

Personalia 2012

1950

Bridger Harold, Economics BSc, 1950.

Enjoying retirement and travelling, though not as extensively as before because of age and minor disability.

1951

Warren Alfred, Economics BSc,

1951. Still active with the Salvation Army in Tunbridge Wells.

1952

Grundy Donald, Combined Studies BA, 1952; PGCE, 1953.

Chairman of Wesley Historical Society, East Midlands Branch; Chairman of Selston Music Festival (Founded 1944) since 1971; Local Historian/ Lecturer; Broadcasting on Radio FM.

1954

Inkley Neil, Economics BSc, 1954.

Since retirement, has continued active involvement in Prayer Book Society (National Vice-Chairman and Chairman of Branches Council). Produced Book of Common Prayer computer package. Has also had some poems published.

1955

Harrison Keith, Chemistry BSc,

1955. Now retired, no more inventing glues, so it's travel, family history, church work and photography.

1958

Buss Esther, History BA, 1958.

Taught History and retained an interest in education through three children and now nine grandchildren. Became interested in Bible translation

(through CU, Leics), especially into unwritten languages. Two visits to Kenya in association with Bible translation and literacy (East Africa) in 1997 and 2005. Present Chair of Shefford and District Bible Society Action Group, 1994 onwards.

Whitworth Eileen, History BA,

1958. After 15 years of retirement, still enjoying travel, gardening, music, theatre and involvement with local community and voluntary groups.

1959

Ambrose Maureen, English BA,

1959. Retired teacher, became City Councillor for Sunderland (1998- 2007). Grandmother of nine, married to Douglas who was at Leicester (1955 - 57).

1960

Freeman Barry, Biological Sciences BSc, 1960; Zoology PhD, 1964;

Physiology DSc, 1983. Before his retirement, he worked as a Research Scientist and then a Scientific Administrator. He is the Former Editor of the British Poultry Science Journal and the Avian Pathology Journal. Recipient of the Tom Newman Memorial Medal, International Award (1987) and the Former Trustee of the British Egg Marketing Board. Has two daughters and two granddaughters.

1962

Swaddle Thomas, Chemistry

PhD, 1962. Retired from university teaching in 2002, but retains an office and modest research activity.

1963

White John, German BA, 1963.

Retired. Currently Emeritus Professor of German and Comparative Literature, and Senior Research Fellow, King's College, London.

1964

Kemeny Paul, Sociology BA, 1964.

Emeritus Professor of Housing and Urban Sociology, Uppsala University, Sweden.

Lukes David, Geography BA,

1964. Retired in 1996. Actively involved in voluntary work. Keen walker and touring cyclist.

Nicholls Trevor, History BA, 1964.

Priest of the Archdeacon of New York and has lived in New York since 1988. He is also married, under the terms of a pastoral provision from Rome.

Riches Jill, Sociology BA, 1964.

Now retired from a career in teaching primary ages and special needs. Final three years as Head. Married to Mike Riches, who graduated in 1962 with a degree in Biology.

1967

Dodd Leslie, Social Sciences BA,

1967; Education MEd 1986. Retired from teaching in Market Harborough in July 2005 after 37 years in secondary education. 1968-1972 Aylesbury, 1972-1974 Hadfield nr Glossop, 1974-2005 R Smyth School, Market Harborough.

Williams David, Combined Science

BSc, 1967. Was a Major in the Army, a Computer Science Lecturer, IT Project Manager and computer security expert. Awarded an OBE in 2005.

1968Adams Roderick, *Mathematics BSc, 1968; Mathematics MSc, 1971.

After leaving Leicester, obtained a PhD in Mathematical Logic and MSc in Computer Science. Lectured in Further Education and Higher Education. Now Professor of Neural Computation.

1970

Adams Elizabeth, Combined Studies BSc, 1970. After completing a PGCE, worked in Education, mainly in the primary sector but with two years teaching Maths at Secondary level and some involvement in teacher training. Retired in 2010.

Armitage Valerie, Combined Studies BSc, 1970. During her career she taught Maths in Reading, Burton-on-Trent and lastly at Friesland School, Sandiacre. Has three children David, Paul and Stephen after marrying David Armitage in 1970. We are now both retired and enjoying life.

Atkin Ronald, Chemistry PhD, 1970. In retirement.

Childs David, Social Sciences BA, 1970. Founder of the Leonard Cheshire Centre for Conflict Recovery and of the National Memorial Arboretum. Author of The Warship Mary Rose, Growing Remembrance, Tudor Sea Power and Invasion. Appointed CBE in 2003.

Grace Gerald, Education MEd, 1970. Established the Centre for Research and Development in Catholic Education at University of London, Institute of Education in 1997, the first such centre in Europe. Edited the International Handbook of Catholic Education in 2007, and is the editor of the journal International Studies in Catholic Education. In 2010, the Vatican awarded him the KHS for his services.

Lyons Arthur, PhD Chemistry, 1970. Author of the book entitled 'The Architecture of the Universities of Leicester'.

Richards Geoffrey, Social Sciences BA, 1970. Retired in 2009 but still keeping busy as a Trustee of an Almshouse charity.

Rolfe John, Psychology PhD, 1970. Really retired but continues as a visiting Professor at Cranfield University. Active with WEA in Cambridge Industrial Archeological Society.

Russell Michael, Social Sciences BA, 1970. Currently reading for an MSc in Educational Research at University of Manchester.

Stafford Edward, Engineering PhD, 1970. After Leicester, spent several years at Southampton University, then joined an engineering company in Oil and Gas (EOG) followed by Bechtel, Fluor and other large project engineers. Visiting Professor at Strathclyde. Recent work in pipeline engineering.

1971

Armstrong Robert, Social Sciences BA, 1971. Career in industry, initially in Human Resources. Latterly Managing Director of a utility company. Awarded OBE for services to water industry in 2006. Currently a non-executive Director of Southern Water and Chairman of Pension Trustees for a number of large pension funds. Chair of Governors of Knutsford High School.

Douglass Frank, Economics BSc, 1971. Director of his own business, building database systems.

Friswell Joseph, Engineering BSc, 1971; Engineering MPhil, 1980. Retired 1996.

Haire David, History BA, 1971; Education MA, 1978. Since early retirement from teaching, he has had three novels published (for children and young adults): 'The Midnight Ghost' (2004), 'The Black Legion' (2008) and 'Gold Hunter' (2010). William Vaughan is his pen name.

Hey David, English Local History, 1971. Emeritus Professor of Local and Family History, University of Sheffield.

Mann John, Social Sciences BA, 1971. Married with two daughters living in North London. Spent 35 years in local government managing children's provision and sports development. Made redundant in 2009 in first round of spending cuts.

Rowlands Robert, Biology BSc, 1971. Currently working as a self-employed consultant in the area of fermentation microbiology (strain and process improvement). Main leisure activity is modern partner dancing (LeRoc, Tango, Ballroom).

Taylor Ian, Social Sciences BA, 1971. Took early retirement from Aston University (March 2011) where he was Senior Lecturer in Public Policy. Teaches part-time for the Open University and is currently writing an online Introduction to Politics for Oxford University's Department of Continuing Education (when not playing golf and tennis).

1972

Danaher Nessian, History BA, 1972; MEd, 1985. Taught for 38 years in Leicester schools, 1973 - 2011. Served as a Vice Principal (Asst.) at Soar Valley College for 20 years. For 15 years, organised the very successful Irish Studies Workshop in Leicester. Ran subscribed Adult Education courses and an annual National Conference attracting 300+ from all levels of education. Taught adult education classes including interdisciplinary Irish Studies, Traditional Irish Music and Dance, Irish Language at 'O' and 'A' Level. In 1999 awarded PhD by the then University of North London.

Downey Julia, Sociology BSc, 1972. Teacher at the Willink School, since 1985. Main subject is Art, but is also International Co-ordinator, leading lots of trips, and Sixth Form tutor. Encouraging volunteering led to the Energy Award, 2011.

Hall Pamela, French BA, 1972. At present enjoying leisure, partly in UK, partly in France, after a long career in Education.

Morris Jane, Combined Studies BA, 1972. Now runs a Knightsbridge based interior design business, decorating houses all over the world.

Russell Simon, Geology BSc, 1972. Moved to Scotland, leading the growth of independent SME in the Quarrying and Construction sector.

Ravenscroft Ian, Engineering BSc, 1972. Recently retired after nearly 40 years in the UK water industry. Became a fellow of ICE and CIWEM. Served as Chairman of CIWEM Tyne and Humber Branch and President of York Society of Engineers. A keen amateur musician and music lover. Season ticket holder at Newcastle United.

1973

Davies Martin, English BA, 1973; English Literature PhD, 2003. Still doing 6th Form work (early retired 2007) and Primary School volunteer. Churchwarden (4th year). Thesis published May 2011 by Archaeopress Oxford. Latest play (for teens) performed June 2011.

Drew Robert, Biological Sciences BSc, 1973. PhD Genetics 1979, University of Newcastle-Upon-Tyne. Now retired from an academic career in the Department of Biochemistry and Molecular Biology, UCL.

Stabler Colin, Social Sciences BA, 1973. Retired from full-time teaching seven years ago. Worked part-time at local FE College teaching Sociology to students on their way to a Degree.

Walker Philip, Physics BSc, 1973. PGCE from Leeds University. Taught at Sherburn High School for 37 years, retired July 2012.

1974

Duckworth Guy, Combined Studies BSc, 1974. Former President, Manchester Astronomical Society, and FRAS Lecturer to International Hermetic Society, and Institute for Study of Hierological Values (now Eugene Halliday Society). Qualified Senior Legal Cashier. Qualified Transport Manager (goods national).

