. and now enjoying teaching biology part-time at her local sixth form college (King Edward VI College, Stourbridge).

1974

Humphreys Terence, BA English, 1971; MA Modern Literature, 1974. After retiring from the British Council and ending career as Director and Cultural Attache Ghana, joined ERIS as its CEO. ERIS provides democracy and elections advice internationally and provides all election observer training for the European Commission.

Jenkins Hywel, BA Combined Studies (full-time), 1974. String Consultant for Somerset Music, and enjoys many musical activities. Two children: Richard, in final year at Leeds College of Music, and Sophie, an Officer entry into the Navy.

Oakes Shan, BA Combined Studies (full-time), 1974. Runs Voice International which promotes education for sustainability. Green Party candidate for the European Parliament for Yorkshire and Humber. Lived in Uganda 2001-4.

Pritchard Clive, BSc Engineering, 1974. Currently searching for further opportunities to contribute to the electronics industry in hardware test or technical support.

1975

Corrigan Kevin, BSc Physics, 1975. Working as a petrophysicist in the oil business in Houston. Has three kids. Managing to keep in touch with the University through work and the petrophysics group there.

Gregory Anna, BA English, 1975. Gave up Assistant Headship at comprehensive in Mansfield, Notts, and now works as Principal Examiner for GCSE English Literature and mark Cambridge International examinations.

Ryan John, BA Combined Arts, 1975. Teacher of AS Arts, A2 Economics and AS and A2 Business Studies. Additional responsibility Higher Education Officer.

1976

Clayton Renata, BSc Sociology, 1976. Apart from part-time work, enjoys being school governor at local primary school; eucharistic minister and reader at local church; films; computing; reading; swimming, travelling, and husband!

Mountford Duncan, BSc Physics with Astrophysics, 1976. Defence systems engineer and programme manager. Still has an active interest in physics and astronomy. Also interested in technology and complex systems.

1977

Edwards Jennifer, BSc Biological Sciences, 1977. Manages a team of 5 permanent and 4 temporary staff providing front-line IT support to Massey University. Also provides support and advice in relation to software purchasing and licensing, managing mailing lists and providing guidance to other support staff.

Ollerton Pamela, BSc Combined Studies, 1975. PGCE, 1977. Just married for the second time, to Rob, and moved to a lovely village in South Wales. Looking for part time work and is a tennis umpire in her spare time. Was a special needs teacher and SENCO.

Royle Stephen, PhD, Geography, 1977. Member of the Royal Irish Academy (MRIA)

1978

Phillips Nigel, BSc Biological Sciences, 1978. Left the rat race and help run a charity (CAB) in Derbyshire.

Sims Catherine, LLB Law, 1978.

Working as a Service Manager leading a team providing care to older people. Married to Paul since 1980. They have two sons Matthew and Nathan. Nathan is at Leicester.

Thelwell Eileen, BA History, 1977; PGCE, 1978. Assistant Headteacher in one of the highest performing Comprehensive Schools in Wales. Areas of responsibility include UCAS, careers advice, personal and social education. Also Head of Middle School.

1979

Hogarth Alyson, English Literature, 1979. Currently studying for a BSc in Natural Sciences with the Open University.

1980

Andrew Bridget, MBChB Medicine, 1980. Part time Salaried GP and Honorary Clinical tutor at Hull York Medical School.

Ballan Stuart, BSc Engineering, 1980. Global sales and marketing, assisting Israeli companies to sell abroad, and non-Israeli companies to penetrate the Israeli markets.

Darby Malcolm, M Ed Education, 1980. Retired. Interests/hobbies: Family history, gardening, holidays, reading etc.

Housley Rupert, BSc Archaeological Studies, 1980. Currently the Project Manager for a NERC-Funded Research consortium investigating abrupt environmental transitions in the late Pleistocene period.

Howard Peter, MBChB Medicine, 1980. Consultant Orthopaedic Surgeon, Derby (1991).

Middleton Nicholas, MBChB Medicine, 1980. General practitioner in Doncaster, South Yorkshire.

1981

Barker Peter, MBChB Medicine, 1981. Consultant in Public Health, Coventry Primary Care Trust. Married with three children. Career aim: to survive the NHS!

Betteridge Christopher, MSC Museum Studies, 1981. Co-director of a heritage consultancy specialising in the identification, assessment, interpretation and management of cultural heritage, particularly historic gardens, parks, cemeteries and the settings of historic houses.

Briggs Bettina, MBChB Medicine, 1981. GP in Bourne, Lincolnshire, married to Andy Briggs (1980 Graduate).

Corlett David, MBChB Medicine, 1981. GP Principal in Spalding.

Coughlin Mary, MBChB Medicine, 1981. Principal in General Practice in Warrington, Cheshire.

Cyna Allan, MBChB Medicine, 1981. Senior Consultant Anaesthetic Research in applications of Clinical hypnosis to obstetrics, paediatrics and anaesthesia.

Eckersley Neil, MBChB Medicine, 1981. Full time Principal in General Practice. School Medical Officer to Lancaster Royal Grammar School.

Hardwick Mary, BSc Biological Sciences, 1981. Vice President of Mapping for NAVTEQ, building digital maps for satellite navigation. Chair of Badmington GB Ltd in spare time. Living in Rutland but always travelling.

Hawkswell Janet, MBChB Medicine, 1981. Associate Specialist in GU Medicine/HIV 2 days a week at Lincoln County Hospital. Locum family planning session for Bassetlaw PCT. Locum sessions for Doncaster and Bassetlaw Hospitals NHS Trust.

Horton Graeme, MBChB Medicine, 1981. Senior partner in four partner practice, special interest in Diabetes.

Illif Anne, MBChB Medicine, 1981. Works 3/4 time in a busy, challenging General Practice which she enjoys. Spend time off with family and friends. Has a great work/life balance.

Martin Avril, LLB Law, 1981. Gave up partnership in solicitor's firm (and family, children, criminal panels) to move near to the seaside to enjoy family life. Currently part-time Open University lecturer and School Governor.

Peter Gray, BA Combined Studies (full-time), 1981. Accepted redundancy then was offered a new job where he has been for nearly five years.

Rowe Michael, MBChB Medicine, 1981.

GP in Leicestershire. Educational activities now reduced to training, political activities now reduced to surviving the NHS changes. Two children almost fledged.

Stevenson Araya, BA German and Italian, 1981. Still recovering from M.E., hope to visit Germany next year and walk (for the first time) through the Brandenburg Gate.

Tyers David, MBChB Medicine, 1981. Recently returned from a further period of work in Southern Africa (Swaziland). Currently battling with the regulations to get back onto a PCT performers list.

1982

Campling Penelope, MBChB Medicine, 1982. Consultant psychiatrist and clinical Director in Leicester.

Horne Graham, BSc Physics with Astrophysics, 1982.

Married with two young daughters, Jessica and Amy. UK Athletics qualified coach with Bedford Harriers AC. Active supporter of, and shareholder in, Bedford Town Football Club. Still doing home brewing (25+ years!).

How Martha, BA Combined Studies (full-time), 1982.

Working as an HR Consultant in London for a range of interesting and challenging businesses. Happily married to Graham, living near Cambridge. Enjoys golf, walking, wildlife and theatre.

Johnson Caroline, MBChB Medicine, 1982. GP Principal, married with 2 children.

Kemp Adrian, MBChB Medicine, 1982. GP working in Sudbury.

Osborne Melanie, MBChB Medicine, 1982. Consultant Anaesthesia and ICU Wythenshawe Hospital, South Manchester.

Patrick Elizabeth, MBChB Medicine, 1982. Part time GP. Senior partner in five partner practice - teaching. Interest in occupational medicine. Married to Martyn. Outside interests include golf, walking, gardening, bridge, book group, and her wire fox terrier.

Perkin Carole, BA Geography, 1982; MA English Local History, 2000.

Still trying to implement the council's policy and introduce new systems to comply with the new legislation.

Raddan Malcolm, MEd, 1982.

Magistrate.

Widlake Grant, BSc Economics, 1982.

Currently busy building a nationally distributed document scanning company called The Cabinet Office using a franchise business model.

1983

Durkin Alison, BSc Medical Sciences, 1983; MBChB Medicine, 1986.

Retired from General Practice in 1999 due to heart problems. Living in Cornwall with husband Ross and two sons.

Humphries Elaine, MBChB Medicine, 1983. Staff Grade Child and Adolescent Psychiatrist, Bath.

Martin Stuart, MBChB Medicine, 1983.

GP in rural Norfolk.

Matthews Karen, MBChB Medicine, 1983.

Working as part-time GP in Leicestershire, married with two children both at University.

Prentice Janet, MBChB Medicine, 1983.

Living in Cardiff and spend time helping the Doctors' Support Network, a charity providing support and friendship to doctors with mental health problems. This follows ill health retirement from Public Health due to depression.

Rigden Brian, MBChB Medicine, 1983.

GP in Northampton.

Sanderson Margaret, MBChB Medicine, 1983.

GP in a large rural practice. Also PEC Chair for North Lincolnshire PCT. Married with 3 children. Has 2 dogs.

Tansey John, MBChB Medicine, 1983.

Partner in General Practice in Burton on Trent and a GPwSI in Substance Misuse with the Community Substance Misuse Team.

Twigger Andrew, BA French, 1983.

Married to Sally, 3 beautiful daughters, living in view of the Brecon beacons. Hobbies are shooting, sea-fishing and breeding gun dogs. Responsible for operational policing across Powys.

1984

Chappell Andrew, BSc Physics with Astrophysics, 1984. Giving advice on use and design of water quality measurement instruments.

Chibwana Victor, PGCE, 1984; MBA, 2002. Still pursuing goals and working various jobs.

Clark Elizabeth, MBChB Medicine, 1984.

Part time GP Principal in a small inner city practice in Bristol working with a deprived, culturally-diverse challenging population.

Dewar Ian, BSc Engineering, 1984.

Changed jobs in October 2007 and relocated from Kent to Derby in January 2008. Now works on large turbofans for Rolls-Royce Civil Aerospace.

Drabble Karen, MBChB Medicine, 1984.

General Practice

Hall Trevor, MBChB Medicine, 1984.

Full time GP in north Leicestershire. Interested in Blackpool Football Club, cricket and is improving his golf game.

Robertson Gavin, MBChB Medicine, 1984.

Consultant Surgeon in Leicester, specialising in Laparoscopic and Liver and Pancreas Surgery. Runs the Surgical registrar training programme for the deanery.

Smith Kevin, BSc Geology, 1984.

Currently running Royal Bank of Scotland's property lending operation covering inside the M25.

Wray Stephen, MBChB Medicine, 1984.

16th year as partner in general practice in Guernsey. Special interest in GP paediatrics and ALT and even more special interest in dingy racing and motor boating.

1985

Ahmed Nazia, MBChB Medicine, 1985.

GP in Norfolk and studying for a MSc in Infectious Diseases.

Anderson Vanessa, MBChB Medicine, 1985.

GP in Torquay.

Bennetts Richard, MBChB Medicine, 1985.

GP Partner The Limes Medical centre, Narborough. Leicester 1989 to present. MRCP 1990. Finals Examiner and Honorary Clinical Educator, undergraduate medical students, University of Leicester.

Clarke Eamonn, MBChB Medicine, 1985.

GP, runner, climber, explorer, and event organizer.

Davis Christopher, BSc Physics with Astrophysics, 1985.

Enjoying life in Texas with his wife Beverley and children Ryan and Whitney. Would like to hear from fellow alumni he has lost contact with.

Fletcher Murray, MBChB Medicine, 1985. After completing a GP VTS, retrained and pursued a career in Palliative Medicine. Has been a consultant since 1995, and is now Medical Director of a hospice in S.W. England. Was a graduate entrant to LMS, and is enormously grateful for the chance given to him by Leicester. Is proud to be associated with LMS, and is delighted that an Alumni Association is being created.

Foster Diana, BSc Medical Sciences, 1983; MBChB, Medicine 1985.

GP in NE Bristol and South Gloucestershire and also GP lead in diabetes for South Gloucestershire PCT. Married with two children, James (16) and Kirsty (14).

James-Griffiths Paul, BA Classical Studies, 1985. Runs an historical tour in Edinburgh and a science society as part of his work with Edinburgh City Mission.

Lindsay Joanne, BSc Physics with Astrophysics, 1985. Married to Rob with one daughter - Elizabeth, born in 2000. Still at BAE Systems, Rochester - now a Performance Excellence Director.

Maskery Judith, MBChB Medicine, 1985. GP in Nottingham.

Morris Nicola, MBChB Medicine, 1985. GP principal in Hethersett, near Norwich. Has been a GP tutor and is an examiner for the UEA Medical school. Completed Health Science at UEA in 2003.

Naughton-Doe Patrick, MBChB Medicine, 1985.

GP with interests in Prison Medicine, mental health and undergraduate teaching at Hull-York Medical School. Enjoys photography and mountain biking. Married with 4 children.

Prettyman Juliet, MBChB Medicine, 1985. GP with special interest in Dermatology in Leicester.

Prettyman Richard, MBChB Medicine, 1985. Consultant psychiatrist for the elderly and honorary senior lecturer in Leicester. Since 2004 has been lead consultant in the older person's service of the Leicestershire Partnership NHS Trust.

Radley Jane, MBChB Medicine, 1985.

Consultant Psychiatrist with a special interest in autistic spectrum disorders at St Andrew's Hospital, Northampton.

Robertson Siobhan, LLB Law, 1985.

Living in Jersey (Channel Islands) and taking an extended career break since the birth of her third child. She worked as a solicitor specialising in commercial litigation in central London for 10 years, and then at 2 law firms in Jersey. Married with 3 daughters, Kinvara (10), Saoirse (8) and Cliona (6). Would be pleased to hear from old Leicester friends.

Skipper Alison, BSc Geography, 1984; PGCE, 1985.

Taking a break from teaching to look after her four young children.

Sladden Michael, MBChB Medicine, 1985.

Consultant Dermatologist in Tasmania. Hon. Senior Lecturer at the University of Tasmania. Retired GP. Married to Julie, 2 sons - Jack and Tom. Enjoying Tasmanian sunshine.

Smart David, MBChB Medicine, 1985.

Full time partner in urban Practice (teaching). GPWSI mental health Northamptonshire Teaching PCT. Member of RCGP mental health case group.

Snow David, MBChB Medicine, 1985.

Consultant anaesthetist at Torbay Hospital in Torquay.

Woolford Marcus, MBChB Medicine, 1985.

MRCGP 1989. Partner in PMS Practice in Leicester Forest East from 1990. Clinical Assistant for the Leicestershire Partnership Trust.

1986Brown Elspeth, MBChB Medicine, 1986.

Consultant paediatric cardiologist at Leeds General Infirmary.

Bruce-Lomba Elizabeth, LLB Law, 1986; MBChB Medicine, 1993.

Working as a family doctor in the Portuguese State System. Living with husband Steve and son Jimi (aged 13). Interests include acupuncture, fitness and playing the flute and violin.

Fox Grenville, MBChB Medicine, 1986.

Consultant Neonatologist and Clinical Director children's services and genetics, Guy's and St Thomas' Hospital.

Gibson Sarah, MBChB Medicine, 1986.

Part time in General Practice in Fleetwood Lancs. Physician-in-charge BUPA Wellness Classics Hospital Blackpool.

Hughes Judith, BSc Medical Sciences, 1986.

Initially did Ophthalmology (FRCOphth). Joined pharmaceutical industry in 1996. Now running own pharmaceutical consultancy business.

Hume Nigel, MBChB Medicine 1986.

GP in Wansford near Stamford. GP trainer and course organiser for Peterborough VTS. 2 children now 18 and 15 years old.

Kirby Suzanne, MBChB Medicine, 1986.

Part time GP in Doncaster, married with one daughter. Younger sister recently qualified at Sheffield University 2006 as a Doctor.

Mansfield Darren, MBChB Medicine, 1986.

GP Principal Rochdale 1995 - 2007. Last 7 years as Clinical (EA) in Diabetes. Now Clinical Lead in urgent care Bolton PCT and GP.

Paul Rosalind, BA History and Politics, 1986.

Leading a team which supports schools to increase the achievement of asylum seekers, refugees, Gypsy Roma travellers and other pupils new to the UK.

Roach Patrick, BSc Sociology, 1986.

Married with two children. Awarded Doctorate in Education. Leading development of National Policy for schools and teachers.

Roberts Ian, MBChB Medicine, 1986.

Consultant in Anaesthesia and Intensive Care. Chief Medical Officer, Silverstone Circuit. Chief Medical Officer, Formula One British Grand Prix.

Turnbull Susan, MBChB Medicine, 1986.

Following a career change from General Practice, is an SpR in Occupational Medicine and will achieve consultant status in October 2008. Married another Leicester graduate and has two children.

Upton Dominic, BSc Combined Science, 1986.

Professor and Head of Psychology at the University of Worcester.

Wild Stephen, MBChB Medicine, 1986.

GP in Leyburn, North Yorkshire 2001 to present. Previously a GP in Brisbane 1990-2001. Married with two boys aged 13 and 9.

Wright Stephen, MBChB Medicine, 1986. Working in General Practice. Has a special interest in dermatology and is an honorary tutor at Cardiff University. Living in Lincolnshire with his partner and four children.

1987

Bachoo Paul, MBChB Medicine, 1987. Consultant Vernacular Surgeon, Aberdeen.

Beadman Michael, BEng Engineering (Electrical and Electronic), 1987. Founder and MD of Cambridge Design Partnership, an expanding consultancy specialising in medical product engineering.

Everett David, BSc Biological Sciences, 1987. Runs a telecoms consultancy, working with associates to provide a complete service to business telecoms users. This includes advising on landline and mobile services as well as hardware.

Freeman Lesley, MBChB Medicine, 1987. Working as a GP in Leeds.

Fridge Jacqueline, MBChB Medicine, 1987. Moved to the US in 1991 where he qualified as a Paediatrician then attended Stanford, Palo Alto, CA to take a fellowship in Paediatric Gastroenterology, Hepatology and Nutrition. After practising in California (Oakland) moved to Portland, Oregon where he practices as a Paediatric Gastroenterologist. Married with two daughters.

Harris Julie, MBChB Medicine, 1987. Part time GP in market town in Lincs. (Bourne Galletly Practice)

Hill Philip, BA Economics and Economic History, 1987. Currently working as a professional social worker with adults with learning disabilities in Birmingham. Published a book in July 2008 entitled 'Living Out of the Book': A Journey From a Diagnosis of Learning Difficulties through Periods of Mental Illness to a Career as a Professional Social Worker published by Chipmunka Publishing.

Hilton Rachel, MBChB Medicine, 1987. MRCP 1993; DRCOG1992: Diploma in Practical Dermatology (Cardiff) 1998. Full time Partner in General Practice. GPSI Dermatology.

Laffey Susan, BA French, 1987. Has had her first book published: "Jack Garbutt - The Bilsdale Bombardier".

Nikitas Nickolaos, Economics, 1987. Leads the Export Department Team of Procos S.A. His company is the leading European producer of pastry goods, exporting to 68 countries around the world.

Partridge Susan, MBChB Medicine, 1987. Consultant Microbiologist at Furness General hospital, Barrow in Furness, part of the University Hospitals of Morecombe Bay NHS Trust.

Russell Nichola, MBChB Medicine, 1987. General Practitioner and GP Trainer, Northwich, Cheshire. University of Liverpool, Dept of General Practice. Tutor in effective consulting skills and tutor in foundation course in Education. GP appraiser. Married to a GP, 4 children.

Summerton Duncan, MBChB Medicine, 1987. Consultant Urological Surgeon back in Leicester with a Reconstructive and Andrological Practice. Previously a consultant in Portsmouth, 2001-2004.

Wade David, MBChB Medicine, 1987. A GP in Northampton for 12 years, married to Gina for 2 1/2 years. Just gave up playing soccer.

1988

Barrett-Yuen Ka-Kwan, BA Sociology, 1988. Responsible for the corporate geographic information system, carrying out spatial and other data analysis on a day to day basis.

Beech Lisa, MBChB Medicine, 1988. Since 1999 has been living in the western suburbs of Paris with her husband and two sons. Works as a bilingual medical gynaecologist.

Gorman Gillian, MBChB Medicine, 1988. Full time GP in Wilmslow. Married with two children aged 13 and 11.

Hansford Neil, MBChB Medicine, 1988. Currently employed as a salaried GP at Oakham in Rutland. Previously served a sixteen year commission as a Medical Officer in the Royal Air Force.

Ibbotson Ian, MBChB Medicine, 1988. Principle in General Practice in Clitheroe, Lancashire, full time. Does 3 sessions of Occupational Medicine a week and holds the diploma. Married with 3 children.

Thompson Jonathan, MBChB Medicine, 1988. Senior lecturer in Anaesthesia and Critical Care, University of Leicester and UHL NHS Trust. Recently appointed editor, British Journal of Anaesthesia. Chairman, Vascular Anaesthesia Society of Great Britain and Ireland.

Youde Jane, MBChB Medicine, 1988. Consultant Physician with an interest in Medicine for the Elderly.

1989

Bennett Nicholas, BA History of Art, 1989. Has given up work and is going to Greece to build a house in an olive grove.

Fraser Richard, BA English, 1989. Communications Officer at the head office of Voice: the union for education professionals in Derby and Editor of the union's journal, "Your Voice", and website.

Holland Mark, BSc Engineering (Electrical), 1989. Director of Enterprise Wide Technology initiatives within Fidelity Investments Ltd.

Logan Andrew, BA Economics, 1989. Working as an economist, living in Wimbledon.

Moxon Philip, MBChB Medicine, 1989. Principal in General Practice in Great Yarmouth. GP trainer and course organiser on Broadlands VTS, Great Yarmouth.

Pringle John, BSc Combined Science, 1989. Working as a finance business partner for IT services company EDS. Qualified as chartered certified accountant in 1996. Married in 2002. Lives in SW London.

Ruddock Caroline, MBChB Medicine, 1989. Three quarter time GP partner with special interest in cosmetic techniques as a private venture. Married with 2 children.

Scriven John, MBChB Medicine, 1989; Doctor of Medicine, 2000. Consultant Surgeon at Birmingham Heartlands Hospital.

Swaffer Carol, LLB Law with French, 1989. After 12 years practising competition law in private practice and at the OFT has changed tack and is now enjoying the challenges and responsibility of criminal and prison law as a member of the Parole Board, deciding whether prisoners can be released.

Taylor Karen, MBChB Medicine, 1989. Radiation Oncologist, specialising in breast cancer. Living in Melbourne, Australia and working part time, sharing work with bringing up my two daughters.

Tickner Michael, BA Politics and Economic History, 1989.

Mike continues to serve in the Regular Army. Married to Victoria, they now have a daughter, Verity.

1990

Baker David, MBChB Medicine, 1990. Currently working as a General Practitioner in Grantham, Lincolnshire. Married with 3 children.

Butcher Philip, BA Geography, 1990. From September 2008 on the staff team at Woodlands Evangelical Church in Derby. Married to Briony for 16 years now. Our 2 boys are now 11 and 8.

Davies Ffion, MBChB Medicine, 1990. Consultant in Emergency Medicine with a special interest in Paediatric Emergency Medicine. Author of 2 DVDs and a book. Still hands-on clinical, while being a manager, teacher and researcher.

Dunn Fergal, MBChB Medicine, 1990. Consultant in Emergency Medicine, Causeway Hospital, Northern Ireland

Hart Zoe, MBChB Medicine, 1990. Moved to New Zealand in 1991 after House jobs, initially for a year of work experience and fun and is still there. Working as a part-time GP, with a GP husband (ex Leeds) and two children.

Hickman Nicola, MBChB Medicine, 1990. Consultant Anaesthetist at Leicester General Hospital and mother of 3.

Maqsood Majed, BSc Physics, 1990. Self-employed gas engineer and teach mathematics part-time. Married with three children.

Robson Stuart, BSc Biological Sciences, 1990. Brewing the best beer in South Africa at family owned brewery. Married to Sherene and living in Durban with a young family and three dogs.

Tallon Carole, BSc Biological Sciences, 1984; MBChB Medicine, 1990.

Consultant in Palliative Medicine in Northamptonshire. Doesn't have as much time for music and drama as when at University but is still singing.

1991

Ahmed Sharon, MBChB Medicine, 1991. Consultant Paediatric Endocrinologists and Diabetologist at Mid Essex Hospitals NHS trust.

Dhaliwal Jagdeesh, MBChB Medicine, 1991. GP, West Midlands. Director of Midlands Faculty RCGP and West Midlands NHS Leadership Programme. Director of MSc in Health Services Management, University of Warwick. Director of Pasantta International En Liderazgo Para Profesionales De Salud - a Spanish Language medium course in Leadership.

Flook Paul, LLB Law, 1991. Married to Rachel, with 5 year old twin girls. Works as an Associate Director at Berwin Leighton Paisner and specialise in construction and engineering disputes.

Hodds Elizabeth, MBChB Medicine, 1991. GP in Rugby. Training future General Practitioners.

Khalique Sophia, MBChB Medicine, 1991. Private GP at 48 Wimpole Street.

Mosco Jane, BA Combined Arts, 1991. Living in Bellingen, Australia, with his partner and two children, between the rainforest and the sea. Loves to garden, play the flute, work, be with family and friends.

Nelson Gillian, MBChB Medicine, 1991. Works in the Pharmaceutical Industry.

Nortcliffe Sally, MBChB Medicine, 1991. Consultant Anaesthetics special interest obstetrics college at Walsall Manor Hospital. Enjoys travelling and living in an almost renovated house.

Purdy-Piggin Elizabeth, BED Education, 1991. Currently school teacher in Leicestershire. She is married with a young son.

Rose Gillian, MBChB Medicine, 1991. Consultant Plastic and Hand Surgeon at Leicester Royal Infirmary with interest in training and education.

Thean See, MBChB Medicine, 1991. Senior Consultant, Clinical Director of Ophthalmology, Head Lasik & Refractive Surgery, Head Comprehensive Eye Services, Glaucoma, Uvertis & Refractive Surgery Sub-specialist, National University Hospital, Singapore.

Thorpe Paul, MBChB Medicine, 1991. Enjoying life and work in the beautiful South West with his wife Jo and 4 children.

Wainhouse Catherine, MBChB Medicine, 1991. Consultant child and adolescent psychiatrist, North London. Honorary Senior Lecturer Imperial School of Medicine London.

Weidmann Crispin, MBChB Medicine, 1991. Consultant Neuroanaesthetist with a special interest in aware craniotomy for "Eloquent Brain Surgery". Lives and works in Southampton and has 2 young children and a wife to keep him busy.

Whitton Paul, BSc Combined Studies, 1991. Science Manager for a large Bakery ingredients company. Primarily the technical link between new product development and operations.

Wood Christina, MBChB Medicine, 1991. Consultant Anaesthetist at St Georges Hospital, South London.

1992

Blackburn Dean, MBChB Medicine, 1992. Currently working as a Consultant in Palliative medicine in Queen Elizabeth Hospital, King's Lynn and West Norfolk.

Clapp Nicola, BA Combined Studies (full-time), 1992. Just completed her masters degree in special needs education with merit. Now works with children at St Peters school. Plays the violin and loves life.

Cohen Richard, BA History and Politics, 1992; Living in New Jersey and is Global Sales Process Manager for Mars Incorporated. He is married with a son and a daughter.

Connell Rebecca, MBChB Medicine, 1992. Happily married mother of 3 small children. Manages to squeeze in a part time job as a GP into her busy schedule.

Greatrex Andrew, MBChB Medicine, 1992. General Practitioner.

Greatrex Rosemarie, MBChB Medicine, 1992. Medical Writer for a Medical Communications Consultancy. Married to Andrew (also Graduated 1992), and has two children. Lives in Cambridgeshire.

Ho Tseng, BEng Engineering (Electrical and Electronic), 1992. Has established a business in Hong Kong that designs and supplies renewable energy systems for lighting and telecommunications, mainly using wind turbines and solar panels.

Hyde Penny, MBChB Medicine, 1992. Working as a part-time GP, supporting her husband who is a Baptist Minister, and caring for their 3 children. She has achieved DCH, DRCOG and MRCP.

Law Helen, MBChB Medicine, 1992. Part time GP in Lichfield, Staffordshire. Married to Steve Law and have 2 children and 3 dogs to keep them busy.

Morris Robert, BA English, 1992. Married to Michaela, August 2008. Has kept in touch with a small loyal and loving group of people from University, regularly now for 14 years. After a decade as a professional actor, Rob is now 'Director of Drama' at Clifton College in Bristol, where he has taught English and Drama for the last four years.

Oswell Andrew, MBChB Medicine, 1992. Consultant Physician in Winchester and Clinical Teacher at Southampton Medical School. My speciality is in Peri-Operative care and Ortho-Geriatrics. I have also recently taken on the role of Director of Medical Education.

Polycarpou Polys, MBChB Medicine, 1992. Works as a consultant nephrologist.

Potter Matthew, BSc Mathematics, 1992; MSc/Diploma Information Technology, 1994. Qualified certified accountant working in Leigh-on-Sea.