Keenan Hilary, Geography BA, 1974. After a career in housing and regeneration, including being Director of Housing and Environmental Services for a major city, and then Group Director of Operations at one of the leading Housing and Regeneration organisations in the UK, took early retirement in 2008. Non-Executive Director of a management consultancy specialising in value based process re-engineering, but mostly simply enjoys life with her husband, living in the Derbyshire countryside and having the time to concentrate on caring for and competing horses in showing and dressage.

Knight Elizabeth, English BA, 1974; PGCE, 1976. Following graduation completed an MA in Modern African Literature at Sheffield, PGCE in TEF and SL at Leicester School of Education, then PhD at Sheffield. Since 1980 has been teaching and managing ESOL and FE colleges in Islington and Haringey. Awarded an LSIS Lifetime Achievement Award in 2009 and will retire this August.

Millhouse Susan, Geography BA, 1974; PGCE, 1975. In primary education for 32 years (including 17 years as Headteacher in three schools). Since 2006 worked on the Primary PGCE course and Foundation Degree course as well as being a School Improvement Partner for Leicester City Council.

Shippam Roger, Education BEd, 1974. Recently retired after a career teaching Mathematics and then inspecting schools and local authorities as one of Her Majesty's Inspectors. After Ofsted was formed, subsuming the former HMI, was appointed as one of three regional managers for the national inspection programmes and finally became Ofsted's national Director for Children.

Robinson Ruth, Psychology BSc, 1974. Taught Physics for 32 years - an achievement in itself! Ruth's passion for the subject and her enjoyment of teaching those who love to learn has been immensely rewarding, and many students have gone on to have successful careers using their physics qualifications.

Strange Robert, Mathematics BSc, 1974. After graduation, moved into software development for telecommunications and "office automation" and then broadband research. Now a network marketer with a good income and the time to enjoy it.

Stribling Christopher, Law LLB, 1974. Qualified as a Solicitor in 1980. Edited 'Spalatro: Two Italian Tales' by J. S. Le Fanu for Saror Press in 2001. Currently working on a full-length bibliography of the works of Joseph Sheridan Le Fanu.

1975

Brown Ivor, Geology PhD, 1975. Retired consultant in Geotechnical Engineering.

Childs Robert, History BA, 1975; PGCE, 1976. Retired as Assistant Deputy Head in 2009 from the City of Leicester College (11-19 Comprehensive) after a 33 year career there. Has a version of Myotubular Myopathy (muscular dystrophy). Involved in Myotubular Trust, Muscular Dystrophy Campaign and local cricket.

Dove Michael, Geography BA, 1975. Owner of a small business that uses name analysis as a proxy for cultural background. This supports the measurement and management of cultural participation in services.

Mansour Dolores, Biological Science BSc, 1975. After Leicester, studied for an MBBS degree at Newcastle-upon-Tyne. Graduated and married in 1980, now working as a GP.

Morton Neil, Chemistry BSc, 1975; Chemistry MPhil, 1978. Worked for the Health and Safety Executive (HSE) since 1985 and now Chief Inspector of Explosives in HSE's Specialised Industries Division.

Moys Flora, Combined Studies BSc, 1975; PGCE, 1976. Taken early retirement and now just teaches what she likes when she likes, e.g. a Drama Production of 'Alice' next term and also teaching English at a private Saturday School.

Shinkins Stephen, Geography BA, 1975. Happily enjoying early retirement in his large garden, learning Spanish and travelling often to Spain.

Smith Peter, Biological Sciences BSc, 1975. Retired and living in Cyprus.

Webster Leonard, English BA, 1975; English MA, 1976. Now semi-retired, but doing some language support with foreign students in the West Midlands. A short memoir is planned for publication by The Kates Hill Press, Dudley, in the near future.

Wilkinson Ian, Combined Studies BA, 1975. Ex-Army Officer (Education and Training), now responsible for emergency management training of overseas delegates in UK and overseas.

1976

Baker Jane, English BA, 1976. Took early retirement in 2010 after 33 years of Secondary School English teaching (taught in two schools, one for three years and the other for 30 years). Held different posts i.e. Teacher Librarian, Head of KS3 English, Head of KS4 English, Second in English Department and finally Head of English. Now enjoying retirement, having made good use of my degree in English from Leicester.

Chester Helen, Social Sciences BA, 1976. Retired from work as an FE Lecturer and now works as a volunteer at Sir Richard Arkwright's Cromford Mills in Derbyshire.

Clarke Anthony, Combined Studies BA, 1976. A Psychotherapist with a private practice in London Bridge and also works three days for the Terrence Higgins Trust. Has had a great relationship for 17 years and a civil partnership for five.

Davies Helen, Sociology BSc, 1976; PGCE, 1977. Part-time Music Teacher in a school for students aged 4 to 19 years with severe and complex learning difficulties. Also has a private music teaching practice.

Grieve Colin, Biological Science BSc, 1976. Teaching in the Bournemouth area.

Narayanswami Sandya, Biological Science BSc, 1976. Currently raising money for research, education and other projects at Caltech. Very happy living in Southern California and has many fond memories of Leicester.

Nordquist Richard, English MA, 1976. Emeritus Professor of English at Armstrong Atlantic State University.

Moys Ronald, French BA, 1976. For the last 20 years has worked in European Affairs, firstly on regional policy at the European Commission in Brussels and currently at Kent County Council where the County's priorities are supported by European funding and partnerships.

Silk Russell, Physics PhD, 1976. After completing his X-ray Astronomy PhD, joined BT. Maintained lifelong interest in space by spending over 30 years in satellite communications with BT. High point was Chairmanship of 140 Nation Intelsat Technical Committee responsible for technical developments of the organisation in the 1990s.

Stewart Heather, History BA, 1976. Working at Ashville College, Harrogate in the Learning Support and History Department. Married with two sons.

Welland Maria, Social Sciences BA, 1976. Married to Peter Welland, fellow student of Leicester. Has two daughters - both graduates, one in Medicine, one in Geography. Is now a property developer and husband is the Managing Director of Haymarket Publishing. They live in Berkshire.

West Gillian, French BA, 1976. A recent move to Shropshire allows her to pursue her interest in social history through involvement with the Ironbridge Museum Trust.

Williams Trefor, Latin BA, 1976. Recently retired from NHS in North East England where he worked as an Internal Audit Manager.

1977

Burt Susan, French, 1977 BA; PGCE, 1978. Employed by a Christian charity which works with international students. Gained an MA (with distinction) from All Nations Christian College in 2006.

Butterfield Susan, Education BEd, 1977. Formed a learning and development consultancy, working with business and HE to improve business and interpersonal skills.

Dubec Bohumil, Social Science BA, 1977. After Leicester, started work with Mobil Oil Company (now known as ExxonMobil) and has been with them for 34 years. Spent four years working in Prague and nearly 12 years in Singapore. Returned to the UK just over four years ago. Three children, two girls and a boy.

East Nigel, Social Science BA, 1977. Career in Education. Currently Assistant Head Teacher at Helston Community College in Cornwall and some consultancy work in the area of School Improvement and Professional Development.

Farrow Richard, Combined Studies BSc, 1977. After starting his career as a Teacher, completed eight years in North London, then moved into insurance as enjoyed the teaching but not the politics. Worked for the Pearl Assurance Co. for 14 years in Bicester and then Norfolk followed by six years with the CIS. Had a couple of years as an IFA before returning to education as a cover supervisor in a secondary school. Currently working as a cover supervisor in the Education Department of an HMP institution. Slowly winding down to retirement in a few years.

Haines Kathryn, Combined Studies BSc, 1977. Qualified as a Chartered Accountant in 1981 and worked in various finance roles to 2009. Promoted from Finance Director to Chief Executive of CABA, a benevolent association supporting Chartered Accountants.

Lezala Andrew, Engineering BEng, 1977. In the process of transforming Melbourne's railway from a suburban system to a high frequency Metro. It presents many challenges and opportunities and life is never dull.

Lowry Timothy, Social Sciences BA, 1977. Retired, focuses on gardening in the summer and South Africa based wildlife photography during the winter. In 1994 founded MTN, now Africa's largest mobile company with over 150 million customers.

McCarthy Dorothy, Combined Studies BA, 1977. Happily married, living in Malvern near to the college where she is a part-time Teacher of English, mainly teaching IB students. Returned to the UK a few years ago, after pursuing her career in Singapore, Argentina, Chile and Peru.

Mistry Jitendra, Engineering BSc, 1977. Worked in the water industry since graduation. 20 years with South Staffordshire Water and now with Severn Trent Water. Specialised in clean water distribution, with current responsibility for managing contracts for mains cleaning. Member of the Institute of Civil Engineers and Institute of Water. In his spare time, works with charity organisations.

Rich Paul, English BA, 1977. Completed an MBA at Warwick and has since had a career as a Director, chiefly on the Board of Royal Mail Plc. Became a non-executive Chair of a national NHS business in 2005 until now. Is a fellow of the Institute of Directors.

Thurston Barbara, Biological Sciences BSc, 1977. Married Patrick Thurston, fellow graduate, in Sept 1977 and they have two graduate daughters. After time spent in Sussex and Berkshire, now living in the North West as they followed husband's career in the brewing industry. Barbara's work has been less focussed, ranging from administration in various sectors to software training/teaching and obtaining a PGCE (PCET) along the way. Now looking ahead to more time for ballroom dancing as they hopefully wind down working hours.

Thurston Patrick, Biological Science BSc 1977. Married Barbara Kent in Sept 1977. Obtained a PhD in yeast biochemistry and entered the brewing industry. Currently running Royal Brewery on Moss Side, Manchester for Heineken UK. Two daughters, 26 and 24, both graduates and two motorbikes. Looking forward to winding down and more time for biking holidays with Barbara!

Trask Lawrence, Physics with Astrophysics BSc, 1977. Joined the RAF as a pilot on graduation in Oct 1977. Flew Bulldog, Jet Provost, Hawk, Canberra, Tristar, Dominie and Kingair aircraft. Retired from the RAF in April 2011 to join the Oxford Aviation Academy as a Flying Instructor.

1978

Dodd John, Law LLB, 1978. Graduated in Law in 1978. Practising as Criminal Barrister from Chambers at 2 Bedford Row in London. Took silk in 2006.

Gilbert Stephen, Law LLB, 1978. Member of the management team of a major environmental charity in South East England. Acts as an 'Internal Consultant' for a number of major nature conservation projects. Active member of UKELA.

Haynes Michael, Law LLB, 1978. Living between SW France and the UK where he works as a barrister from 2 Bedford Row, London.

Hickie Simon, PGCE, 1978. Now retired after a career in industry and academia.

Hunt Anthony, Combined Studies BSc, 1978. Currently working for BP in Angola as the Subsea Operations Manager.

Millington Linda, Latin BA, 1978. Worked abroad in Malawi, Portugal, Bermuda, also in Shropshire, Berkshire, Yorkshire and Staffordshire. Teaches French, Latin and girls games. At Leicester was part of the first ever Ladies Basketball team and still coaches it now. Also did a lot for RAG houses for the elderly. Has three children.

Samson Andrew, Experimental Space Physics MSc, 1978. After graduating, went to the University of Kent at Canterbury to do a PhD (1984), then on to Sheffield University for a postdoctoral position for five years, and then to Sheffield City Polytechnic. Now at Sheffield Hallam University as a Mathematics Lecturer which is where he is now and still going strong!

White Nigel, Combined Studies BA, 1978. Currently Head of International Training and Development at Canning, a management training and consultancy company based in London. Living in Wiltshire.

1979

Beevers Kathryn, Social Sciences BA, 1979. Happily running her own small training business, in Yorkshire, but working mainly in London. Recent highlights include writing a text-book for CIPD and attending HM The Queen's Garden Party.

Ivell Michael, Engineering BSc, 1979. Married Julie (McEwen) in August 1981 and our 30 year anniversary is coming up this summer. Has two children. Worked for several Companies in defence electronics since University, moved to Telecoms in 2004. Currently working for Ericsson, based in Guildford and Reading. One of a small group of Business Programme Managers working on Managed Services for Operators and international projects across Ericsson's global companies.

Schilling Michael, Chemistry PhD, 1979. Volunteering for Citizens Advice, RNIB, local Hospice. Campaigning with local groups: FoE, WAM, AI, CND.

Smith Gregory, Chemistry, 1979 BSc; Chemistry PhD, 1983. IT Business Relationship Partner, AstraZeneca.

Worton Deborah, Psychology BSc, 1979. Currently studying for a PhD in French Studies at University of Southampton.

Vaughan Janet, Social Sciences BA, 1979. 2005 Appointed JP for Vale of Glamorgan, 2004-6 Deputy Mayoress and then Mayoress of Cowbridge, 2008 Nominated Public Servant of the year in Vale Women of Year awards.

1980

Bates Alison, Education BEd, 1980. Married for 29 years. Has twin sons who are both graduates of Plymouth University.

Boon Philip, Chemistry with Biochemistry BSc, 1980; Chemistry PhD, 1986. Still travelling the world looking for deals and potentially acquisitions. Married for 23 years with three boys. Playing golf and keeping fit. The Wirral is a great place to live!

Glover Mark, Mining Geology BSc, 1980. Sheep farming in New South Wales.

Jones Annette, English BA, 1980.

After 23 years with Royal Mail took a career change seven years ago to go into School Business Management at Chailey, a rural comprehensive school. Married to Ken for 29 years and have two children who are at University.

Malik Zahid, Social Sciences BA, 1980. Worked as a Headteacher and Inspector of Schools and now going to try his fortunes in Saudi Arabia, teaching Saudi University students.

Moyes Elizabeth, Combined Studies BA, 1980. Married with two children and living in Scotland. Would love to hear from anyone who was in Clare Hall in 1977/78, just to say thank you for putting up with her.

Mulholland Andrew, Politics BA, 1980. Now semi-retired and living in Tuscany and Bedfordshire.

1981

Hickman Graham, Geology with Geophysics BSc, 1981. Working with BP on oil exploration in Angola.

Hopkin Dieter, History BA, 1981; Museum Studies MA, 1988. Currently working as a Museum Development Officer covering York and North Yorkshire. Also an Associate Tutor for the School of Museum Studies at Leicester and undertakes some free-lance museum and heritage consultancy work.

Mott Terry, Combined Studies BA, 1981. With his wife started an orphanage and school in Kenya in 2002 and have been expanding the scope of their work since then. They lived in Kenya for a year from 2002-03. Since returning to the UK in 2003, has worked as a teacher, whilst building up the charity. Will be returning to Kenya in January 2012 to start an agricultural college. This will involve leaving his job and working full-time in the new charitable role.

McDonald Marcus, Combined Studies BSc, 1981. Director of Finance and Estates, Royal College of Music.

Smith Colin, Biological Sciences BSc, 1981. Working in agriculture as an Agronomist, providing technical advice to farmers on the production of high quality potato crops. The company is a leading supplier of potatoes to major supermarkets and the food industry. Living and working in his native East Anglia, has two children, still loves 1960s music, plays the guitar and supports Norwich City.

Stanger Vaughan, Physics with Astrophysics BSc, 1981; Physics PhD, 1986. Is a published writer of science fiction and fantasy stories (approximately 20).

1982

Hughes Richard, Social Work MA, 1982. Has worked in Local Authority as a Social Worker, Head of Service in Youth Offending and Community Safety. Completed an MBA in 1992.

Jenkins David, French BA, 1982. Has three sons aged 21, 19 and 17. Is returning to teaching Languages at Secondary level after two years in Primary Education.

Khan Rehmat, Chemistry BSc, 1982. Studied part-time at Cardiff University and got an MSc in Organic Chemistry followed by full-time PhD in Organic Chemistry. Then obtained a PGCE/FE from Cardiff University and went on to teach for a short while. Retired from teaching and became self-employed. Now developing his skills in web application programming using the .NET Framework specialising in ASP.NET and C# programming language with a possible view to starting up an IT software enterprise.

Marshall Jane, Biological Sciences BSc, 1982. Currently self-employed consultant in Promotional Compliance for the pharmaceutical industry. Living in Surrey with one horse, two cats, 14 chickens (and N Saynor, BSc 1983).

Perkin Carole, Geography BA, 1982; English Local History MA, 2000. Relieved to have escaped local authority cutbacks thus far, ensuring vulnerable children get to and from school. Marked 50th birthday with Sunday Lunch at the Regency and a walk in Leicester Botanic Garden, beautiful.

Rideout Jan, Chemistry BSc, 1982. Technical Director for British Gypsum.

Thomas Ian, Geology BSc, 1982. Works as an Accountant for a charity.

Wells Alison, History BA, 1982. Remarried August 2010.

Williams David, Geology BSc, 1982. Worked for various oil companies in the past. Since 2003, worked independently in countries such as India, Malaysia and Norway, as well as in the UK.

1983

Charnaud Susan, Law LLB, 1983. Practised as a Solicitor for 11 years in London (Freshfields and then ANZ Bank). Now living near Cambridge, no longer in practice. Fully occupied as a housewife and mother.

Barker Colin, Biological Sciences BSc, 1983. 1983-1994 was Sales Rep KP Foods. Lived in Leicester, Cambridge and settled in Peterborough. Married 1989. 1994-1995, PGCE Secondary Science. In November, son was born. 1995-2001 was at Orton Longueville School. Duke of Edinburgh Leader, Environmental Coordinator, Acting Year Leader, Dept Sixth Form 2001 to date working at Sir Harry Smith Community College Acting Year Leader for a while. Now Environmental Coordinator, Biology Coordinator, Second in Science Dept, Whole School Primary Liaison, Sixth Tutor, Silver Duke of Edinburgh Leader, Organiser of School Panto and, most importantly Panto Dame.

Brawley Christina, German BA, 1983. Married with two daughters age 21 and 16. Living happily in Southampton since 1985.

Foulkes Christian, Law LLB, 1983. Married to Donna with two boys Billy (16) and Charlie (13). Living in Wetherby. Partner at Plexus Law Solicitors in Leeds specialising in Insurance Litigation. Still long-suffering season ticket holder at Burley FC. Rediscovered cricket and play most weekends for local team.

Henry Dean, Geology BSc, 1983. MD of Inventor-e Ltd where we have patented a product, developed the solution and brought it to market. Also MD of Ecors Electrical Distributors supplying electrical equipment to contractors and industry.

Hutchinson Christopher, Biological Sciences BSc, 1983. Went on to do a PhD at Manchester University. Now living with his partner and they both enjoy travelling, scuba diving and exploring new countries.

Latham Katherine, Social Sciences BA, 1983. Married to Matthew Latham, BSc Geology, 1983. Has lived in Sydney, Australia since 1998.

Leonard Grant, Social Sciences BA, 1983. Runs his own publishing company in the property sector. Spent 20 years in motorcycling publishing as a Journalist, Editor and Publisher of 'Superbike Magazine'. Also founded 'Two Wheels Only' magazine. Wife is Olivia (who is Spanish). No children.