Taylor Stephen, MBChB Medicine, 1992. HIV antiretroviral therapy, sexual transmission of HIV, clinical Pharmacology of HIV therapy, HIV and STI teaching and education, STI/HIV interactions.

Wheatley Price Nicola, MBChB Medicine, 1992. GP Berwick, Australia. FRACGP awarded Dec 2007.

1993

Barlow Gavin, MBChB Medicine, 1993. Consultant in Infectious Diseases/General Medicine at Hull and East Yorkshire Hospitals and Hon. Senior Clinical Lecturer at Hull York Medical school.

Chilvers Julian, MBChB Medicine, 1993. Consultant Anaesthetist, City Hospital, Birmingham.

Collyer-Todd Annabel, BSc Geology, 1993. Working part-time designing geophysical software training courses, and has just completed MSc in Companion Animal Behaviour at Southampton University.

Layton Diane, MBChB Medicine, 1993. Part time GP in Manchester.

Loh Richard, MBChB Medicine, 1993. Full time Practitioner in Halifax, West Yorkshire.

McMaster Richard, BSc Economics, 1993. He is interested in getting in touch with freshmen from Digby Hall from 1990-91, and BSc Economics freshmen from the same year – Richard was the Irishman known as "Tricky". He is currently a photographer and poet.

Pettit Elizabeth, MBChB Medicine, 1993. Working as a Salaried GP in Bradford.

Rigler Alison, MBChB Medicine, 1993. Associate specialist community Paediatrician Medical advisor - Adoption - Fostering. Recent MSc in Child health - Warwick. Also a wife and mother of three.

Tailor Vijay, MBChB Medicine, 1993. GP Principal in West London (Full time), GP Teacher for Imperial Medical School, GP Clinical Supervisor for Foundation Yr 2 Doctors, GP Appraiser for Ealing PCT GP Consultant for GPRD (MHRA).

Tyermon Kerry, MBChB Medicine, 1993. GP Principal working 8 sessions per week in Louth, Lincolnshire.

Vohra Salim, MBChB Medicine, 1993. Exploring the links between health, risk, the environment and sustainability, with the aim of improving and protecting individual and community health and wellbeing.

Zervas Aristides, MA Business Analysis, 1993. Responsible to control and support the finance managers of 10 manufacturing plants around the world.

1994

Clarkson Karen, MBChB Medicine, 1994. Consultant Histopathologist at Glenfield Hospital, Leicester.

Clayton Robert, BSc Mathematics, 1994. Married with three daughters but still getting out to play football.

Furlonger Andrew, MBChB Medicine, 1994. Consultant anaesthetist working at the Royal Hallamshire Hospital in Sheffield.

Glover Stephanie, MBChB Medicine, 1994. Consultant Anaesthetist in Sheffield with a special interest in Obstetric Anaesthesia. Interested in Medical Education and course Director of the local Final FRCA course. Married to Andy, a chartered accountant who she met whilst working in the bar in Stamford Hall.

Goodwin Naomi, MBChB Medicine, 1994. Consultant anaesthetist in Cardiff. Special interests in Renal Transplant, Ent. and Academia. One husband and three children keep her busy and happy.

Grainger Jacqueline, MBChB Medicine, 1994. Working as a GP in Middlesborough.

Hooke Rachel, MBChB Medicine, 1994. Working as a medical project manager, dealing mainly with junior doctors' hours and initiatives such as "Hospital at Night".

Ibrahim Fatima, MBChB Medicine, 1994. Recently appointed consultant in GUM at the Leicester Royal Infirmary. Moved back to Leicester in January 2005 on to the SPR Training Programme in GUM, having moved away to London and abroad after House jobs.

James Nicolette, MBChB Medicine, 1994. MPH - Harvard School of Public Health (Masters Degree) MPH D Phil - Oxford University GPWSI Role/GP Principal Role. Currently married with two children.

Lo Ching, MBA, 1994. Marketing Consultant and trainer.

Patsalides Christodoulos, MBChB Medicine, 1994. I am a consultant orthopaedic surgeon at Homerton University Hospital in London. my special interest is shoulder and knee surgery, arthroscopy and sports medicine.

Saglani Sejal, MBChB Medicine, 1994. Clinical Senior Lecturer in Respiratory Paediatrics at Imperial College London and Honorary Consultant Respiratory Paediatrics, Royal Brompton Hospital London.

Sotiropoulos Stylianos, MA Business Analysis, 1994. Working with Probank, a small bank in Greece which provides a full range of banking facilities. Head of a newly established department "Corporate & Investment Banking" responsible for bond loan issues, capital markets etc.

Tan Swee, MBA, 1994.

After graduating moved on from a Banking career to Financial Planning for Individuals in 2001. This is his second career involving the conceptualising and implementation of financial plans over the life-cycle of individuals.

Wachtel Sean, MBChB Medicine, 1994.

MRCP 1997 DTMIH 2001 MRCGP 2002. Single handed GP, South of Holland. Previously worked in Middle East, Far East and Africa.

Williams Lisa, MBChB Medicine, 1994.

MRCPsych 1999; MSc 2002; Currently a Consultant in old age psychiatry in Merseyside.

1995Ahmet Aydin, PhD Public Order, 1995.

Professor in Public Administration and the Dean of the Faculty of Economics and Administrative Sciences, Kahramanmaraş University, Turkey.

Bowater Rachel, MBChB Medicine, 1995.

GP principal (partner in Northampton).

Brown-Proctor Clive, BSc Chemistry, 1990; Chemistry Research, 1995.

Has relocated to Connecticut with Pfizer from Michigan. Is enjoying exploring new area with his wife Candy, and children Ben, Sophie and Amelia.

Budd Elizabeth, MBChB Medicine, 1995.

Married with 2 children (girls aged 6 and 4). Working at Fremantle Hospital completing psychiatry training. Enjoy windsurfing, camping and outdoor life. Wine tasting in Margaret River and socializing with friends.

Drage Stephen, MBChB Medicine, 1995.

Consultant in Intensive Care at Brighton and Sussex University Hospitals NHS Trust. His main interests are Critical Care research and audit. Married to Fiona Lindsay and has two children, Hannah and Thomas.

Franks Lynsey, BSc Combined Science, 1995.

Living in Leeds with husband, Kevin, and three children (Evie, Dougal and Maggie).

Frodham Leila, MBChB Medicine, 1995.

Senior registrar in Obs and Gynae at St Georges Hospital, London (flexible trainee), MRCOG 2000, membership of Institute Psychosexual Medicine 2007. Also has two Psychosexual Medicine Clinics (1 PCT led and 1 Hospital Based), research in HIV Positive women and assisted conception. She has three children.

Henry Fiona, BSc Geography, 1995.

Married to Mike, son Thomas (2) and (at time of writing) 2nd child due any day. After a decade in marketing communications management with various financial services companies, she is currently trying a new career in parenting full time.

Ryves Joanne, BA Business Economics, 1995.

Living in New Zealand - enjoying life in the sun! Just completed PEDip Business (Administration) from Triple Crowned University of Auckland Business School.

1996Bailey Melissa, BA Business Economic, 1996.

Working closely with client on their IT strategy and transformation, made Management Today's "Top 35 Under 35 List 2008".

Dean Jennifer, MBChB Medicine, 1996.

Having moved into Management, she is currently studying for an MBA full time at the Judge Business School, Cambridge University.

Downes Robert, MBChB Medicine, 1996.

In her final year of training in anaesthetics and intensive care medicine. Married with three children, a caravan and a Lotus sports car.

Fry Toby, BSc Combined Science, 1996.

Is living and working in Hong Kong, visiting Asia, scuba diving, enjoying the sun.

Holmes Laura, BSc Biological Sciences, 1996.

Has a busy life with her husband and 3 children. Does some pharmaceutical market research work and is also a school governor and CAMRA member.

Hoyle Joanne, BA Combined Arts, 1995;

PGCE, 1996. Married Mark in 2003. Living in Sunderland, working as an educational psychologist. She has fond memories of Leicester years at Beaumont and North Avenue and is still having Leicester girls reunions.

Jones Sara, MBChB Medicine, 1996.

Full time GP in Surrey.

Karat Isabella, MBChB Medicine, 1996.

Finished her general surgical training and has specialised in Oncoplastic Breast Surgery after doing an Oncoplastic BAPS/BASO fellowship in Liverpool last year. FRCS awarded 2007.

Kitchin Suzie, BA Geography, 1996.

She is enjoying life and exploring the world. Funding Working as a learning support librarian at Durham University Library.

Leong Moi, MBChB Medicine, 1996.

Consultant Anaesthetist at the Alexandra Hospital, Redditch, Worcestershire.

Mayer Carol, Museum Studies Research, 1996.

Has returned from a research trip to Papua New Guinea where she recorded the latmul language to use to name artefacts in the Museum.

Moore Claire, BSc Biological Sciences, 1996.

Full-time mother to a three year-old daughter and a one year-old son. Married to Alan Moore for eight years.

Nardo Melanie, LLB (EC), Law, 1996.

She is still working at Wrigley in the Law department which gives her plenty to chew on. She loves her job and feels lucky to be based in the beautiful city of Munich.

Ng Pei, BEng Engineering (Electrical and Electronic), 1996.

Would like to keep in touch with fellow MBA Class of 1997. Known as "Andy from Malaysia". Would like to be emailed.

Painter Robert, BA Politics and Economic History, 1996.

Happily married to Eleanor for three years, living in Enfield in their new home. Working hard at News International running a Customer Insight department. Still plays golf and following West Ham.

Pennycook Jon, BSc Physics with Astrophysics, 1996.

Working on "public sector Flex".

Pierce Anna, BSc Psychology 1996.

Has returned to the 'real world' of work after a year's maternity leave. With her husband, Andy, has two gorgeous children (one of each) and are kept entertained by their antics.

Saunders Daniel, MBChB Medicine, 1996.

SpR Clinical Oncology in Leeds. Chair of RCR Oncology Registrars' Forum.

Tesha Paul, MBChB Medicine, 1996.

I am a Vitreorenal Fellow at St Michael's Hospital, Toronto, Canada. I am married to Katie Tesha, also a Leicester University Graduate and we have one daughter.

Voon Lilian, MSc (DL) Training, 1996. Currently in talent management and development in the Asia Pacific Consumer Banking Group for Citibank. This looks specifically at the high professional managers in the Asia Pacific region, and ensures their necessary experiential and training needs are met. This in turn supports the succession plan for the company.

White Elizabeth, BSc Chemistry, 1996; PGCE, 1997.

Recently married and returned to London. Is in charge of A level chemistry in a new sixth form centre.

1997

Akowuah Enoch, MBChB Medicine, 1997. SpR Cardiothoracic Surgery in Bristol.

Atwal Arminder, MBChB Medicine, 1997. Has been a GP Principal for several years. Is am involved in the teaching and the assessing of medical students. His passion for football remains and he still plays regularly, otherwise his free time is spent enjoying family life.

Bartram Lisa, MBChB Medicine, 1997. Working as a Specialist Registrar in General and Geriatric Medicine in the Peninsula Deanery. Living in Exeter with her husband Dai and daughter Daisy.

Chiang Robert, MBA, 1997.

Member of the board of the Taipei County Medical Association. Advisory member of the committee in Taipei district of the Bureau of National Health Insurance.

Colquhoun Alexandra, MBChB Medicine, 1997; MD Cancer Studies and Molecular Medicine, 2006. She liked Leicester so much that she is still here. She is just about to finish training as a uro-onologist and is looking forward to branching out into the wide world.

Dublon Victoria, MBChB Medicine, 1997. Currently a consultant paediatrician at the Royal Free Hospital, London. She has been in the post 6 months and is am thoroughly enjoying it. Just in the process of buying a very expensive flat! (London prices!)

Goyal Angela, MBChB Medicine, 1997. Currently combining being a busy GP with motherhood, both of which are enjoyable and keep her out of trouble.

Hamilton Ian, Prof Studies in Education, 1997.

Currently waiting for kidney transplant. No longer able to teach is looking for a 'new' area of interest and would appreciate any suggestions. Has a rare bone marrow disorder.

Kenneth Pearson, MSc/Diploma in Training, 1997. Representing Unison members in Higher Education, local government, health, environment agency, and negotiating collective agreements on their behalf in a democratic member-led union.

Kenny Susan, BSc Geography, 1997.

Looking after her daughter Francesca. Planning to return to work part time as an Accountant when daughter is one.

Lawrie Iain, MBChB Medicine, 1997.

Consultant in Palliative Medicine working between a large NHS Trust and an independent hospice.

Mehar Ayaz, BSc Medical Biochemistry, 1997. As well as working in cancer research, also run runs his own driving school - Yazz School of Motoring.

Patwary Mohammad, PG CERT Criminal Justice & Police Management, 1997.

At present he is the Chief of Criminal Investigation-Department, Bangladesh Police.

Quartley Toby, MBChB Medicine, 1997.

GP in Principal in Bicester, Oxon.

Vlachou Paraskevi, MBChB Medicine, 1997.

Final Year SpR radiology in Leicester. Started a fellowship in Toronto July 2008.

Williams David, MSc/Diploma In Training, 1997.

Elected general councillor (trustee) to the Chartered Institute of Environmental Health.

1998

Barnsdale Peter, MBChB Medicine, 1998.

GP in Mission, BC championing computerised Medical records and working in the town's ER. Delegate for this region for the Society of GPs in BC.

Burton Henrietta, MBChB Medicine, 1998.

GP at Anstey in Leicestershire - half time partner. Clinical assistant at Breast Care Unit, Glenfield Hospital. Married to James Burton - graduated from Leicester in 2001 who is Nephrology Registrar in Leicester. Has one son, Felix, aged six months.

Dixon Andrew, MBChB Medicine, 1998.

Consultant Gastroenterologist at Kettering General Hospital.

Gill Bhavita, MBChB Medicine, 1998.

Working as a sessional out of hours GP. She is also a full-time mother and runs a part-time business from home. She would love to hear from any colleagues to catch up.

Gormley Thomas, MA Mass Communications, 1998.

Completed PhD in Industrial Relations and Human Resource Management at Graduate School of Business, University College Dublin, April 2008.

Hallam Carl, BSc Geology, 1998.

About to get married later this year. One daughter. Currently studying towards Civil Engineering qualifications.

Handley Peter, MSc/Dip Criminal Justice Studies (DL), 1998.

Although retired he remains quite fully occupied as the treasurer of two charitable trusts and as a Justice of the Peace.

Helm Emma, MBChB Medicine, 1998.

Consultant paediatric anaesthetist, Leicester Royal Infirmary.

Hollingworth Kay, MBChB Medicine, 1998.

After a short stint in A&E she worked her way around the UK training as an Ophthalmologist. She is now a Specialist Registrar in Ophthalmology, working at St James's Hospital, Leeds.