Ludlow Stephen, Social Sciences BA, 1983. Working in a Technical and Analytics Group at SAS Software in Marlow for the past 21 years. Married to Catherine (née Jackson) also a BA Social Sciences (Economics) 1983 graduate.

McCormack Adrian, Physics with Astrophysics BSc, 1983. Focused on digital leadership, specifically advisor, public speaker, Financial Times columnist and guest lecturer MIT Sloan School of Management. Written a few business IT books. Interests include dancing, martial arts and running.

1984

Clarke Jane, Sociology BSc, 1984; Social Research MSc, 1994. Very much enjoyed being Head of Academic Professional Development at De Montfort University since 2004. Was her last full-time job and finished on 31st December 2011. Looking forward to two months as a Senior Visiting Fellow at the University of Windsor, Ontario, Canada at the beginning of 2012. Her three children, their partners and four grandchildren all live in Leicester.

Davis Caroline, History BA, 1984. Living and working in the Netherlands since 1990, regularly in the UK.

Green Judith, Biological Sciences BSc, 1984; PGCE, 1991. Heavily involved in space education, working with the National Space Centre in Leicester.

Hammond Jane, German BA, 1984. Changed jobs in 2010. Now manages a small furniture re-use charity in Loughborough.

Marsh Peter, Psychology BSc, 1984. Studied an MSc at De Montfort University before working for Leicester Computer Centre for four years. Then worked at the Universities of Loughborough and Leicester and has been at the University of Warwick for the last 10 years. Still lives a few miles north of Leicester.

McKeever Eileen, Biological Sciences BSc, 1984. Married to Chris, with an 11 year old son, Liam. Works for the Environment Agency in the National Flood and Coastal Risk Team. Has family in Ireland.

Nesbit Mark, Physics with Microelectronics BSc, 1984. Worked in the European Space Agency's directorate of Science and Robotic Exploration for the last 20 years. Currently having a break from his project and mentoring research-fellows in the agencies Advanced Concepts Team.

Page Trevor, Economics BSc, 1984. Associate of the Chartered Insurance Institute.

Savva Stavriini, Combined Studies BA, 1984. Completed a second degree in Art and Design History at the London Metropolitan University and graduated with 2:2 Hons. Recently graduated with an MA Diploma from Birkbeck in the History of Art and Architecture. Registered disabled.

Smith David, Studies MEd, 1984. Now retired. Had a career in education as a Senior Education Officer for 40 years. Associated with OFSTED and DFES and served on a number of DFES committees and working parties.

Wales John, French BA, 1984. Having had fun in criminal and financial investigations with Customs and Excise (now HMRC), has returned to his first love, using his languages almost daily in uniform on the "front line", supported by his wonderful wife, Liz.

1985

Childs Geoffrey, Combined Studies BSc, 1985. Gained a PGCE from UAE and started teaching in Louth in 1986, given early retirement in 1995 so took up gliding, gaining his pilot's certificate in 1996. Unfortunately suffered two strokes whilst on holiday in Spain in 2006 and lost the use of left arm and leg but is making the best of it, even taking up archery as part of the recovery physio regime. Still hoping to regain further use of left arm and leg with careful and persistent exercise and physio.

Hibbin David, Geography BA, 1985. Have been a Baptist Minister since 1993 working in three dynamic, lively and large churches in Essex, Devon and now Wales. Awarded Doctor of Ministry by Fuller Theological Seminary in 2008.

Hooley Pamela, French and German BA, 1985. Worked as a qualified Accountant in the NHS until 2008. Co-founded the PKD Charity in 2000, with periods working as Chair, Treasurer and helpline Counsellor. Recently qualified as a Counsellor and currently completing a degree in Counselling at New College, Durham.

James Sheila, Biological Sciences BSc, 1985. MSc in Occupational Therapy in 2008 from University of Coventry.

Moore's Amanda, Geography BA, 1985. Director of two educational charities and also Chair of the Annual Fund Committee of a senior school. On the Committee of the newly registered charity "HITS", head injuries through sport.

McManus Paul, Economics and Economic History BA, 1985. Married Gill Harris in 1995 and they have two beautiful children, Declan and Niamh. Gill also attended Leicester University and also graduated in 1985. They live in Worcester where Gill is a Schoolteacher and Paul has worked in the pharmaceutical industry for 25 years.

Rampton John, Physics with Astrophysics BSc, 1985. MSc Electrical Engineering University of Surrey. Service Improvement Manager at Virgin Media.

Riordan Loretta, History and Politics BA, 1985. Psychotherapist with own practice (also worked for 15 years in the NHS), living and working on the South Coast of England. Is also a published short story writer.

Soulby Donna, Psychology BSc, 1985; PGCE, 1986. Achieved NPQH (2000) and further professional study in Nurture Groups and Massage.

1986

Benton Joanna, Archaeological Studies BA, 1986. Primary School Teacher, married to Ian for 25 years. Has three children.

Burns David, Studies MEd, 1986. Retired 2006 after 39 years in Education. Four headships (three primary, one special school). 15 years as Senior Primary Inspector for L. B. Barnet. Ofsted Registered Inspector 1992 - 2003.

Butt Khalid, Medicine MBChB, 1986; MBChB, 1987. Partner in large practice (GP) with eight partners and one salaried. One of five GP-Directors of the Nottinghamshire Local Medical Committee. Elected GP Representative on the local Out of Hours Service. On local Clinical Commissioning (PBC) Group. On PCT individual case review panel.

Drake Kelly, Philosophy BA, 1986. CEO at 26 in Nahanal Voluntary Sector Organisation. Freelance at 36 and last ten years running own business as a coach and management and strategy consultant. Mum to India in 2010.

Dwyer John, Studies MEd, 1986. From 2006-2011: Senior Lecturer at De Montfort University in the Mathematics Support Department. 1991-2006: Assistant Principal Director of Post-16 at Guthlaxton College in Wigston, Leicester. Between 1979-1991: Head of Sixth Form at Guthlaxton College in Wigston, Leicester.

Karnik Mikhail, Combined Studies BSc, 1986. He and his wife, Liz, just saw their eldest off to university.

Lewis Ian, Politics BA, 1986. Working in Italy.

Payling Michael, Biological Sciences BSc, 1986. Originally came from Sheffield. Worked in Marketing for 20-odd years; first with Unilever, then BP and now as an independent Marketing Consultant. After graduation, worked in Liverpool and then Bristol which was followed by expatriations in both Poland (1993-96) and China (1996-99). Moved back to the UK originally to Bristol and then Fleet, Hampshire since 2007. Married with two daughters, Jenny (b.2005) and Asia (b.2006).

Sutcliffe Jonathan, Studies MEd, 1986. Became a Primary School Headteacher in Leicestershire, an Ofsted Inspector for Primary Schools and a School Advisor in three local authorities. Now retired as a Headteacher but still does part-time work as an advisor/inspector.

Reynolds Lorna, Studies MEd, 1986.

In her second Headship. Currently Heads a school with 720 pupils and around 80 staff. Both schools that she led have been in London, were struggling and she led them to successful outcomes. Has been on TV three times: once on a children's show, twice on the news for her school's involvement in tackling gun and gang crimes.

Rowlands Jennifer, Economics

BSc, 1986. Qualified as Chartered Accountant in 1989, married in 1991. Son born in 1993 and a daughter born 1995. Has moved 14 times in the last 20 years including three tours abroad in Bahrain, Saudi Arabia and Germany.

Vacher Kai, Geography BA, 1986;

PGCE, 1988. Principal Designate at British School, Muscat, Oman. Started post on 13 August, 2011.

1987Arokiasamy Eugene, *Law LLB, 1987.

Founder and President of "A Book For A Friend International Society". Extensive experience working in the International Development arena. In 1987 was first foreign student to be elected to the University of Leicester Students' Union as Deputy President, elected President in 1988. Awarded honorary life membership from the University Union of London and University of Leicester International Students' Association for his service to International/Overseas and Black Minority and Ethnic Students and International Campaigns in 1992. Currently based in Malaysia working full-time on expanding ABFAFI Society and its outreach programmes as part of his life-long ambition to assist with the eradication of illiteracy, empowerment of people and human capital development.

Boulos-Bland Theresa,

Embryology MPhil, 1987. Has been a Parent Governor at Coopers' Co and Coborn School for six years and was re-appointed as co-opted Governor last year.

Clarke Ian, Zoology PhD, 1987.

Career in teaching including Leadership of Science and Assistant Headship until 2002. Since 2002 worked in the advisory service as an Education Improvement Professional.

Hughes Anthony, Mathematics BSc,

1987. In media for the last twenty years. First local newspapers, including a spell at the Leicester Mercury. For the last 15 years or so for a TV production company, as the Commercial Director – heading up finance and commercial affairs including licensing (selling!) shows internationally. Much more importantly has a beautiful wife who still puts up with him after all these years and two wonderful children. Daughter starts at university this year. Lucky to live in a small village in Cornwall and type whilst looking over a stormy autumn sea.

Lamont Alison, Modern Language

Studies BA, 1987. Went straight into a job as a trainee Architect! Many years of studying French weren't wasted however as spent over a year on site in Paris building EuroDisney (or Disneyland Paris as they prefer to call it now). Currently working for herself as an Interior Designer/Architectural Assistant.

Orlandi Paulo, Geology MSc,

1987. Chief of the Government of Canada Trade Office for the south region of Brazil.

Shawki Amr, Engineering (Electrical

And Electronic) BEng, 1987. Chairman of Egytec Engineering, Chairman of Arab Power and Energy Association, Chairman of Arab Smart Association.

1988Abbott Thelma, *Studies MEd,

1988. Works for Leicester City Council in the Governor Development Services which is in the Children and Young People's Services.

Bennett John, History BA, 1988.

Married for the first time in June 2010 and moved from Kent to Oxford. Wife, Debbie, is a GP and he works in Central London for an accountancy firm.

Buttenshaw Simon, Geography

BSc, 1988. Heading up the University of Nottingham's Regular Giving Team and Chair of one of Nottingham's biggest junior football clubs.

Champion Catherine, Law LLB, 1988.

After Leicester, went to the College of Law in Guildford, then Norton Road Solicitors in London. Qualified in 1991 and then re-qualified as a teacher in 2003. Married Andrew in 1990 and has three children.

Coole Louise, Medicine MBChB, 1988.

Consultant in Communicable Disease Control and Regional Epidemiologist with the Health Protection Agency.

Fetherston Haugh Emma,

Sociology BA, 1988. Single, with three sons. Works at a pre-school that she helped set up and also works at the family bike track.

Lenten Sheila, Applied Sociology

BA, 1988. After graduation, did a Postgraduate CQSW at Trent between 1989-1990. Became a Social Worker at Market Harborough Social Services (Access Team). Retired 2001-2002. From 2002-2005 was part-time medical Receptionist. Now retired. Her son is also a graduate of the University, Jonathan Lenten, Medicine 1983-88. They graduated on the same day.

Page Stephen, Geography PhD,

1988. Honorary PhD Awarded in 2010 for work on tourism, education and research.

Perry Christopher, Psychology

BSc, 1988. Enjoying retirement and still find plenty to do. In fact doesn't know how he found time to work. Visited Rome (again) on holiday.

1989Banyard Maureen, *Religion PhD,

1989. Lecturing part-time, a Committee Member of the Bishop's Conference of England and Wales, and also engaged in pastoral work. A keen gardener and is responsible for a large garden! No special awards! Has enjoyed starting a school in Australia, also in Zambia. Taught in 6th form college in Singapore.

Esling Rachel, French and Politics

BA, 1989. Living happily by the coast with husband, son and dog. Teaches in a large Primary School.

Freeman Malcolm, Combined Studies

BA, 1988; PGCE, 1989. Head of Years 7 and 11 at Northampton School for Girls.

Marks Paul, Politics BA,

1989. Conservative member of Kettering Council.

Pringle John, Combined Science

BSc, 1989. Working as Finance Manager for Hewlett Packard, living in Thames Ditton (Surrey). Married and has one child born in 2010.

1990

Tanner-Kaplash Sonja, Museum Studies PhD, 1990. Since retiring (Royal Ontario Museum, Toronto and a heritage consulting business) continues to Chair the Canadian Museum Association Insurance Committee which sponsors a group plan for Canadian museums.

1991

Chesser Clive, Politics BA, 1991; MBA, 1994. Operations Director for Greene King. Living in East Molesey, married with three children.

Gooch Hazel, Education PGCE, 1991. Married to Chris who works at the University of Leicester. Running her own business teaching mainly Drama and English (part-time). Also involved in local community groups and activities.

Lim Kin, Medicine MBChB, 1991. Consultant Ophthalmologist at St Thomas' Hospital in London specialising in Glaucoma and Cataract surgery.

Norman Karen, Combined Arts BA, 1991. Did a second degree last year and qualified as an Accountant. Using her languages with accounts in her current job.

Stuart Karen, PGCE, 1991; Teaching Primary Science PG Cert, 2010. Now working as an Acting Deputy Head at a local Primary School. Worked for University of Leicester as a visiting tutor, PGCE Science tutor and Local Coordinator on a European project

Walker Sara, Physics BSc, 1991; PGCE, 1992. Now at Northumbria University undertaking research on renewable energy and energy policy.

1992

Clapp Nicola, Combined Studies BA, 1992. Self-employed, teaching piano and recorder to children with special needs.

Peck Sarah, Psychology BSc, 1992. One of her current projects is the development of space batteries and she is drawing on the knowledge and expertise of University of Leicester. Nice to be reunited again.

1993

Chong Gabriel, Museum Studies MA, 1993. Education Officer.

1994

Gibson Gloria, Combined Studies BA, 1994. After graduating, moved to Aberdeen and after a number of jobs in University admin, at the age of 55, undertook a post-graduate teaching degree at University of Aberdeen following which she taught English at Mackie until last August. Now looking forward to more new challenges in retirement!

Narewska Jane, Combined Science BSc, 1994. Married long-term partner Ben in 1997. Had a variety of sort-of psychology-related job roles until redundancy in 2001 enabled her to study for Masters in Health Psychology. Worked in Research and Health Outcomes in Central London until a second redundancy in 2010. Now working for a top CRO close to home and trying to find a better work life balance as had a daughter in 2007 (Eva) who is now four and will start school in September! Maybe one day her daughter will go to the University of Leicester too!

Ricci Paolo, European Management and Employment Law LLM, 1994. Environmental and Health Assessment and Management, Springer (2006). Elected Fullbright Scholar (Specialist in Environmental Health) 2010-2015.

Sotiropoulos Stylianos, Business Analysis MA, 1994. Works with Probank (a small-sized bank in Greece) in the fields of loan assessment, business analysis, loan restructuring and capital markets.

Quinn John, Combined Studies BA, 1994. Maths Teacher at Northampton Grammar School for Boys.

1995

Hegg Phillip, European Management and Employment Law LLM, 1995. Adjunct Professor at Wake Forest School of Law (1990-1996); regular Lecturer for National Business Institute (Taxation, Estate Planning, Business Planning); Lecturer for various programs including national financial organisations/symposia.

Kumar Anil, Geographical Information Systems MSc, 1995. Currently working as Acting Director, Environment Information at the Environment Agency - Abu Dhabi.

Richardson Sarah, Law LLB, 1995.

Having a long career break to look after her three daughters. Just moved into their newly-renovated house in SW London. A big project and home at last!

Toumbas Christos, MBA, 1995.

Birth of his first child (boy) Christmas 2011. Anticipating a new job while having a few job offers.

Woodward Jeremy, Law LLB, 1995.

Married and living in Surrey with their beautiful, but tiring, 18-month old son. Is a Barrister and was appointed a part-time Judge (civil) last year.

1996

Albon Vicky, Archaeology and Sociology BA, 1996. Head of Operations, Shine International (Media/TV).

Ang Kwang, MBA, 1996. Founder of SciTech Explorer LLP. Develops and distributes educational solar products and events; develops training modules and conducts training. Co-founder of Age of Robotics LLP. Develops and distributes educational robotics products and events; develops training modules and conducts training.

Ardianto Ari, MBA, 1996. Head of International Banking and Financial Institutions of Bank Mega Syariah, Indonesia.

Awang Hamsawi Awang Othman, MBA, 1996. Currently has own business as distributor of organic soil ameliorant in Malaysia.

Blumberger Richard, Economics BA, 1996. Currently Finance Director for Balfour Beatty Work Place and has been for the last two years. Has had progressive finance roles and spent two years living in Lyon in France. Has five children now ranging from three to 18.

Cheney Colin, English BA, 1996; Victorian Studies MA, 1998. Currently teaching children to cycle in deprived areas.

Greiff Simon, Geography and Economic and Social History BA, 1996; PGCE, 1997. Stayed in Leicester following his degree and completed a Secondary PGCE at the School of Education. Married with two children aged five and three. Currently employed by a Leicestershire School as an Assistant Headteacher.

Johri Saurabh, Medicine MBChB, 1996. GP Principal in NW Leicestershire and married with two young daughters.

Kitchin Suzie, Geography BA, 1996. Working as Library Liaison Adviser at Northumbria University, enjoying life, sharing time with friends and family and exploring the world.

Kosar William, European Management and Employment Law LLM, 1996. Currently with the United Nations Development Program in Kigali, Rwanda where he is Senior Legal Advisor to the Ministry of Justice. For the previous three years he had been in Juba the capital of the soon-to-be-independent Republic of South Sudan where he was Legal and Legislative Advisor to the Ministry of Legal Affairs and Constitutional Development in a USAID-funded project. Now makes his home in Kenya.

Oscroft Lesley, Combined Science BSc, 1996. Currently a Geography Teacher and Head of Year 13 in Milton Keynes.

Wanasundera Shanthi, European and International Trade Law LLM, 1996. Is the first ever Lady Additional Solicitor General in the history of Sri Lanka. Has held the post of 'Acting Attorney General' five times in the last year. Supervises the officers on the civil side of the Attorney General's Department.

1997

Butcher Thomas, Law LLB, 1997. Now owns and runs the Lyndhurst Gallery a contemporary art gallery in Hampshire.

Lawrance Richard, Information Technology and Security Management MSc, 1997. Head of Audit at Blacks Leisure Plc.

1998

Brindley Rachel, Combined Science BSc, 1998. Working as a GP trainee part-time and mother to one-year old son.

Fidler Kerry, Social Work MA, 1998. After many years as a qualified Social Worker, has now returned to the fold and is a Teaching Fellow at the School of Social Work.

Handley Peter, Criminal Justice Studies MSc (DL), 1998. Finally retired from lecturing and from business but remains active as a Trustee of two charities and as a Magistrate.

Harriman Charles, Law with French LLB, 1998. Company Director in Nigeria at Neptune Marine Services Ltd, OHT Rubber Ltd and Harriman Energy Ltd.

Kehinde Elijah, Doctor of Medicine, 1998. Professor of Urological Surgery. Research focus is on tumour markers in urological oncology. Distinguished Researcher awardee 2006, Kuwait University.