Kehinde Elijah, Doctor of Medicine, 1998.

Is engaged in basic and clinical science research on urological oncology particularly prostate cancer.

Kelsey Rachael, MBChB Medicine, 1998.

GP Principal in Derby City centre with special interests in palliative care, family planning and most recently substance misuse. After leaving Leicester she was a Medical SHO for a year then joined the Derby VTS to become a GP and has never looked back. She works part time and has two gorgeous children.

Kurinczuk Jennifer, MBChB Medicine, 1985; Doctor of Medicine, 1998.

Deputy Director of a national research unit at Oxford University. Living in Leicester and married to Leicester University Professor, who is also a Leicester graduate. They have 13 year old twins.

Manoharan Cheria, MSc Training and HR Management, 1998. Responsible for the implementation of PPSB's Safety, Health and Environment Management Systems and ensuring compliance to legal requirements (OSHA/FMA) and regulations. Also Port Health regulations, EQA (regulations and others) and Industry standards in line with the safety policy of PPSB.

Martin Tracy-Jayne, BA Archaeology/Sociology, 1998. After running a succession of public houses she has now turned to 'outplacement' support for large corporate companies offering CV writing packages. An American company with 250 world wide offices with great opportunities to travel. She finds this interesting but her heart is still with Archaeology and Anthropology.

McCully Michael, MSc (DL) Study of Security Management, 1998. After retirement he is currently taking stock of his options and catching up on various things he had been meaning to do for a long time. Will no doubt start to look for a new career in the near future.

Mills Rachel, BSc Combined Science, 1998. About to start General Practice training.

Morgan Patrick, MBChB Medicine, 1998. Living in South London, married to Catherine (nee Burton) with two kids, Evie and Max. Currently nearing completion of training in Intensive Care Medicine and Anaesthesia.

Penalzoza Maria, MA Economic Development, 1998. She is happily working at the Office for National Statistics in the measurement of public services productivity. This is a challenging role with much to learn, much to do, but even more to contribute to.

Pugh Cerys, MBChB Medicine, 1998. Now a GP in South Wigston having never left Leicester since my arrival at Medical School in 1993.

Ridgeway Yvonne, BA Geography, 1998. Currently living in Sheffield and is employed as a Schedules Officer at Stagecoach Yorkshire. Previously worked for South Yorkshire Passenger Transport Executive as a Service Information Officer.

Sadler James, MBChB Medicine, 1998. Applying for Consultant posts in Anaesthesia and is living in Leicestershire with his wife Helen and two children, Beatrice and Charlotte.

Veronika Cassidy, MBChB Medicine, 1998. Working as GP in Auckland, planning to return to UK.

West-Jones Jennifer, MBChB Medicine, 1998. Specialist Registrar in Emergency Medicine. Mother of a beautiful daughter.

1999

Ahmad Mirza, LL.M Law and Employment Relations, 1999. On 9th July he was awarded the Honorary Degree of Doctor of Laws (LLD) from Manchester Metropolitan University in recognition of his "exceptional services to the legal profession, work on ethical governance, human rights and freedom of information that has made him such an appropriate role model for those following in his footsteps".

Allan Bonner, MSc Risk Crisis & Disaster Management, 1999. Allan's new book is entitled "Tough Love at the Table--Power, Culture and Diversity in Negotiations, Mediation & Conflict Resolution". He is studying this political season in America, attending the Presidential debates and Denver Convention and will have a book out entitled "Political Convention" for the presidential inaugural on January 20. He is celebrating 20 years in private practice in his crisis management and communications company.

Bains Robert, MBChB Medicine, 1999. Specialist Registrar in Plastic Surgery on Yorkshire rotation.

Brewer Alison, MBChB Medicine, 1999. SpR Anaesthetics of Leicester.

Broadbent Steven, MBChB Medicine, 1999. Initially trained as an Orthopaedic surgeon and has now moved to GP training. Hopes to develop a sports injury practice. He is married and has a little girl.

Conybeare Alison, MBChB Medicine, 1999. After failing to complete a career in Thoracic Surgery, she has changed her focus towards training. She is currently undertaking a MSc in Medical Education (Distance Learning through Cardiff) and running a small business in picture framing. However she is shortly due to commence as the Leicester Territorial Army Training Officer.

Cooke Joanne, MBChB Medicine, 1999. Currently a Surgeon in the Royal Naval and completing her Registrar Training in General Surgery in the South West.

Dockrell Raymond, MBChB Medicine, 1999. Full time GP partner locally in Hinckley, involved in teaching both undergraduates and postgraduates.

Findlay Mark, MBChB Medicine, 1999. GP Partner at Barwell Medical Centre, near Hinckley in Leicestershire.

Fish Ian, MSc Study of Security Management (DL), 1999. He is running a small team of consultants specializing in security management; business continuity, crisis and emergency response management, working across all sectors and all types of organisation.

Gordon Ian, MBChB Medicine, 1999. GP in Leicester.

Ker Suzy, MBChB Medicine, 1999. Consultant in General Adult Psychiatry and Early Intervention in Psychosis in Harrogate.

Lakes Esther, MBChB Medicine, 1999. Working as an 8 session/wk salaried GP in a rural surgery. She is married and lives with her husband and their 2 dogs in rural West Sussex.

Lees Nicholas, MBChB Medicine, 1999. Specialist registrar in Anaesthesia and Intensive Care Medicine, London.

Lloyd-Williams Mari, MBChB Medicine, 1991; Doctor of Medicine, 1999. Appointed Senior Lecturer at the University of Liverpool in 2002 and Personnel chair in 2003. Lead research team on palliates medicine, work clinically as consultant in palliates medicine and Director of Community medical education for Faculty of Medicine. Sit on several Regional, National and International committees.

Lynch Leanne, MBChB Medicine, 1999. Completed GP training and now at home full time with her daughter.

Mutonyi John, MSc Study of Security Management (DL), 1999; Scarman Centre Research, 2003. Manages an interdisciplinary team that has investigative and intelligence function on corruption and economic crimes in Kenya.

Siddle Stephanie, MBChB Medicine, 1999. Became GP partner at Brunswick House Medical Group, Carlisle, April 2007. Married to Richard (ten years) and has two children - Emily and William. Richard left Accountancy - now a Photographer.

Sterrick Mark, MBChB Medicine, 1986; MSc/Dip Criminal Justice Studies (DL) 1999. Married to Eleanor (Edinburgh Medical Graduate) and has four daughters. Working in occupational Health for the Army (pre-selection stage) and in medico-legal practice (Medical Foundation - Scotland). Enjoy jazz and ballroom dancing.

Tan Kiat, MBChB Medicine, 1999. Currently a fellow in cardiovascular imaging and vascular biology at the University of Toronto. Also enjoys martial arts and travelling.

Wah Joon, MSc, Training and HR Management, 1999. Operates a non-profit organisation which provides self-development courses to the public and management courses to companies. The headquarters are based in Penang and with a branch in Kuala Lumpur.

Weinowski Diane, LLB Law, 1999. Working with Manchester's finest artists and musicians.

2000

Anna Powell, BA Modern Language Studies (full-time), 2000. Still lives in Fleckney and teaches at Queensmead Primary School, Braunstone. Teaches foundation to year 1 and 2 children, and French to year 3 children.

Aston Rowan, BSc Biological Sciences, 2000. PGCE, 2001. Teaching in a Catholic school, enjoying life and feeling good.

Biju George, MBA, 2000. Has 17 years of managerial experience. For 14 years he was working in Dubai in the Middle East. His last job was a Marketing and Customer Relations Manager for a British multinational company called Intertek International. Presently looking for a suitable position.

Bodiwala Gautam, CBE, 2000. World President - International Federation for Emergency Medicine. Council Member - College of Emergency Medicine. Private practice.

Colliver Sarah, MBChB Medicine, 2000. Salaried GP working 2 days per week in Leamington Spa, remainder of time spent caring for her 2 young sons.

Dainty Philip, MBChB Medicine, 2000. Working as Specialist registrar in General and Geriatric medicine on West Midlands SPR rotation.

Dey Moley, MBChB Medicine, 2000. Specialist Registrar in Ophthalmology at Birmingham.

Finney Mark, MBChB Medicine 2000. Registrar in Obstetrics and gynaecology.

Good Elizabeth, BSc Geophysics (Geological), 2000. She is working in climate prediction and research at the met office, principally in extremes of temperature and precipitation.

Graves Giles, LLB Law, 2000. Interesting projects for the Grosvenor family with a smattering of legal work. Retain his practising certificate. Started a charitable organisation and a business network.

Idol Lance, MSC Training and HR Management, 2000. Criminal investigator with the Texas Attorney General's Office.

Illouz Michael, MSC Training and HR Management, 2000. Currently the CEO of the Teva-Naot in Israel, which produce comfort sandals and shoes. Exports 70% of their shoes all over the world.

Khoboko Thabelo, BSc Combined Science, 2000. Currently conducting neuroscience research in memory and ageing.

Parker Judith, MA Applied Linguistics & TESOL (Part time), 2000. Learning how to live productively without regular paid work and how to continue, without recognised status, to support efforts for community cohesion, especially with regard to the place in society of minority ethnic citizens.

Porteous Robert, BSc Biological Sciences, 2000. Since leaving Leicester has completed a PhD in evolutionary Genetics. He is now in the 4th year of the Civil Service Fast Stream.

Scott Deborah, MBChB Medicine, 2000. Married, lots of animals, salaried GP in Driffield. Brown Owl of her local Brownie pack.

Stacey Robert, MBChB Medicine, 2000. A&E SpR in Oxford Deane. CCT September 2010. Married.

Thomas Matthew, BSc Geophysics (Geological), 2000. After paying off his student debts went travelling for 6 months to get to Australia to take advantage of the mining boom here. Living in Queensland with the Great Barrier Reef on your doorstep is fantastic.

Vilensky Naama, MBA, 2000. Is assisting the company Investor Relations. VP in all related activities.

Walton Stuart, BSc Genetics, 1999; PGCE, 2000. Currently teaching at the Hazely School in Milton Keynes. Was the Director of Science for three years but his role has now changed and he has been given the roles of Head of Biology, Timetabler and teacher in charge of CAS.

2001

Bennett Natalie, MA, Mass Communications, 2001. Editor, Guardian Weekly.

Bustami Naser, MBA, 2001. Has expanded quarrying business to be one of the largest limestone quarries in the world.

Chiarenza Antonio, Sociology Research, 2001. Responsible for the development of health research at organisational level. I run many projects, some of them funded by the EU Commission. I am also the leader of the International Task Force on Migrant Friendly and Culturally Competent Healthcare.

Dawson James, MBChB Medicine, 2001. Working in Anaesthetics/ITU.

Duncan Ellis, BA Business Economics, 2001. Currently living in Reading and working for a multi-disciplinary consultancy, Colin Buchanan. Projects included developing and implementing the Fastrack Bus Rapid Transit System serving Ebbsfleet International.

Dunn Trevor, MSc/Dip Forensic and Legal Psychology, 2001. Head of Psychology at the Leys, Cambridge, and currently living in Cambridgeshire.

Edwards Ray, MA Law and Employment Relations, 2001. Doctoral Research University of Surrey, awarded degree of Doctor of Philosophy, 2001 to 2004. Thesis published September 2004. Now retired living in West Australia.

Hough Emma, MBChB Medicine, 2001. General Practitioner working in London.

Jarvis Heather, MBChB Medicine, 2001. She is currently in her second year registrar training in paediatrics in the West Midlands Deanery and has just returned to work after having her first child.

Newton Naomi, MA Museum Studies, 2001. Dated Chris at Leicester and then between the USA and Japan until their marriage on 20th May 2006. They now live in America and were recently blessed with a beautiful baby boy, Matthew Takaya Newton, born 21 November 2007.

Padwick Robert, MBChB Medicine, 2001. Working as a general Surgery Research Registrar in Warwick. Married in 2005, no children yet. Applying for Higher Surgical Training with little success so far.

Pathak Marcia, MBChB Medicine, 2001. GP partner in a medium sized practice with her husband Rakesh also a GP. They have two beautiful children Ravi and Maia.

Piombino Mascali Dario, Dip Archaeology, 2001.

Born in Messina (Italy) 16 September 1977. Year abroad at the University of Leicester 2000-1, MA in Archaeology (University of Pisa, Italy, 2002), PhD in Archaeology (University of Pisa, 2007).

Rushin Darren, BA Sociology 2001. Struggling to achieve work/life balance between demanding teaching and even more demanding young family. Just about getting it right. Still in Leicester.

Thorne Catherine, MBChB Medicine, 2001. Old age Psychiatry specialist registrar in Newcastle upon Tyne.

Victoria Lord, MBChB Medicine, 2001. GP at Dinas Powys H/C, Cardiff.

Vlachou Christina, MBChB Medicine, 2001. Dermatology Specialist Registrar (LAT) at Queen's Medical Centre in Nottingham.

2002

Abdul Aziz Mohamed, MBChB Medicine, 2002. Specialist Registrar in Clinical Oncology at Christie Hospital, Manchester in Year 2.

Alagesan Guenevere, MBChB Medicine, 2002. Non Principal GP at Sibley and Woodhouse Eaves.

Beck Charles, Dip Human Resource Management, 2002.

Self employed management consultancy work. Church organist.

Chandiramani Manju, MBChB Medicine, 2002. Currently pursuing a PhD at King's College London in the Maternal and Foetal Research Unit.

Has completed SHO training in Obstetrics and Gynaecology.

Claire Ward, MBChB Medicine, 2002. GP partner in surgery in Drifffield.

Clode Claire, MBChB Medicine, 2002. She is a part time GP registrar. Married to Jon, mother to Benjamin and enjoying life in Devon.

Delikaterinis Vangelis, MSc Finance (DL), 2002. Major shareholder - Managing Director of Synarmosis S.A.

Depasquale Suzannah, MA Museum Studies, 2002. She heads a number of major archaeological sites and museums within her division. This includes excavations, refurbishments, temporary exhibitions, research and a number of important EU awarded national and regional projects.

Dunlop Merlin, MBChB Medicine, 2002. GP in Oxford.

Ferguson Rachael, MBChB Medicine, 2002. Currently working as a GP in Leeds.

Ghosh Kaberi, MA Victorian Studies, 2002. Currently working as a language specialist (translator and interpreter) in European and Indian languages.

Gowanlock Laura, MBChB Medicine, 2002. She is currently on maternity leave following the birth of her son last September. She anticipates returning to work in August 2009.

Hughes David, MA European Union Law (Commercial) (DL), 2002. He is Head of the Eurydice Unit in an Executive Agency of the European Commission. Eurydice is an information and study network on European education systems.

Hwang Mei-Ju, MBChB Medicine, 2002. Year 2 Surgical Registrar in General Surgery in the West Midlands Deanery. Completed my Basic Surgical training in Yorkshire, followed by an MSc in Research, Surgical Science and Education from University of Hull.

Lee Sin, MSc Training and HR Management, 2002. Responsible for the sales and marketing of healthcare products of the company.

Lillie Patrick, MBChB Medicine, 2002. After house jobs in Boston and Leicester, he worked in Birmingham, Hull, Leeds and studied (again) in Liverpool. He has ended up as an Infectious Diseases Reg. in Sheffield.

Mifsud Vincent, MSc Finance (DL) 2002. I am currently working within the Public Sector with a company that provides finance and management consultancy services to the government of Malta.

Plakidas Iordanis, MSc Marketing, 2002. Manage and develop six salesmen in order to achieve specific goals given from top management.

Quest Karl, MMath Mathematics, 2002; MSc Management, 2003. He has worked for Phones 4 U, Thomas Cook group and now Fujitsu Services as a Management Accountant. The prestigious name of Leicester University has proved a great foundation for my career.

Raichura Nitin, MBChB Medicine, 2002. He relocated to Birmingham for his 3 year BST programme and after having obtained the MRCS (Eng), he decided to pursue a career in General Practice. He is based in the West Midlands.

Reilly Terry, MA Mass Communications, 2002. Retired newspaper editor/principal PR & Media consultancy/ author/ researching 18 & 19 century Irish military history/ PRO (voluntary) for Regional development body. Runs creative writing classes.

Safotso Gilbert, MA Applied Linguistics and TESOL, 2002. He is currently a lecturer of English Language and Applied Linguistics in the Department of English of the newly created Higher Teachers' Training College, University of Maroua, North Cameroon.

Spensley Ian, Dip Security Management, 2002. He is developing operational strategy, customer care and integrated security solutions as part of the overall G4S Customer Service Strategy in Ghana, West Africa.

Stetar Bruce, MBA, 2002. He is currently overseeing two academic divisions with 17 programmes and around 4800 students.

Stevenson Andrew, BEng Engineering (Mechanical), 2002. Design of bespoke printing presses - mainly for books (Harry Potter was printed on their machine).

Sultan Nour Irfan Mohamed Deeb, LLM International Commercial Law, 2002. She is working at the Policy and Commercial Law Department at IBLAW. Her work involves drafting (as part of a team) legislations in Jordan in addition to other forms of legal consultations.

Tashkandi Akif, MBA, 2002.

His MBA opened his eyes to new doors of opportunity. He moved from being a Personal Manager for a local company to a Talent Manager for a multinational giant company covering 13 countries.

Wayne Catherine, MBChB Medicine, 2002. Graduated from Dundee and went to University of Leicester to study Medicine. Currently a fully qualified GP.

Wilde Grant, MBChB Medicine, 2002. Passed MRCPG in 2007, having been in the Army since leaving Leicester. Currently training to be an Army Helicopter pilot prior to specialising in Aviation Medicine.

Yimga Andre, LLM, 2002.

He is a lecturer at the Higher Institute of Pedagogy of nbouo-Bandjoun, in charge of Civic Law and Civil Liberties classes. He is also a member of a grassroots network of organisations working and advocating for decentralization and good governance in Cameroon.

2003

Adubofour Charles, MBA (DL), 2003. He is the Regional Maintenance Manager of Ghana Road Agency, maintaining 1861 km of road in the Brong Region. Pursuing the Leicester MBA makes it possible for him to manage effectively and use 30% of my time to think outside the box.

Antidel Stephen, MBA, 2003. Sold last company to VC Firm; now Managing Director of Avid Commerce, an internet technology and strategy consultancy; Adjunct Professor at Indian Institute of Technology.

Boot David, BA Politics, 2003. He will be Labour's parliamentary candidate for Mid Sussex at the next General Election.

Brownhill Rachel, MBA, 2003. She is a Management consultant working in Tonga on a development programme for the Australian Government.

Diamond Kathryn, MBChB Medicine, 2003. She is currently enjoying maternity leave following the birth of her second daughter. She returned to Manchester after completing her pre-registration jobs and is now training in obstetrics and gynaecology.

Dyer Simon, BSc Biological Sciences, 2003. He has started his own Ecological consultancy business in North Wales. He specialises in protected species conservation, in particular bats.

Eleftheriou Anna, MSc Marketing, 2003. She works at Limassol Euro-Observatory as an administrative servant. Euro-observatories are responsible for developing mutual trust and confidence between enterprises and consumers.

Gemmell Ian, MBChB Medicine, 1986; MA Law and Employment Relations, 2003. After 6 years of General Practice in the Army, he left to work in the Antarctic with the British Antarctic Survey. He completed training in Occupational Medicine and runs a company.

Gough Emily, MA Rome & its Neighbours, 2003. She currently assists the Historic Environment Countryside Advisor on casework such as higher level stewardship applications, hedgerow consultations, English Woodland grant schemes, and environmental impact assessments. She is also working on projects including historic farmsteads characterisation and Wyre Lidar.

Hargreaves Elizabeth, MBA, 2003. In addition to being a class teacher of 6-7 year olds, teaching core subjects, she is also coordinator for the accreditation process. Her job is to facilitate and communicate the strategic planning process across all divisions of the school: 3yr - 18yr olds, approx 620 students and 80 staff.

Harrison Lindsay, MSc Natural Resource Management, 2003. NVQ Assessor (Level 2) for Env. Conservation NVQs. Hoping to be trained up to do NVQ levels 3 + 4. Also help with environmental consultancy work.

Hopkins Rebecca, MBChB Medicine, 2003. GP registrar Leicester vocational training scheme.

Johnson Christopher, MBChB Medicine, 2003. Completed SHO training Medicine. Now almost completed GP VTS training. Interested in Sociological aspect of Medicine (thanks to Leicester for the teaching received in this area). Would like to join an Academic Department (maybe Leicester) in GP medicine research. Sends best wishes to Dr Howard in his retirement!

Kamara Mustapha, PG Certificate Criminal Justice & Police Management, 2003. Presently the Local Unit Commander for Port Loko Police Division. In charge of policing the Iron and Bauxite mining areas with the highest deposits in the whole country (posted here 4/4/2008). Port Loko District is one of the 12 districts in Sierra Leone. Fully in charge of security for the whole district. Population 312,000.

Khan Zilley, MBChB Medicine, 2003. Working/specialising within Obstetrics and Gynaecology and hope to continue with this speciality.

Kouki Paula, MA Landscape Studies, 2003. Is doing her PhD at the University of Helsinki, Finland and hoping to finish next year (2009).

Lusted Ruth, BSc Psychology, 2003. She looks after her two young sons and works a couple of evenings a week teaching English to adult immigrants.

Maung Steven, MBChB Medicine, 2003. General Practitioner in Staffordshire.

Miltiadou Panayiota, MSc Management, 2003. After graduation she has been working at the Cyprus Ministry of Commerce, Industry and Tourism. She is currently taking tennis lessons.

Namwanje Sarah, BA Business Economics, 2003. She runs her own business as "Speak" although still on a small scale. She hopes to expand it more.

Nawaz Asim, MBChB Medicine, 2003. Finishing Medical rotation in Brighton, hoping to become a GP in Midlands.

O'Leary Emily, MBChB Medicine, 2003. GP trainee (Halifax and Huddersfield) Pennine Scheme.

O'Reilly Richard, MSc Training and Performance Management, 2003. He is currently working on policy development and regulation in the telecommunications sector. Current projects include the development of spectrum policy and the review of the EU regulatory framework on electronic communications.

Peter Andria, MSc Training and HR Management, 2003. He will be retiring from Felcra Berhad in April 2010 and intends to be a part-time lecturer with Open University of Malaysia (OUM) in Kuching, Sarawak, or a freelance consultant/coach in Training and Human Resource Management.

Phillpotts Clare, MBChB Medicine, 2003. Currently working at Bristol Children's Hospital as an ST3 in Paediatrics.

Seddon Nick, BA History and Politics, 2003. He is working hard at developing his career but making sure free time is put to good use.

Shah Amit, MBChB Medicine, 2003. Currently working as FY1 in LNR with the aim of specialising in Hospital Medicine.

Shah Rahul, MBChB Medicine, 2003. He finished my GP VTS training and passed my MRCP in 2007. He is now working as a salaried GP in Leicester.

Sumner David, MSc Security & Risk Management (DL), 2003. Security and red 1 estate consulting services.

Taylor Edward, BEng Electrical and Electronic, 2003. Repairing Nokia mobile phones.

Vatsa Kajal, MSc Marketing, 2003. After working in London with Ipsos ASI, she moved back to India in 2006 to help set up the India office of M & C Saatchi. As the lead planner for New Delhi, she provides strategic direction for communication across a range of brands.

Viswanathan Vijayaganthan, MSc Advanced Electrical & Electronic Engineering, 2003. Has been involved in new product and development for the past 3 years. Main areas of work involve R & D and electrical control design, testing of control panels for road, rail and mobile hydraulic equipment. Works in defence.

Young Hugo, BSc Communications and Society, 2003. Having recently returned from a 7 month tour of Afganistan, he is now training new tank commanders at the Army's Tactics School.

Zaks De Garber Paulina, MA Applied Linguistics and TESOL, 2003. Is proud to own and manage the British English Language Centre boasting a permanent student population of over 500. Since opening in 2001, enrolment figures have increased by over ten times and it has become the most popular school in the area.

2004

Agyapong-Boateng Lucas, MBA, 2004. Involved in small scale mining for gold as Administration Supervisor. Doing payroll, accounting, community relationships and support relationship between our company and mining equipment service companies, bridging between management and other workforces.

Ashiakwa-Aikins Abraham, MBA, 2004. Managing the development of 11,000 hectares of rubber plantation being funded by AFD and KFW of France and Germany respectively at the cost of 11 million Euros for 2650 farmers, to alleviate poverty in rural communities.

Aslam Gauhar, MBA, 2004. He has his own business, running two companies, one in Kuala Lumpur and other in Chicago. He imports, retails and also exports hand-knotted oriental carpets and rugs. He has two offices and showrooms in each place.

Berry Chantalle, BSc Psychology, 2004. Currently studying at City University for Doctorate in Counselling Psychology.

Blake Elizabeth, MSc Applied Forensic Psychology (DL), 2004. Senior Fraud Investigator in HSBC's Internal Fraud Investigations Department, responsible for undertaking investigations into the more serious or complex cases of known or suspected criminal or dishonest activity by staff.

Chawatama Tsitsi, MBChB Medicine, 2004. Paediatric Speciality Registrar in Sheffield.

Coughlan Kate, BA Ancient History and Archaeology, 2004. She is am studying for her Masters near to her home in historic Greenwich, it turns out that her undergraduate degree taught her how to write a good essay!

Dykes Philip, MBChB Medicine, 2004. Training to become an Emergency Medicine Consultant. Current grade is ST1, rotation is in LNR.

Fernandes Derryck, MBA, 2004. Besides holding the GM's position at Entiretec, he has been imparting his services as an Associate Tutor for University of Leicester at Stafford Associates, Dubai since 2006. He conducts lectures on SMM (Mod 1 - Unit 3) and SIA (Mod 5)

Garae Leslie, PG Certificate Criminal Justice & Police Management, 2004. He is a police officer serving with the Vanuatu Police force over 30 years. His special skill is to serve with the Community Policing with urban and rural areas. He heads the Special Intelligence section in the VPF called Special Branch.

Handunge Ananda, MBA, 2004.

Most of my fellow Graduates in Sri Lanka are holding senior and very responsible states e.g. public and commercial sector. All of them are functioning as CEOs, Directors, GM in large industries with high performance activities.

Ho Olivia, MBChB Medicine, 2004. Paediatrics trainee.

Howell Victoria, MBChB Medicine, 2004. Currently on ST2 Anaesthetics.

Kamara Ngadi, MBA, 2004. Is a Project Manager for an IT Consultant Firm in Bermuda.

Kelly Davey, MBChB Medicine, 2004. Doctor with the Royal Navy.

Lampinen Jussi, LLM International Commercial Law, 2004. Working as a Senior Associate in Merilampi Attorneys, one of the leading business law firms in Tampere. Living in Tampere, Finland with his wife and two daughters.

Malik Nasser, MBChB Medicine, 2004. Currently working as an ST2 in Surgery at Chelsea & Westminster Hospital in London. Prior to this was working for 6 months in rural villages in West Africa (Ghana, Ivory Coast and Liberia) as an Emergency Site Medical Officer on behalf of various mining companies.

Matouschek Gunther, MSc Risk Crisis & Disaster Management (DL), 2004. Risk Assessment and Mitigation in services projects. Negotiating of consulting, HW, SW, Financing contracts.

McArthur Brian, MA Law and Employment Relations, 2004. He is currently Director of Collective Bargaining for the United Food and Commercial Workers International Union, Canada. In 2008, he was selected as a member of the Governor General Leadership Conference. He plans on taking a PhD at the University of Leicester in the Fall of 2008.

Mizzi Jack, MSc Marketing, 2004. From previous jobs in Marketing and Contact he is now responsible for Alliances and new business within the company. The job entails identifying and establishing new business partnerships as well as new ventures.

Muto Kazuhiro, MBA, 2004. Responsible for UNIX server and business server business in Japan market.

Packham Katherine, MBChB Medicine, 2004. Finishing off my VTS in LNR deanery.

Pope Ben, MBChB Medicine, 2004. ACCS ST2 in EM in Nottingham QMC. After PRHO year travelled to Australia for 1 year in A&E. Returned to UK permanently now.

Rowlands Nadine, BSc Mathematics, 2004. Teaching Mathematics in a local comprehensive secondary school ages 11-18.

Rowley Jennifer, MBChB Medicine, 2004. After her PRHO year she spent two years working and travelling in New Zealand. She is now an ST2 in Obstetrics and Gynaecology in Trent Deanery.

Sangaroon Winit, MBA, 2004. Has been working in the banking business for more than 20 years and is now director of the credit group.

Sheridan Craig, MBChB Medicine, 2004. About to become unemployed courtesy of MMC. Heading to New Zealand next year, most likely, as unsuccessful so far in securing ST1 post in surgery in the UK.

Speak Beckie, BSc Medical Genetics, 2004. Training to be a nurse - graduate September 2008.

Tan Kevin, MBChB Medicine, 2004. He is currently in the Vocational Training Scheme training to be a General Practitioner. He will be starting as a GP Registrar in Dartford, Kent, from August 2008. He married in July 2007 to his long term girlfriend whom he met in Leicester University Ballroom Dancing Society. The wedding was attended by numerous classmates in the Medical School, including the best man (Ben Prudon) and the bridesmaid (Tamsin Newlove).