Neddermeijer Henk, Study Of Security Management MSc (DL), 1998. Director of Kernel Facilities B.V.

Martin Tracy-Jayne, Archaeology and Sociology BA, 1998. After illness last year, took a career change. Still enjoy life and extremely happy working in retail and still assists New Walk Museum with its events as required.

Sebata Simeon, Study of Security Management MSc (DL), 1998. Retrenched by Reserve Bank of Zimbabwe and now looking for a job.

Tan Tiong, MBA, 1998. Currently running our family business dealing in boating and marine related products. Very involved in volunteer jobs. Involved with Chartered Management Institute, Singapore.

Trickett Mark, Archaeology BSc, 1998. Current Employment as Archaeology Field Director at James Madison's Montpelier (Orange, Virginia, USA). Adjunct Assistant Professor, Department of Sociology & Anthropology, James Madison's University (Harrisonburg, Virginia, USA).

Wong Weng, MBA, 1998. Manages a golf resort with 200-room accommodation and full facilities.

1999

Blanco Carlos, PG Cert Criminal Justice & Police Management, 1999; Police Leadership & Management MSc (DL), 2004. Working as an academic at the IUNGA (Instituto Universitario de Gendarmeria Nacional Argentina) and at the IUPFA (Instituto Universitario de la Policia Federal Argentina).

Miller Colin, PGCE, 1999. Retired Senior Lecturer in Mathematics, UWE Bristol. MEd Bath University 1976. Writing as a retirement hobby. Current topic, Student Life 1956-1964.

Teoh Kok, MBA, 1999. Running own business in industrial waste management.

2000

Baggott Gemma, Combined Arts BA, 2000. Associate of Chartered Institute of Personnel & Development.

Barber David, History BA, 2000. Got married in 2009 and leaving the banking industry after 10 years to join the exciting world of insurance!

Capurro Alexzander, Computer Science BSc, 2000. Started up 21Fifty Ltd, which specialises in online payment integrations, fraud prevention, and payment management, as well as mobile phone development.

Griffiths Rachel, Combined Science BSc, 2000. Living and working in Banbury for Kraft foods as a scientist in product development for roast coffee. Married in 2007 and in October 2010 our daughter was born.

Idol Lance, Training and HR Management MSc, 2000. As an Investigator, he puts together felony criminal cases for trial.

Khader Abdul, Forensic Psychology MSc, 2000. Currently the Chief Psychologist of the Singapore Police Force. Also teaching Forensic Psychology at the Nanyang Technological University.

Lane Sara, Combined Science BSc, 2000. Son born in April 2010. New Firm start up, Ludlow Lane Solicitors.

Liu Chi, Business Economics BSc, 2000. ACCA PMP (Project Management Professional).

2001

Dunn Trevor, Forensic & Legal Psychology MSc, 2001. Trevor Dunn (BA, MSc, CPsycol, FRSA) has been awarded Chartered Psychologist status by the British Psychological Society and has a Masters degree in Psychology and Education from Cambridge University.

Enright William, Risk Crisis & Disaster Management MSc, 2001. Currently Operations Manager of Aviva Stadium. The stadium replaced the old Lansdowne Road.

Hamilton Gerald, Diploma in Training and Development, 2001. His organisation achieved Bronze Award from Investors in People. Currently working on taking the organisation to Silver Award and is responsible for their next development.

Jaffer Yasmin, Medicine MBChB, 2001. Currently living in Hong Kong with her husband who works there.

Paden Doyle, Training MSc (DL), 2001. Director, Continuing Education and Development for all the Cherokee Nation businesses. Adjunct Professor for local private university, teaching business and leadership courses.

2002

Barnhoorn Johannes, Applied Linguistics and TESOL, 2002. After finishing his teaching career is planning on becoming a full-time busker.

Barnes Philip, Law LLB, 2002.

Returned to Manchester to go to Law School, and secured a training contract with a large regional criminal practice in 2003. Qualified as a Solicitor in 2005, as a Criminal Duty Solicitor in 2006 and as a Higher Court Advocate (HCA) in 2008. Now works as a full-time Crown Court Advocate. Also mentors students studying at Manchester Metropolitan University, giving them some insight into the work of a criminal HCA.

Hla Shwe Shwe, MBA (DL), 2002; Doctor of Education, 2010. With UNICEF in Myanmar from 2007-2010. Worked with UNESCO in Bangkok but left at the end of April 2011.

Hogg Alistair, Security Management and IT MSc (DL), 2002. Established and grown his own security training and private investigation business.

Irwin Nicola, Sociology BA, 2002. Has left The Sentinel Newspaper in Stoke-on-Trent and is now working for the Press Association.

Maysami Samaneh, Molecular Genetics MSc, 2002. After her degree, due to family circumstances Samaneh relocated to Germany where she continued her degree towards a PhD in Neuroscience. Stayed in her first position in USA for more than three and a half years and now is back in UK to continue her research on stroke pathology and therapy.

Safotso Gilbert, Applied Linguistics and TESOL MA (DL), 2002. Currently a Lecturer of English Language and Applied Linguistics at the Higher Teacher Training College, University of Marona, Cameroon.

Tse Tsz, MBA, 2002. Having graduated from the University, has been promoted four grades in the hotel which is a great motivation in her working life.

2003

Ablett Ian, Management Cert (DL), 2003. Subsequently additional part-time employment at the Open University Business School as well as postgraduate qualification in Operating Management at the University of Glamorgan and NVQ Level 5 Operational Management at the University of Glamorgan.

Bennett Gareth, Biological Sciences BSc, 2003. Spent a year travelling the world. Worked in forensic science for two years and is currently working as a Science Teacher.

Brooks Sally, Communications and Society BSc, 2003. Following a short career in Journalism, has spent many years in the NHS doing communications and marketing. Is now fundraising for health projects.

Flanagan Sam, Engineering (Mechanical) MEng, 2003. Recently achieved chartership via CIBSE, the Chartered Institute of Building Services Engineers.

Karchut Jeremy, Archaeology and Heritage MA (DL), 2003. As of January 2012, is the Lead Archaeologist with the National Parks Service, Alaska Region. Responsible for assisting Alaska National Parks with archaeology programs, nominating National Historic Landmarks, archaeology public education, and studying the effects of climate change on archeological resources.

Kilic Ozcan, Finance MSc, 2003. Currently working in the finance department of a leading building materials company in Turkey. Misses Leicester, as he really enjoyed his time here.

Lu Yifan, MBA, 2003. Working in a human resource company as CEO in Shanghai, China. Glad to give help to those who wish to get a job in China.

Mitchell Lauren, Combined Studies (European Union) BA, 2003. Fell into HE at a mature age. Not easy, but rewarding! University staff supported her fantastically throughout. Has been involved in Art Exhibitions, workshops and carnivals countrywide.

Stiles Philip, Combined Studies BA, 2003; International Relations and World Order MA, 2010. Owner/ editor of popular on-line magazine. Engaged to Jolanta Dabek and married in Poland in August 2011.

2004

Bamfo Frank, MBA, 2004. Appointment as Director of International Relations at Koforidua Polytechnic, Facilitators MBA Program. (KNUST), University.

Arnold Nicholas, Medicine MBChB, 2004. GP Partner Forestside Medical Practice, Southampton.

Collins David, English BA, 2004. Staff Reporter at the Daily Mirror working as part of an award-winning team. Recently helped gain a conviction for the murder of Milly Dowler after interviewing serial killer Levi Bellfield.

Dikaros Andreas, Marketing MSc, 2004. Providing Environmental Health Advisory services to Canada's First Nations. Currently obtaining a certificate in Business Analysis.

Hardie Andrew, History and Archaeology BA, 2004. Now works for Henry Schein UK Ltd as an Account Manager in their veterinary division and lives with his girlfriend in a small village in North Notts.

Ioakim Stavros, Security & Risk Management MSc (DL), 2004. Manager of Group Business Continuity and Group Insurance Department.

Kuria Muthoni, MBA, 2004. Became CEO of a Bank in Kenya, then left employment to start her own businesses one of which was inspired by her MBA dissertation on e-commerce!

Mwaga Sarah, Co-op Management & Organisational Development MA, 2004. Executive Director of a non-governmental organisation. Also been appointed as the Chairperson of a local water authority by the Minister of Water.

Ruffles Keith, Geography BSc, 2004; Research in Human Geography MSc, 2006. Keith cycled the entire South American continent of about 25,000km of jungle, mountains, deserts, coastlines and cities. It really was the journey of a lifetime.

Yetman Kathy-Ann, Mass

Communications MA, 2004. Currently a television producer for a live one hour current affairs and lifestyle show called Live @ 7 broadcast on CVM-TV in Jamaica. Responsible for the production of a five-minute travel and tourism feature called 'Travel Jamaica' which airs once a week during Live @ 7. Prior to 2010, worked as a radio producer for a news and current affairs programme as well as a lifestyle programme.

2005Aras Garip, Management MSc,

2005. Had a promotion in March and is now Assistant Manager in the Sales Department of Leaseplan.

Boehly Andrew, Museum Studies

MA, 2005. Archivist at the Pima Air and Space Museum in Tucson, Arizona.

Borbara Ramez, Medicine

MBChB, 2005. Speciality Doctor in Ophthalmology.

Choppen Rachael, History BA, 2005.

Working as an Account Manager in the graphic communications industry, looking after an account base of fashion houses and graphic design agencies.

Katopodis Anastasios, Management

MSc, 2005. Works at the Agricultural Bank of Greece. Studying for a second masters degree in Tourism Management at the Open University, Greece.