Tibbott Georgina, BA History and Archaeology, 2004. Working as part of the University of the Arts London Development team. Currently helping to set up its first annual fund telephone campaign, which will hopefully increase support for its six art colleges.

Tsaousi Christiana, MSc Management, 2004. She is a PhD student of the University of Leicester, School of Management and her project deals with understanding the consumption of women's underwear. She is also an Associate Tutor.

Venkatraman Navin, MBChB Medicine, 2004. Training in acute medicine at Leicester.

Wang Yu Hsin, MBA, 2004. He works for a Taiwan semi-conductor factory facility department that specialises in semi-conductor industrial safety and energy saving management.

Weller Kate, MBChB Medicine, 2004. FY2 in Obs and Gynae at LRI.

White Charlotte, MBChB Medicine, 2004. Training in Psychiatry in Nottingham.

White Louise, MBChB Medicine, 2004. Currently living and working in Portsmouth, in final year of GP training.

Wocial Marek, MBA, 2004. He has just started an Investment Research firm focused on agri/business and related industries.

Zikirullahi Ibrahim, MA Mass Communications, 2004. He is deeply involved in the civil society efforts to fight corruption and strengthen the democratisation process in Nigeria by ways of civic/political education, media campaign and advocacy.

2005

Barton Paul, MBA (by distance learning), 2005. He is the senior trade union negotiator representing 15,000 staff in the Pensions, Disability and Carers service.

Barton-Breck Andrew, MSc Applied Forensic Psychology (DL), 2005. Gaining the MSc provided him with the qualification necessary in gaining a studentship - directly onto the PhD pathway. The MSc was a fantastic experience.

Beckett Christopher, BEng Electrical and Electronic, 2005. On a Network Rail graduate training programme which enables you to gain experience across various functions of the company. Am currently on a project serving as an assistant project engineer.

Bonner Alexander, MBChB Medicine, 2005. Training in Anaesthetics and ICU in the North West. Just completed my Primary FRCA. Living very happily with Amy Athersmith, who graduated in the same year and is a GP trainee.

Booth Joanne, BSc Biological Sciences (Genetics), 2005. Secondary school science teacher, 11-18 years key stage 3,4 and A-level.

Brunton Alan, BA Modern Language Studies (with a year abroad), 2005. Living in London, working in European customer service. Went to 2006 World Cup and enjoying life in London.

Chan Mark, MBA (DL), 2005. He is currently a Wealth Advisor with CIMB-GK, Wealth Management Group. His portfolio includes sales and marketing of managed funds, hedge funds, unit trusts, structured deposits, FX, equities and fixed income products.

Cleveland David, MBChB Medicine, 2005. Working in UHL and married to Dr Helen Cowley.

Covey Jonathan, BA History (European Union), 2005. Having completed his M.A. at the Humboldt University in Berlin he is now working as a trainee manager at Lidl's UK head office.

Damball Esther, MA Co-op Management & Organisational Development, 2005. Facilitating training for different entrepreneurs, groups, cooperatives and self help organisations, conducting research and consultancies for different organisations and coordinating registration of new students.

Desouches Francis, MBA (DL), 2005. Presently member of the medical team for the president of the United Arab Emirates.

Durrance Hollie, BSc Psychology, 2005. Medical research on behalf of pharmaceutical companies. Anything from market research to clinical trials that companies need to outsource.

Eastmond Rawle, LLM Law of Employment Relations, 2005. He is an M.P. and has recently authored two story books. He is a former Minister of Agriculture, the Environment, Natural Resources and Labour and the Civil Service.

Fan Yishan, MSc Marketing, 2005. Working for the number one internet search engine in China. The team he belong to is responsible for global based business development in regard to both strategic co-branding programmes and product cooperation negotiation.

Folson Evangeline, MBA (DL), 2005. She is a monetary analyst studying developments in the financial market in Ghana.

Gokani Risha, MBChB Medicine, 2005. She is currently in her first year on General Practice training.

Gore Frances, MBChB Medicine, 2005. VTS South Wales.

Haigh Miranda, BA History and Archaeology (European Union), 2005. She is due to finish work on the Bath Southgate Project, a large scale excavation where she has assisted the managers in supervising the archaeology of the site.

Harvey Brendon, UCN Research, 2005. Currently leading a national research programme for the NHS on shared leadership and black and multi ethnic groups at the Centre for Inclusion and Diversity.

Henry Eylim, MBA (Educational Management) DL, 2005. In addition to teaching, she also supervises the school in the Principal's absence. As a member of the Girl Guides, she currently holds the post of Division Commissioner overseeing the guides in the south of the Island. She received an "Outstanding Youth 2008" award for my involvement in Guide activities. We're presently working on an HIV/AIDS project.

Henshaw Kemi, Management (accelerated) Diploma (DL), 2005. Based on her major at the university (Diploma in Management) she is doing very well in her business as a CEO of a Fish and Poultry farm. She now has a better knowledge on how to manage her business well.

Hunt Rachel, MA Museum Studies (DL), 2005. She loves working as House and Collections Manager at Cotehele, where she's been since 2004. She is currently project managing the 'Cotehele Discovery Centre' refurbishment and have just embarked on her AMA.

Kelleher Richard, MA Museum Studies, 2005. Having been in the Department of Coins and Medals for three and a half years he has been successful in securing AHRC funding for a PhD looking at medieval monetisation through coin finds.

Kenely Lauraine, MSc Training and Human Resource Management, 2005. She is currently sitting for her second Master degree in Counselling - specializing in children and adolescents, at the University of Malta.

Her current job is that of a Counselling and Guidance teacher in a secondary school.

Lam May, MSc Training and Human Resource Management, 2005. Just published a novel called "Black Love" in Canada.

Lertrattananon Pitikamon, MSc Marketing, 2005. Is responsible for creating new businesses for the company and developing new business processes.

Loubani Mahmoud, MD (all subjects), 2005. He is completing his training in Cardiothoracic Surgery and currently applying for consultant cardiothoracic surgeon posts.

Lyon Noeni, MBChB Medicine, 2005. Currently on Northampton GP training scheme in first year.

Mulvihill Graham, MBChB Medicine, 2005. He is currently working as a GP registrar in Carlisle as part of the VTS scheme.

Nair Chandra Muralee, MSc Risk, Crisis & Disaster Management (DL), 2005. Muralee is Risk Manager with one of the largest community healthcare providers in Australia. The theoretical framework that the MSc in Risk, Crisis and Disaster Management provided was a great assistance when it came to developing crisis and disaster plans for his organisation.

Ngwenya Thulani, PGCE Primary Upper, 2005. Primary school teacher - a challenging but enjoyable experience, helping children to achieve their dreams and directing them towards future success.

Patel Naomi, MBChB Medicine, 2005. Currently ST1 in Plastic Surgery.

Smith Stephen, MBA (DL), 2005. Set up a company supplying a range of fitness play products for children.

Spirollari Laureta, PG Certificate Criminal Justice & Police Management, 2005. After graduating from the University of Leicester, she returned to her previous position in the Sector of Information Management covering the Data Protection area. Thanks to the high professional standards she gained studying at Leicester, she was promoted from Chief Inspector to Vice Commissioner.

Turner Lisa, MBChB Medicine, 2005. Since graduating she has been working in a number of roles at UHL. Most of these have been Medical, though she did spend 6 months as a hairdresser in the Glenfield Hospital.

Verma Surjeet, MBA (by distance learning), 2005. Responsible for the evolution strategy of Hutchison 3G UK's transport network.

Wang Yi, MSc Marketing, 2005. He built up his own company after graduation, which focuses on several different territories, for example, car retailing. He is looking for co-operation and opportunities from alumni all over the world.

Whitfield Brendan, BA History and Politics, 2005. He is currently studying a Masters part time while employed by the Home Office, working in immigration. He is hoping in the future to move into working in the Foreign Office.

Woodhead Helen, BSc Applied & Environmental Geology, 2005. Has been accepted at Pilot Training College of Ireland, Waterford. Is about to start training for commercial flying.

Wright Peter, BA History, 2005. After leaving Leicester he studied for his Masters in Social Change and Development at Woollangong University in N.S.W. Australia. He came out with a distinction and a girlfriend, masses of debt but had lots of fun. Now proper work beckons and local government seems to be as good a 'bottom rung' as any.

Zumla Mohammed, BSc Computer Science, 2005. He is currently working as a senior consultant within the security and privacy practice. The work is very demanding yet very rewarding at the same time.

2006

Allen David, Psychology Cert HE, 2006. Since receiving his award he has put his knowledge to good use by doing volunteer work with Coping with Cancer in Leicestershire and Rutland and the Universities Hospitals Leicester Pulmonary Rehab Unit.

Al-mathen Faisal, MSc Molecular Genetics, 2006. Participated in a project as PhD Student to study the genotyping and genetic diversity of Camels.

Al-Rasheed Nawal, Cell Physiology & Pharmacology Research, 2006.

She is working as an assistant Professor in the pharmacology dept. at King Saud University (Saudi Arabia). She is a member on the scientific and social services committee. Her research interests focus on cell signalling and molecular pharmacology of new drugs targeting diabetes and cardiovascular systems (CVS).

Al-Rasheed Nouf, Cell Physiology & Pharmacology Research, 2006.

She is working as Assistant Professor in the Pharmacology dept. at King Saud University (Saudi Arabia). In addition to her current position as Vice-Head of the Pharmacology dept. at KSU, she is a member of the Scientific Research and Social Services Committee. Her research interests focus on cell signalling and molecular pharmacology of drugs targeting diabetes and CVS.

Anku Selom, MBA (DL), 2006.

At the moment I'm on maternity leave even though I have started with a PhD course.

Arap Sang Francis, MSc Criminal Justice (DL), 2006. The University of Leicester was a lifetime opening window for him. Immediately after his graduation he registered for his PhD in Sociology at Washington International University, USA, and has since graduated.

Aryee Aku, MBA (DL), 2006.

Senior Admin Staff of the Hotel responsible for providing high level admin support and ensuring that all systems, procedures, policies, strategies, decisions and standards of the Hotel are followed and implemented.

Ayorinde Oluseyi, MA Globalization & Communications, 2006.

He returned to Nigeria after his Masters in January 2007 and has earned two major promotions - first, as a member of the editorial board in June, and in December as the Editor of the newspaper (Punch Nigeria).

Baranovschi Lenuta, Training and Development Diploma (DL), 2006.

Completing this diploma gave her the opportunity to develop a workplace learning environment and manage personal work priorities and professional development.

Beswick Linda, MSc Applied Forensic Psychology (DL), 2006. Working with people with severe and enduring mental illnesses in the community.

Birch Hyacinth, MA Museum Studies (DL), 2006. She is in charge of a small museum. Since completing her Museum Studies Masters she has introduced a B.Ed in Heritage Studies and a Tour Guiding Certificate course and reorganised the museum.

Blows Samuel, MBChB Medicine, 2006. Doctor in an academic post working in medical school and A&E. Entering core medical training next year.

Bourne Nathan, MPhys Physics with Astrophysics, 2006.

He has spent nearly 2 years researching transport problems, but have decided to return to the subject of his degree and will be shortly be starting an Astrophysics PhD at Nottingham.

Brown Robin, MSc Security Management (DL), 2006.

Designing security systems for university settings, high risk/high value environments - faculty advisor re security of research and intellectual property.

Carmen Lee, BSc Psychology with Biology, 2006. She is a management trainee in a Malaysian multinational corporation. Being earmarked as a high potential employee, she is undergoing an 18 month development programme.

Carter Andrew, MPhys, Physics and Astrophysics, 2006.

Currently completing 2 years on the Defence, Engineering and Science Group graduate training scheme.

Chambers Christopher, MSc Emergency Planning Management, 2006.

Tasked to design, prepare and deliver NHS Healthcare services for the 2012 London Olympic Games.

Cowan Leonard, Training and Development Diploma (DL), 2006.

He is presently the centre manager of a community based vocational training centre which offers training in three disciplines at the NVQ, level 2 certification. The disciplines are early childhood education, business admin and IT essentials.

Cowley Helen, MBChB Medicine, 2006. Working in UHL.

Married to Dr David Cleveland.

Davies Terina. PG Cert Philosophy and Pract. of Nature Grps, 2006.

After completing a BA Ed at Trinity Carmarthen and Nurture Group though Leicester she got a job running the Primary and Complex Needs department of BSS for Pembrokeshire.

Davis Josie, BA History 2006.

Studying at Leeds University for an MA in Human Resource Management and graduate CIPD Membership. Will graduate in September 2008.

Dawson Victoria, MBChB Medicine, 2006.

She is currently 18 months into her medical foundation programme and has just secured a psychiatry training post.

Dougan Emmanuel, MBA (DL), 2006.

Pursuing Doctorate in Business Administration (DBA) at Durham Business School on full-time.

Ebejer George, MSc Health & Safety Management (DL), 2006.

Design implementation, auditing and maintenance of HSE Management System in line with DHSAS 18001 - Certified by Lloyds Register Quality Assurance.

Echeverria Francisco, PG Cert Criminal Justice & Police Management, 2006.

He has just finished a Diploma in Integral Development for public security with the work of four universities in his community and still working as an instructor at the police school in Chihuahua city. He was recertified as a National Instructor.

Elson Claire, MD Cancer Studies and Molecular Medicine, 2006.

Currently a Consultant Gynaecologist and Head of Assisted Conception back at Leicester Royal Infirmary. Mother to Gemma.

Fernando Stephen, MBA (DL), 2006.

When he was studying for his MBA, he was holding the position of Head of Credit at Union Bank of Colombo. The Leicester MBA helped him immensely to take up the post of Country Head at Public Bank and to take up the challenge to expand the branch operations in Sri Lanka.

Fraser Camille, Diploma in Management, 2006.

Reading for her MBA offered by Sikkim Manipal University, India. Currently researching in the field of Emotional Intelligence for her Thesis.

Gannon James, MSc Training and Performance Mgt, 2006.

Currently he is in the process of expanding the training department where he works to include ISEB software certification and setting up an SMS training course.

Gasic Darjan, MSc Police Leadership & Management (DL), 2006.

Currently he is undertaking an MBA at the Cotrugli Business Academy in Zagreb, Croatia.

Goldsmith Joanna, BSc Communications and Society, 2006. Assistant Producer for a multi-award winning animation production company making TV commercials and films.

Goodwin Claire, MSc Applied Forensic Psychology (DL), 2006. Started a new job at the Institute of Psychiatry.

Govindji Reena, BSc Psychology, 2006. Employed in the field of Psychology. Her employer is kindly funding a part-time PhD as part of her professional and personal development.

Green Lorraine, BA Combined Studies, 2006. After graduating taught EFL in China for 1 year. She is currently working as a learning support assistant in a secondary school. Starting PGCE Sept 08 in English.

Gregory Deborah, MA Mass Communications (DL), 2006.

Owner and executive producer for Spark Plug Pictures, produces short documentary films for non-profit organisations. She has travelled extensively, filming in prisons, brothels, and refugee camps.

Guy Courtney, MBA (DL), 2006.

He is currently doing project management.

Hamilton Victoria, MBChB Medicine, 2006. Working as FY2 doctor in Kettering General Hospital.

Hendriksen James, BA Economics, 2006.

He supports a Relationship Director and they manage the relationships of corporate customers (35-40 names e.g. Amazon UK, Indesit, Smeg, Fabulous Bakin' Boys) looking after their banking requirements.

Ikemiya Yuko, MA International Relations & World Order, 2006.

She is working for the Global Collaboration Centre at Osaka

University in Japan organising International Conferences and Seminars.

Jackson Lucinda, BA History, 2006.

She is currently studying the legal practice course at Nottingham Law School. She is due to finish the course in June 2008, and then begin her training contract with a firm of solicitors in September.

John Middleton, MSc Health & Safety Management (DL) 2006.

Currently working as Principal Lecturer for the Health, Safety and Supervisory dept of the National Construction College, part of the Sector Skills Council for the construction industry.

Kassim Yahuza, MBA (DL), 2006.

His responsibilities include developing, directing and managing project controls, functions of forecasting, financial control, scheduling, cost and planning processes/procedures for efficient use and integration of project engineering and construction management throughout the life cycle of the project, mainly in oil and gas industries.

Kevin Johnson, MA Applied Linguistics and TESOL (DL), 2006.

Kevin teaches at the Osaka YMCA International School and lives with his wife Tamami and son, Go, in Sakai City, Japan. His autobiographical novel "Deep Structure Comedy" was published in 2004.

Love Allan, BSc Computer Science, 2006.

Made the move down south in 2007 to start graduate scheme that year. Currently spend most of his time between London/Surrey.

Lucas Sarah, BA English, 2006.

She currently works for Sky TV where she manages a range of accounts/portfolios. Some of her clients include Sony Pictures, Apple Computer and Nissan.

Mahomed Saahera, MSc Management, 2006. Enjoying life!

Manta Ndayizera, MA Co-op Management & Org. Dev. (DL), 2006.

He is leading the Institute of Continuing Cooperative Development and Education at the Moshi University College of Cooperative and Business Studies, responsible for development and management of outreach and extension programmes for the Cooperative movement in Tanzania.

Maris Inke, MA Mass Communications, 2006. She owns and runs 4 companies in strategic communications, professional conference organizing, marketing communications and an English language training centre, under the umbrella of Inke Maris & Associates, employing 70, servicing multinationals, regional and national organisations.

McCann Brian, MBA (Educational Management) DL, 2006.

He teaches English Language support to International students and Aikido to Transition year.

McConnochie Mark, MBChB Medicine, 2006. He is applying to Specialty training in Psychiatry and enjoying married life.

Michael Farrell, MBA (DL), 2006.

Managing production of complex diagnostic analysers for in-vitro healthcare industry utilising latest lean techniques of Kaizen, 5s and Six Sigma, and developing a self directed world class environment that delivers on promises.

Morgan Katy-Louise, BSc Communications and Society, 2006.

Working in advertising.

Morris Erika, MA Museum Studies (DL), 2006. As Assistant Registrar, Loans and Exhibitions, she facilitates on average 40 outgoing loans of artworks to Institutions around the world and manage several exhibitions at the Art Institute of Chicago.

Ntumfon Nyimeh, Diploma in Management, 2006.

Currently she manages/supervises the distribution of drugs and medical supplies and equipment to more than 30 faculties (Hospital/Health Centres) of the C.B.C. Health board. She also trains storekeepers.

Osabutey James, MSc Marketing, 2006.

He is managing one of the most valued life insurance companies in Ghana. As the Chief Executive Officer his job is to ensure that the company achieve its annual target and also to become the life insurance company of choice.

Oved Aaron, Education Research 2006.

Principal of a High School, 400 students come to his school from two communities who live within walking distance.

Patel Roshni, BSc Biological Sciences (Microbiology), 2006.

She is having a year out travelling around the world. As part of this trip she will be teaching English at a school in Thailand.

Ptomey Steven, MA Archaeology and Heritage DL, 2006.

He is the District Interpreter for 11 state parks in Southern California. The District includes a gold-rush era army fort, a Native American rock art/village site, a town founded and populated by African-Americans, a preserve for endangered Elk and flowers, as well as numerous others.

Puni Rosemary, MBA (DL), 2006.

My role as Client Services Director includes managing our clients as well as my team. My special achievement is establishing the company in its management.

Renouard Wills Carmen, MBA (Educational Management) DL, 2006.

Leading the planning, performance and quality aspects of an F/HE College - 500 staff. Also in the process of applying for a PhD.

Reynolds Simon, LLB LAW, 2006.

He is on the LPC at the College of Law, Moorgate and will be travelling before starting my training contract in March 2009 at Berwin Leighton Paisner in London.

Roberts Kerry, BSc Psychology, 2006.

Finishing MSc in Occupational Psychology then will start internship with SHL.

Ruffles Keith, BSc Geography, 2004; MSc Research in Human Geography, 2006. He is a magistrate in Leeds and is preparing to study for a postgraduate diploma in journalism in September.

Ryan Gearoid, MSc Health & Safety Management (DL), 2006.

Managing Contractor Establishment and Project Health Safety and Environmental issues for Shell Gas Field development in the West coast of Ireland.

Sampa Francis, MBA (Educational Management) DL, 2006.

Supporting teachers in community schools and government schools to develop and strengthen their teaching skills by helping them to be creative, use local resources, manage learners and classrooms; improve their teaching and use of interactive radio instruction and iPods.

Silver Gary, MSc Risk, Crisis & Disaster Management (DL), 2006. Trainer - counter terrorism and disaster victim identification - mass fatality specialist.

Snell Victoria, MSc Applied Forensic Psychology (DL), 2006. Launching feet first into Leicester's Clinical Psychology doctorate and looking forward to it.

Somasa Oliver, PG Cert, Criminal Justice & Police Management, 2002; MSc Criminal Justice & Police Management (DL), 2006. He is deputy to the Inspector General of the Sierra Leone police and principal assistant to the Inspector General. He supervises all Assistant Inspector Generals and the ranks below. He is responsible for driving the change programme of the Sierra Leone Police.

Sturman Claire, MA Museum Studies, 2006. She is working with the Natural History and Geology collections in Portsmouth as well as exhibitions, outreach and schools programmes. She is still fencing and is getting married September 2009.

Sullivan Nicholas, BA History and Politics, 2006. Started working in the IT department, a far cry from what he studied at university! Saving for his own home in the future.

Thomas Natalie, BA Geography, 2006. Since completing her degree at Leicester she did a Masters at Reading University and will be starting a graduate course this September. Her Masters was in Development Planning MSc.

Thomas Nicholas, MBChB Medicine, 2006. Finishing Foundation Academic programme at Oxford

Tuna Nergiz, LLM International Commercial Law, 2006.

Working for law firm on mergers & acquisitions, project finance, privatisation work, real estate. Advising clients consisting of the most reputable local companies as well as the world's leading companies and financial institutions on their most challenging transactions and assignments, projects.

Turner Hannah, BA Geography, 2006. She is working as a teacher in Surrey. Misses Leicester but has her boyfriend (who she met at Leicester) to reminisce with.

Van Haperen Cornelis, Risk Crisis & Disaster Management, 2001; MBA (DL), 2006. MD of a small, growing, consultancy specialised in strategy, change, programme and knowledge management.

Westwood LEEANNE, MA Museum Studies (DL), 2006. She has worked at Valence House Museum for the past 6 years, looking after the collection and exhibitions. She is currently working on redesigning the museum galleries as part of a major redevelopment project.

Wilson Paul Desrian, MBA (Educational Management) DL, 2006. She teaches at the University of Trinidad and Tobago in the Bachelor of Education programme.

2007

Appiah-Asiamah Claudia, MBA (DL), 2007. She is currently heading the Treasury operations in her bank and supervising the activities in her unit. The activities include money market and forex deals, settlement, reconciliation of Nostro accounts, management of the banks assets and revaluation rates.

Brown Steven, MBA (DL), 2007.

He moved to Sweden and is now doing Business Planning for Sony Ericsson Accessories Division.

Bryant Elizabeth, BSc Psychology, 2007. Currently a bookkeeper but starting a PhD at the University of Leicester looking at schizophrenia and attention.

Brzozowski Michal, BA Economics and Law, 2007. Just started work as a paralegal with the intention of gaining a training contract in the future at the firm and is looking forward to the challenge. The University of Leicester provided a great grounding on which to build a career and gave him confidence going into the job market.

Cacciattolo Karen, MSc Training and HR Management, 2007. Preparing for her doctorate programme which will be sponsored by her employer. She is also in the process of participating in an exchange programme on training and development practices.

Callaghan Lara, BA Ancient History and Archaeology, 2005; MA Professional Archaeological Practice PT, 2007. Currently a sub-warden at Beaumont Hall whilst completing Masters Studies part time. Also working with the University's archaeological unit at the same time.

Camara Saikou, Diploma Management (banking & financial) (DL), 2007. Completed a Diploma in Management (Banking and Financial Services) with the University, and now works with Nationwide Building Society.

Cassar Dorian, MA Mass Communications (DL), 2007.

Managing Director of a community radio station; radio presenter on national radio; regular contributor of an online news portal; voice-over for TV commercials, documentaries and productions.

Charlesworth Joseph, MBChB Medicine Graduate Entry, 2007.

Working in Guildford as a Foundation Programme Year One Doctor. Next year will be working as a Foundation Programme Year Two Doctor in Brighton.

Cobb Fiona, BA Sociology of Popular Culture, 2006; MSc Social Research, 2007. Undertaking a detailed analysis of completion and retention rates on UEL's postgraduate research programmes, producing a model showing factors affecting propensity to complete or withdraw.

Cullen Alannah, BSc Psychology, 2007.

Currently a teaching assistant in the SEN department but as of September 2008 will be teaching AS psychology and hopefully doing her GTP with Oxford University.

Culverhouse Lucy, BA Ancient History and History, 2007. Pursuing a 12 month graduate trainee-ship at the University of Northampton in the department of Information Services.

Cunha Joao, LLB Law Maitrise, 2007.

LLM in International Law of Human Rights and Criminal Justice at Utrecht University in the Netherlands.

Dee-Shapland Benjamin, BA Combined Studies (European Union), 2007.

He has finished a 10 month contract teaching English in Valencia and now is now going to study a 1 year MSc in Marketing at Exeter to follow a career in that field.

Desai Khyati, BA Criminology, 2007.

Embarking on a professional graduate internship with Mountbatten. Work and study in New York for one year as part of the programme.

Dugan James, BSc Geography, 2007.

Works for a company that organises and manages large scale public events as well as designing and construction of rigging equipment for the film, TV and Theatre industries.

Duru Christiana, MBChB Medicine, 2007. Working as a Foundation Year 1

doctor within the UHL Trust. Trying to find a balance between being a wife, a mother to two young children and work life as a FY1 doctor.

Dyer Steven, MBChB Medicine, 2007.

Currently working as a junior doctor treading the path to consultant psychiatrist.

Everitt Rory, LLB Law, 2007.

Working in police intelligence whilst applying to become a police officer.

Fernandez-Chung Rozilini, Doctor of Education, 2007.

She is responsible for the setting of quality assurance documents and processes for Malaysian Higher Education. This involves working closely with experts in the various fields of study, both local and foreign.

Ford Eleanor, BSc Medical Biochemistry, 2007.

She is currently working as a health care assistant on a gastro intestinal post surgery ward. Has been offered a place to return to Leicester and study medicine. Has really enjoyed this year, learning and working at the same time, but is looking forward to coming back to Leicester to study.

Fuggle Isabel, BA English, 2007.

Starting teaching September 2008.

Galea Ranier, Diploma in Management, 2007.

Changing career to occupational health and safety from business and trade.

Gathoni Olive, LLB LAW, 2006; LLM, 2007.

She is working for the Citizens Advice Bureau as an Adviser after completing two years voluntary with them while she was in University. It has really helped in the current job market and without it she is not sure she would have been able to find a job relevant to her degree.

Higginbottom Sara-Jane, BA English (European Union), 2007.

Following graduation pursued a career in conference production, for which she constantly uses the research, communication, written and organisational skills she acquired during her degree.

Humphreys Julia, MBChB Medicine, 2007.

Working as a Junior Doctor for South Manchester NHS Trust - on an Academic Programme.

Innes Smith Graham, LLB Law, 2007.

Set up his own company and is trying to get his sports coaching innovations and events spread Nationwide for successful long-term growth. Also fundraises for a disabled charity.

Joynes Laura, MBChB Medicine, 2007.

F1 Derby.

Kilroy Bryan, Dip Risk Crisis & Disaster Management (DL), 2004; MSc Risk, Crisis & Disaster Management (DL), 2006; MSc Risk, Crisis & Disaster Management (DL) 2007.

Predominantly consultancy work in the field of emergency crisis management and facilities management. Trying to get more involved in the third sector and the humanitarian world.

Kwakye Stephen, MBA (DL), 2006; MBA (DL), 2007.

Helping to implement and evaluate controls, assess governance processes and risk management.

Leslie Hatty, MBA (Educational Management) DL, 2007.

Since her attainment of the degree she has filled the position of Principal for four months at the school where she worked for ten years. The role of manager is not an easy one but she felt privileged to put into practice some of the material she studied.

Lockhart Henrietta, MA Museum Studies (DL), 2007.

All aspects of curating including curating exhibitions, researching for permanent gallery redisplay, answering enquiries from the public, becoming familiar with a large designated collection of Birmingham history objects.

Loveday Lucy, MBChB Medicine Graduate Entry, 2007.

She is engaged to Edward Horncastle and is getting married next year. She is working as a junior doctor and plan to fulfil her long term dream of working in developing countries for the Red Cross once she completes her Topical Medicine Diploma in 2010.

Maheswaran Ratnam, MBA (DL), 2007.

Supporting ministers in progressing a Bill through parliament. Is now a regular visitor to the Commons and House of Lords.

Milan Dagli, MBChB Medicine, 2007.

Working as house officer at St Georges Hospital. Planning to undertake GP training following foundation training.

Mohamad Jennis Nooramali, MA (Part time) Professional Studies, 2007.

Currently working on a PhD proposal while looking for scholarship offers.

Moss Jennifer, BSc Biological Sciences (Genetics), 2007.