Kornu Daniel, Business Analysis and Finance MSc, 2005.

Lecturer in the School of Business E.P. University College, Ho, Ghana and also the Head of the Accounting and Finance Department.

Maingi George, Criminal Justice & Police Management PG Certificate, 2005.

Managed modern integration and security system in all CBK branches. Devised strategic SOPs on new currency transportation. Awarded promotion and is now Assistant Commissioner of Police.

Ng Phileas, MBA (DL), 2005.

Set up more than ten factories within 15 years, providing employment for more than 8,000 people.

Yeung Porlin, MBA (DL), 2005.

Preparing for the Professional Project Management Credential exam.

2006Aresti Christina, Educational

Studies MA, 2006. Has managed to get two jobs in Cyprus, at a private school where she teaches English to foreign students and at CDA College where she teaches English Literature.

Arganbright Kenna, Museum Studies MA, 2006.

Had a baby boy in 2011.

Brown Robin, Security & Risk Management MSc (DL), 2006.

Teaching Forensic Psychology, working in LED energy saving projects.

Chapman Donald, English PhD,

2006. His 'History of Oxford Playhouse', published in 2008, has resulted in the installation of a blue plaque outside Oxford University Language Centre in Woodstock Road, the Playhouse's first home.

El Kenawy Ahmed, Environmental Informatics MSc, 2006.

Studying for a PhD in the climate change area. Has obtained a fully-funded scholarship from the Spanish Research Council (SCIC) from 2008-2012.

Green Lorraine, Combined Studies

BA, 2006. Taught English in China with the British Council after graduating in 2006. Currently teaching in a secondary school in East London. She loved and misses Leicester.

Johnson Joseph, Geographical Information Systems MSc, 2006.

Presented to the UN Economic Commission for Africa on how African countries can build and improve their spatial data infrastructures.

Lucas Claire, Museum Studies MA,

2006. Been very busy buying and doing up first house, having a baby and switching jobs from museum work to IS.

Ramyed Sandhya, Diploma in Management, 2006.

Works as an Officer in the administrative section of the Human Rights Department of Mauritius.

Spence Malcolm, Chemistry MChem,

2006. Working as a Research Scientist, happily married with a child.

Toure-Lyonnet Mariam, Law of Employment Relations LLM, 2006.

Lives and works in France. After several years working in different law firms, set up her own practice in 2009 and is quite happy.

Wagner Christoph, Sociology of Sport MA, 2006. In 2013 he will have finished his PhD on the Anglo-German football rivalry.

2007Adamson Caroline, Training and Human Resource Management

MSc, 2007. Certified master coach and facilitator.

Ahmad Aziah, Certificate in Management, 2007.

Managing an elderly clinic. Awarded a bursary to pursue a Master of Nursing this year.

Akhtar Toqueer, Management Cert (Banking & Financial Services) (DL), 2007; Diploma in Management, 2010. Since graduation he has climbed the ladder of success and achieved goals through hard work and determination.

Al Assaf Mohammad, MBA (DL), 2007.

Currently a part-time Instructor at Leicester, Stafford and the Open University in Saudi.

Asirifi Hayford, MBA (DL), 2011.

Director of Finance of West Brong Presbytery in Ghana, a Rev. Minister, member of Dormaa Presby Hospital area board, Chairman of a Midwifery Training School Committee.

Atta-Mensah Peter, MBA (DL), 2007.

Managing a Health Insurance Scheme in a district of about 200,000 people for the past three years in Ghana. It is a social programme for the Government of Ghana which is providing basic health care to about 68% of Ghanaians.

2008Giles Emily, Economics BA, 2007; Management MSc, 2008.

Took a year out after graduation, mostly travelled and did some work at old secondary school. The time spent as a supply teacher convinced her to return to the UK and apply to do a PGCE. Completed her PGCE Business Education at the University of Warwick and is now in her second year of teaching Economics at the International School of London.

Masonya Masego, Training and Human Resource Management

MSc, 2007. Working for Government now and after studying PG Dip HRM with Leicester, studied and completed MBA at the University of Southern Queensland, Australia.

Newar Sunayana, Mass Communications MA, 2007. Just completed a second Masters, an MBA in Marketing from University of Wales Institute, Cardiff. Intends to pursue her PhD from New Zealand this year.

2008

Ayiatey Allan, Security and Risk Management FdA, 2008; Security and Risk Management BA (DL), 2011. Security and Risk Advisor in United Nations Field Mission.

Farrow Clare, English BA, 2008. Recently promoted after working for the Trust for 18 months.

Hughes La, Diploma in Management, 2008. Presently enrolled in the MSc Management programme and will be doing exams for module bb7.

Kimura Ryo, MBA (DL), 2008. Promoted to Business Director role for surgical technologies sector in Medtronic Japan Co, Ltd. The sector consists of ENT, Neurologic Technologies, and navigation business franchises.

Norman Gemma, Criminology BA, 2008. Works for a project to get offenders back into employment, education or training, covering probation offices in East Berkshire and HMP Bronzefield.

Rodd Murray, MBA (DL), 2008. Chief of Police from August 2008 to present. Invested as a member of The Order of Merit.

Wei Wei, Mass Communications MA, 2008. Just misses Leicester!

Yetkin Celal, Biological Sciences (Biochemistry) BSc, 2008. Worked at Yale University's School of Medicine at the Department of Obstetrics, Gynaecology and Reproductive Sciences until May 2010 and now studying a Master's Degree at Drexel University of Medicine.

2009

Abela Joseph, MSc Training and Human Resource Management, 2009. Presently managing the customs EU Programmes Unit, sending customs personnel to attend seminars, meetings, project groups, committees, workshops, working visits etc, under commission coordination; providing for training as per departmental priorities.

Assaf Nadra, Doctor of Education, 2009. Published in Sage Journals. Is the subject of a chapter in a book coming out, title "Our Dance Stories". Created the first World Dance Day Festival in Lebanon, April 2011.

Christensen Esben, Diploma in Management, 2009. Changed to new position/company for continuation of school occupation.

Denton Lucy, Geology BSc, 2009. Nominated for young volunteer of the year and shortlisted. Full-time volunteer for the Yorkshire Wildlife Trust Marine Awareness Team. BTCV NVQ + volunteer, learnt hedgelaying, tree felling and community education. Restoring local Leicester former landfill site, Aylestone Meadows.

Dunseth Deborah, Creative Writing Certificate HE, 2009. Following completion of the Certificate at Vaughan College, has continued to refine her writing style and has recently published her ninth book with Jessica Kingsley Publishers (under her maiden name of Plummer).

Guerry Emily, German and Spanish BA, 2009. Is currently undertaking a PGCE course at the University of Cambridge, to teach French, German and Spanish at secondary level.

Hapsari Marisca, Mass Communications MA, 2009. Working at the Ministry of Culture and Tourism Indonesia as a Designer. Responsible for managing the design and concept of the printed promotional materials.

Jones Hugh, Security & Risk Management MSc (DL), 2009. Now working for the African Development Bank in Tunis and has been transferred to Abidjan as Chief Security Officer.

Kanonidou Evgenia, Cardiovascular Sciences MD, 2009. Working as a Consultant Ophthalmologist in General Hospital of Veria, Veria, Greece.

Kudiwa Tendai, Finance MSc (DL), 2009. International Banking has always been a challenge, excited that it appears the 10 years of recession are over. Slowly we will get there if the political environment remains stable.

Jovanovic Sanja, Mass Communications MA (DL), 2009. Proud founder of International Documentary Film Festival in Podgrica.

Lenakaki Evangelia, Educational Studies MA, 2009. Has been working for two years in a school with students who have specific learning difficulties. Now doing a PhD at the University of Crete.

McDonald Vaughn, MBA (DL), 2009. Extremely busy ensuring a harmonious relationship among Union and Management with a staff complement of approximately 1,800 employees. In addition, occupying the position of Assistant Secretary to the Board of a financial institution, while having responsibility as Chairman of the Quality Assurance and Risk Management Committee with portfolio responsibility for policy development and revision, enterprise risk management and internal controls.

Micallef Christopher, Doctorate of Social Sciences, 2009. Independent Filmmaker making documentaries on Maltese Heritage. Currently producing a documentary on Halfar Airfield which was extensively used during WW2 by the British.

Quartey Roberta, Diploma in Management, 2009. Works in a unit that receives and sends electronic financial transfers via the S.W.I.F.T. platform. Works on financial statements received from the bank's foreign correspondents and also captures or verifies financial messages or transfers that go out to both local and foreign correspondents.

Riley Oliver, Law LLB, 2009. Currently working as a trainee solicitor in a commercial property. Seat at a reputable law firm in the centre of York.

Rowell Eleanor, World Humanities BA, 2009. Working through the final year of a history masters.

Shaw Victoria, Museum Studies MA (DL), 2009. National Museum of Science and Industry, Harrogate Museums, Arts Education enabler and search engine visitor services assistant. Is a world-class customer service ambassador. On the Diversity panel. Regularly designs and develops outreach resources and workshops.

2010

Abbasian Nima, Infection and Immunity MSc, 2010. Had the time of his life during his academic year at Leicester.

Abrudan Monica, Advanced Computational Methods MSc, 2010. Very happy with her course so she decided to take it further and study for a PhD in Systems Biology.

Ahluwalia Aranjeet, Law LLB, 2010. Currently undertaking the LPC at the College of Law, Birmingham.

Akiyini Editta, MBA (DL), 2010. Currently based in Nairobi, Kenya working as a Finance Manager at an HIV vaccine Research organisation and is still considering her next academic step. Met new friends when she attended the January 2011 graduation and would like to stay in touch with all the University of Leicester Alumni.