PhD in DNA Repair with an aim to identify tumour suppressors in the yeast Schizosaccharomyces pombe with an ultimate aim of characterising genes involved in loss of heterozygosity and therefore relevant to cancer research.

Murphy James, MBChB Medicine, 2007.

Working as a junior doctor at University College Hospital, London.

Murphy Wayne, BSc Geography, 2007.

He is currently studying part time at the University of Leicester for an MSc in Global Environmental Change; working as a voluntary Sustainability Officer and a Sustainability Champion with Leicester College. After the MSc he will undertake a PhD also at Leicester and then hopefully work for DEFRA of the FAO of the UN.

Nandhra Satvinder, MChem Chemistry, 2007. In September 2008 will be starting a PGCE in Primary Education at the Institute of Education. Currently doing a part time certificate in Geology at Birkbeck College, University of London.

Pathirage Udaya, MBA (DL), 2007.

Solideal Loadstar PVT Ltd is Sri Lanka's single largest manufacturing company and now positioned as global market leader of Industrial Solid Tyre segment of its products. He joined the company in August 2000 as manufacturing, planning and customer service manager and was promoted to Senior Manager - Central Planning in parallel to the graduation from Leicester.

Perselis Ioannis, MSc Financial Economics, 2007. He will always remember and recall the good and bad times that he spent in Leicester. Ioannis says University was one of the best moments in his life.

Pilcher Caroline, MA IPCF (Part time), 2007. She runs a pre-school & day care facility within a children's centre that provides education and care for children under 7 years old and work with a multi-agency team to provide support for families. They are currently developing their site as a Forest School.

Piper Matthew, MBChB Medicine, 2007.

Working at the Leicester General Hospital in intensive care and anaesthetics. Next year he will be working in A&E and teaching medical students at the University.

Piplica Adam, BA History and Politics, 2007. He is currently working as a client consultant in the multi-award winning global research consultancy, Nunwood, working with global brands to develop research programmes for marketing insight.

Raju Aneeta, LLB Law, 2007.

Currently studying for postgraduate diploma in legal practice.

Rao Vinod, MBA (DL), 2007.

Heading up the Dunlop Tyres' SBU of Binzagr Company. 130 staff report to Vinod in 23 branches across the country.

Ravinder Saib, LLB LAW, 2007.

At present finishing his legal practice course at Nottingham Law School. In August he began a training contract with Hammonds in Leeds.

Sandhu Ravinder, LLB Law, 2007.

Studying LPC at BPP in Leeds

Savarin Shon, Diploma in Management, 2007. Certified Accounting Technician (ACCA). Currently pursuing a MSc Finance.

Scerri Patrick, Training and Development Diploma (DL), 2004; MSc Training and Performance Management, 2007. He designs, manages, co-ordinates, evaluates and occasionally facilitates various training programmes and activities within the Bank's training function.

Schofield Zoe, Archaeology Certificate DL, 2007. She has two businesses and try to find time for archaeology in her spare time. She would like to continue with her degree at some time in the future.

Schroeder Timothy, Management of Quality Excellence (DL), 2007. Wife, family, flying, scuba diving, promoting quality and human excellence. Starting consulting business.

Shveta Jadhav, MBA, 2007.

Working at Lowe Worldwide as Brand Services Manager. Job profile involves interacting with clients, understanding briefs and delivering the briefs to the Creative Team. Then the Creative Team and myself along with the Studio create advertisements for the client keeping the brand in mind.

Singh Karampritt, BSc Financial Economics, 2007.

He is working as a trainee actuary for Zurich commercial lines in general insurance.

Sinitsin Igor, MSc Security & Risk Management (DL), 2007.

Assists the chief security officer in providing services to more than 300 civilian and military personnel throughout the UN Peace operation area in five countries - Egypt, Israel, Jordan, Lebanon and Syria.

Smith Danielle, BSc Biological Sciences (Phys. & Pharm.), 2007.

Public relations for the healthcare industry, mainly pharmaceutical companies in the UK and abroad. Athena is the most awarded medical PR agency in the industry.

Spencer Christopher, MSc Security & Risk Management (DL), 2007.

Fraud Management Department; IT Project Management and Fraud Investigation and Risk Management. Secondary areas - Physical Security Management Assistant and other assignments as allocated within corporate security management for online internet company.

Sutch Joseph, MA Museum Studies (DL), 2007.

Gone full time except volunteering at Tunbridge Wells Museum.

Tai Kit, MBA (DL), 2007.

It was a good experience to study in Distance Learning MBA. She can exchange valuable experiences with students over different industries and worldwide study centres as well.

Tze-Hui Chung, BA Economics and Law, 2006; MSc Management, 2007.

He is currently working for a property developing company (ranked 3rd in Malaysia) as an internal auditor. He gained a lot of exposure in business processes as well as how to minimise risk and protect/safe-keep assets. He also deals with compliances with the law and regulations. To perform our job effectively we require organisational independence from management.

Vinall Nicola, BSc Psychology, 2007.

Will be starting PG Dip in Speech and Language therapy at City University in Sept 2008.

Walsh Penelope, BA Sociology, 2007.

Working part time at Lawson West solicitors, whilst doing a distance learning legal secretary diploma. Soon to go full time and become a legal secretary.

Welbourn Michael, BA Ancient History and History, 2007.

Studying for an MA in Ancient History at the University of Nottingham.

Wells Rebecca, MBChB Medicine, 2007.

Working as a FY1 at Northampton General Hospital.

Wilk Rachel, BA English, 2007.

In the middle of an MA in Psychoanalytic Studies.

Wong Chung, MSc Risk, Crisis & Disaster Mgt (DL), 2007.

After he got his DBA from the University of Newcastle, he was appointed as a Research Fellow by NEUST. Is now studying as a Doctor of Science (University of Leicester) through the e-learning mode.

Wragg Danielle, BSc Financial Economics, 2007.

Training to be an accountant in a local government organisation.

Yaya Biri, Diploma in Management, 2007. Managing a team of senior social workers, systemic psychotherapists and foster carers' training and career development consultant.

2008Hugues-Gregoire Dorothy, Diploma in Management, 2005; MBA (DL), 2008.

Manager of Sales Operation in Real Estate working with an international company. Her Masters degree helped her to move ahead in her career and bring added value to the company.

Meek Gregory, MSc Security & Risk Management (DL), 2008.

Self employed security consulting, emergency planning, project management for: Event, offices, residencies, maritime, aviation, individuals, businesses. Writing and delivering compliance documents BS, ISO, ACS, NSI. Also investigations, surveillance and close protection available.

Oudan Sheldon, FdA Security and Risk Management, 2008.

Integrating operations of agencies of the Ministry of National Security to become more effective.

Obituaries

We record with regret the deaths of the following Graduates, Members of Staff, and Honorary Graduates of the University.

Graduates

Mrs Gillian Beekman (nee Love), BA Social Sciences 1966.

Gillian Kaye Beekman passed away on March 30th 2008. Gillian studied economics at University of Leicester between 1963 and 1967. In 2001, she moved with her husband of 35 years, Paul Beekman, to Hong Kong, where she finally found rest after a long illness. Gillian was not surpassed by any children.

Mrs Paulette Bentham, BA English 1962.

Died on March 13th 2007 aged 57.

Mr Tom Bleasdale, BSc Combined Studies 1952 and EDUCATION 1953.

Died on May 8th 2008.

Mr Anthony Canavan, PhD Chemistry 1960.

Died on October 19th 2006.

Mr Colin Chorlton, BSc Economics 1951.

Died on March 23rd 2008.

Mr Anthony Cobley, BA French 1960.

Died on November 12th 2008.

Miss Claire Cordon, BSc Geography and Geology 2004.

Died in a road accident on June 25th 2008.

Mr Caleb Davies, BSc Chemistry 1949.

Died in June 2008.

Mr Arthur Devine, BA History 1951 and Diploma in Education 1952.

Died early in 2009 after a short illness.

Dr John Doran, BSc Geology 1967.

Dr Doran graduated with a degree in Geology in 1967, following which he worked for several large oil companies. He was chief executive and founder of Australian oil exploration company Roc Oil.

Mr Michael Dunleavy, BA Geography 1996.

Died June 20th 2007.

Mrs Celia Dunn, BSc Biological Sciences 2002.

Died in January 2008.

Mr Andrew Fenton, BSc Chemistry 1982.Mr Arthur Gardner, BSc Chemistry 1949.

Died early in 2009.

Mr Nicholas Haller, MSc Security & Risk Management 2003.

Died September 2007 after serving in Bosnia.

Professor William Harper, Medicine MBChB 1980, Former Staff.Prof. William Michael (Joe) Harper,

September 1955 - May 2008. After graduating in 1980, Joe undertook his house jobs in Leicester before moving around the country to gain experience in general surgery and orthopaedics. He returned to Leicester as a Lecturer in Orthopaedic Surgery. He was promoted to Senior Lecturer and then Professor.

Mr Paul Hayward, BA Combined Arts 1994 and MA Social Work 1996.

Mr Hayward died in 2007.

Mr Nicholas Jones, MA Mass Communications 2003.Mrs Kathleen Knollys, BA General Arts 1962.

Died in June 2008.

Dr William Knox, BA Geography 1949.

Died on July 11th 2008 aged 85.

Mr Keith Lamb, LLB LAW 1979.Miss Claire Maddock, BA Combined Studies 1993.

Died in 2008.

Mr Anthony Marsh, BSc Combined Studies 1960.

Informed by son that Mr Marsh died in July 2007.

Mr Charles Millidge, BSc Sociology 1984.
Died in 2004.

Mrs Gillian Oakley, Diploma in Educational Studies 1983.
Died on Thursday March 13th 2008.
At the end of January, Gillian was diagnosed with cancer of the pancreas, which is incurable, and although palliative measures were being undertaken she deteriorated very quickly over the last few days, taking all by surprise.

Mrs Dora Oxenham CBE, Honorary Graduate.
Died in 2008.

Ms Elizabeth Pearce, BA Economics and Economic History 1977.
Died early 2009.

Mr Jonathan Rabet, BSc Biological Sciences 1978.
Mr Rabet passed away very suddenly on January 27th 2008, aged 50. He leaves a wife and three children.

Mrs Elizabeth Radforth, MA Social Work 1987.
Died in 2007.

Mr Ivor Rees, BA Combined Studies 1991.
Died in 2006.

Dr John Rhodes, PhD English Local History 1971.
Email from Dr Rhodes' son saying that he died in February 2009.

Mr George Ryle, BSc Botany 1980.
Died in January 2009.

Dr Gordon Smith, PhD Engineering 1976, Former Staff.
Died on Tuesday, November 11th, 2008 aged 74 years. Dr. Smith joined the Department of Engineering from Brush Electrical Machines in September 1964. He was promoted to Senior Lecturer in 1977 and founded the Electrical Power Engineering Research Group. He retired in 1995. Dr Smith is survived by his wife, Christine, and his two children.

Mr James Spence, Diploma in Social Studies 1951.
Died on October 11th 2007.

Mr Kurt Sucher, BA Combined Studies 1992, NENE College.
Mr Sucher died in 2006.

Miss Joan Tinton, M ED 1972.
Died in August 2007.

Dr David Walmsley, BA Humanities 1994, Honorary Graduate, Former Staff.

Died in July 2008. Dr Walmsley was Pro-Chancellor of the University of Leicester between 1991 and 1995.

Mr Owen Wheatley, PGCE 1988.
Died in 1998.

Members of Staff

Emeritus Professor John Beeby, Former Staff.
Emeritus Professor John Leslie Beeby, MA, PhD, former Head of the Department of Physics and Astronomy from 1976 to 1982, died on January 4th 2009 aged 71 years. He was also Dean/Pro-Dean of Science from 1990 to 1997, Pro-Vice-Chancellor from 1997-2001 and was Emeritus Professor of Theoretical Physics at the University.

Emeritus Professor Iain Davidson, Former Staff.
Professor Iain Davidson died on Thursday, 8 May 2008. Iain joined the University's Department of Chemistry in 1957 as an Assistant Lecturer. He was promoted to a Lectureship in Physical Chemistry in 1960, a Senior Lectureship in 1966, and a Readership in 1982. He was Head of the Department of Chemistry in 1988, was promoted to a Personal Chair in 1989, and served as a Pro-Vice-Chancellor between 1991 and 1995. Iain retired in 1997.

Mr Alan Everitt, Former Staff.
Professor A. M. Everitt, M.A., Ph.D., F.B.A., F.R.Hist.S died on December 8th 2008. Professor Everitt was a former Head of Department at the Centre for English Local History. He was elected a Fellow of the British Academy in 1989 and was made Hatton Professor Emeritus of English Local History.

Miss Deborah Kerr, BSc Combined Science 1998, Former Staff.
Deborah worked as a Sub-Warden then Senior Sub-Warden on the Ratcliffe Road site during the 1990's. She went on to work as an administrator in the Welfare Service for a year, before returning home to Bromley in Kent.

Dr Joyce Moody, Former Staff.
Died on January 7th 2009. Dr Moody was a Senior Lecturer in the Department of Zoology (as was), and served as Associate Dean for Combined Science. She retired from the University in 1984. She played a big role in the life of College Hall throughout her career.

Mr I Roberts, Former Staff.
Died July 6th 2008.

Honorary Graduates

Sir Edwin Nixon CBE, Honorary Graduate.
Sir Edwin Nixon C.B.E., D.L., M.A., LL.D died in August 2008. Sir Nixon was awarded a Doctor of Laws in 1991 from the University of Leicester, served as Pro Chancellor between 1995-1998 and was also Chair of Council until July 31st 1998.

Mr John Hopkins, Honorary Graduate.
John Hopkins, librarian and fellow of the Society of Antiquaries of London, was born on April 26th, 1918 and died on February 19th 2008, aged 89. He was awarded an honorary MA by the University of Leicester for services to antiquarian scholarship. He is survived by his wife, a son and a daughter.

Professor Anne McLaren DBE, Honorary Graduate.
Professor Anne McLaren, DBE, D.Phil, FRS, FRCOG 1927 - 2007, died on July 7th 2007. Professor McLaren was the co-recipient of the 2007 March of Dimes Prize in Developmental Biology, which was awarded on May 7th.

Dame Cicely Saunders, Honorary Graduate.
Died in 2005.

The Revd Edward Varah CBE, Honorary Graduate.
Died in November 2007.

Information about the death of a graduate should be forwarded to the Development and Alumni Relations Office. We hope that readers will understand that it is impossible to provide full obituaries. Emphasis is therefore given to the University's graduates and to those members of staff who will have been well known to members. Additional biographical details are often available on request from the Development and Alumni Relations Office.

Tel: 0116 252 2153
or Email: ld109@le.ac.uk