Ambrose Ernest, MBA (DL), 2010. The MBA has helped him think far deeper than ever, helping him advance in his career and share his knowledge with fellow colleagues.

Balsley Rasmussen Mikael, Security & Risk Management MSc (DL), 2010. Asis OK Board member (Chapter 228). In process of establishing a compliance program for the entire company.

Banda Priscilla, MBA (DL), 2010. Recently appointed Commissioner of Domestic Taxes at the Zambia Revenue Authority. This is the tax collecting agency for her country.

Bedford Charlotte, Geography BSc, 2010. Currently training to be a teacher with the Thames Primary Consortium in Essex and hoping to get a job back home in Leicester.

Bentley Nina, MBA (DL), 2010. Recently set up her own company which is going extremely well. Her MBA gave her the confidence to go it alone and the dividends are paying off!

Ceah Eddy, Infection, Immunity and Inflammation PhD, 2010. Currently in Malaysia actively looking for jobs.

Chen Hongpeng, Marketing MSc, 2010. Operates an investment corporation with his partners and hopes his company could become a successful investment corporation in Beijing.

Chen Yalin, Globalization & Communications MA, 2010. Employee of Edelman Public Relations Worldwide, the largest independent public relations company in the world, serving for Technology team. The work is tough but she sees what she learnt from Leicester is transforming what she is doing now.

De Graft-Johnson Bertha, MBA (DL), 2010. Has helped to strengthen the Golden Tulip Brand in Ghana through differentiation strategies.

Ekuaazi Joseph, MBA (DL), 2010. Working with SGS Laboratory Services Ghana Limited as the Credit Controller. Also pursuing an Accountancy Programme at the ICA (Ghana) School.

Fauser Johannes, Mass Communications MA (DL), 2010. For over a year has worked as a freelancer in the fields of Marketing PR and Social Media, especially for NPOs. At the moment is also in the process of founding and building up a social media company.

Ghaderi Najafabadi Maryam, Infection and Immunity MSc, 2010. Had an amazing time during her studies at Leicester. Would like to thank all her fellow graduates.

Gunaratne Nilmini, MBA (DL), 2010. Has added value to the sphere of marketing in industries such as telecom and banking over the last couple of years.

Huang Jialun, Mass Communications MA, 2010. Passed the examination of the National Editors and Reporters.

Jarre Rebecca, Applied Forensic Psychology MSc (DL), 2010. Now working for Greater Manchester Police Authority involved in police investigative interviews. Her masters degree has been put into practice.

Jiang Chensi, New Media and Society MA, 2010. Planning activities and performances in Beijing, China.

Kommana Sai, Cancer Cell and Molecular Biology MSc, 2010. Planning for a PhD in Cancer Research.

Leghari Muhammad, Human Rights LLM, 2010. His degree has increased his legal knowledge and approach. Now he is settling with a law firm to have legal experience and hopefully will be enrolled as a Solicitor of Law Society of England and Wales this year.

Lewin Marion, Managing Voluntary and Community Organisations, 2010. Setting up an information, advocacy and mediation service.

Martin Tina, Biological Sciences BSc, 2010. Doing an MSc in Zoo Conservation Biology.

Martins Graca, MBA (DL), 2010. Working at The Instituto Gulbenkian de Ciencia for the past 17 years, the past 13 in the position of Assistant to the Director. Also holds the position of Scientific Events Manager, organising many international workshops and symposia. Since her graduation, she has been given an additional role of Administrative Manager with focus on streamlining administrative services in her organisation.

Ma Yao, Mass Communications MA, 2010. Looking for a job.

Mills Andrew, Law LLB, 2010. Looking for work in the criminology-based area.

Mughal Faraz, Medicine MBChB, 2010. Currently working in West Midland's Deanery, as a Foundation Year Trainee in Psychiatry.

Munanura Alex, MBA (DL), 2010. Since he graduated has been in consultancy, training business people and new graduates.

Nicholson Joseph, Museum Studies MA (DL), 2010. Principal-in-charge of Museum Architecture and Exhibits. Trustee of Woodmere Art Museum, Philadelphia, PA. Recipient of the Mary S. Irick Drexel Medal, Drexel University, in 2001.

Norman Emma, Law LLB, 2010. Currently completing the LPC at the College of Law, Birmingham and took a gap year before her training contract starts in September 2012.

Nyaka Horace, Mass Communications MA (DL), 2010. His MA has changed his professional life. Since he graduated he has edited and reviewed books for the Ministry of Local Government and other institutions.

Patel Himesh, Economics BA, 2010. Doing a Masters at Aston University in Finance and Investments.

Paupoo Karoonan, Applied Linguistics and TESOL MA (DL), 2010.

In the teaching profession and involved in writing text books for secondary and tertiary learners of English and Linguistics.

Pavlou Melina, Ancient History and Archaeology BA, 2010.

Currently a History/Geography Teacher at a private secondary school.

Peng Jing, Management MSc, 2010.

Will work in China after graduation.

Perera Haputhantrige, MBA (DL), 2010. Currently working as Manager, Corporate Planning at Bodyline(Pvt), the largest bra manufacturer in SE Asia. His core responsibility is to oversee the total administration of the plant assisting the CEO.

Photiou Marion, Law LLB, 2010.

Doing an LLM at Birmingham University.

Shariat Adam, Management Studies BA, 2010. Investing on the stock market, working and studying for an MSc Finance at Coventry University Business School.

Sun Jin, TESOL and Applied Linguistics MA, 2010. Brilliant future started at Leicester.

Thu Aye, Advanced Software Engineering MSc, 2010. Looking for an IT job at the moment.

Turner Clayton, Financial Mathematics BSc, 2010. On a Finance graduate scheme with Santander where he hopes to be ACCA qualified (accountant) within 3 years. Passed his first exam!

Vizcaino Gerlach Marcos, MBA (DL), 2010. Starting a new job which he loves because it is very socially responsible, something that he learnt a lot about during his MBA studies.

Whitwell Matthew, Mechanical Engineering BEng, 2010.

Looking for a new job.

Xu Kewei, Mass Communications MA, 2010. Started her own business manufacturing spiral bevels gears.

Yakubu Ismail, Mass Communications MA, 2010. Assistant Director in his organisation, also the News Editor of Jigawa Newsletter, a monthly magazine that is published by the Ministry.

Yong Weng, MBA (DL), 2010. Advertising and PR consultant for below-the-line advertising.

Zahra Brian, Security and Risk Management MSc (DL), 2010. Senior Manager Enforcement Directorate at the Authority for Transport in Malta and in charge of port security and sea and land enforcement.

Zantira Constantina, Law LLB, 2010.

Will be registered as a qualified Lawyer in the Cyprus Bar Association. Registered for a Masters degree for the year 2011-12.

2011

Harrold Glenn, Human Resource Management and Development MSc, 2011.

Currently working as Learning and Development Manager within a Scottish social care charity, concentrating on learning, training, vocational qualifications, health safety and employee well-being and quality systems. Is an employer representative for Investors in People Scotland and Board Director for the Glasgow homelessness network.

Fellows Sian, Mechanical Engineering BEng, 2011.

Working for Jaguar Land Rover as an Engineer.

Jung Yun, Communications, Media and Society BSc, 2011.

Currently staying in Leicester and working at the Welfare Office part-time.

Mizingo Manjale, MBA (DL), 2011.

Currently working with Tanzania Revenue Authority in Customs Department in Charge of Motor Vehicle Section at Dar es Salaam Port.

Owusu Atakora Lilian, MBA (DL), 2011. Works with Merchant Bank (Ghana) Limited.

Srivastava Anubhav, Mass Communications MA, 2011.

Filmmaker and Director of the film titled Carve Your Destiny.

Tassler Roland, European Union Law LLM (DL), 2011.

Head of EU-Office of the Austrian Savings Bank Association in Brussels.

Wang Yan, Marketing MSc, 2011. Will continue at the Body Shop. He was an Area Manager under its consultancy system in 2008, but left to study for his Masters. He is glad to be a Leicester graduate and study there, it left him with nice memories.

Zhao Di, Globalization & Communications MA, 2011.

Senior Clerk in the Investment Banking Division of BOC International (China) Ltd.

Obituaries

We record with regret the deaths of the following Graduates, Honorary Graduates and Associates of the University.

Graduates

Barber Michael, Diploma in Training, 1997. Mr Barber died in 2011.

Bebbington Mary, History BA, 1937. Mrs Bebbington died in 2011.

Burrell Christine, History of Art BA, 2000; Victorian Studies MA, 2002. Miss Burrell died in 2012.

Buss Philip, Diploma in Education, 1951. Mr Buss died on 6 May 2011.

Chapman Richard, Social Sciences BA, 1961; Social Sciences PhD, 1966; Social Science DSc, 1989.

Professor Chapman, a former Lecturer at Beaumont Hall, died on 15 April 2011. Professor Chapman was the first recipient of a Social Science DSc in 1989. It was one of only such awards in the history of the University. He retired from Durham University in 1996.

Childress Robert, Zoology PhD, 1998. Mr Childress died on 22 July 2011.

East David, Diploma in Child Protection Studies, 1996. Mr East died in 2011.

Fox Roger, PG Certificate in Supervision and Mentorship, 2001. Mr Fox died on 22 July 2011.

Geary David, Social Studies Diploma, 1954. Mr Geary died in 2011.

Goddard Gary, Chemistry BSc, 1986. Mr Goddard died in 2011.

Hallett Paul, Biological Sciences BSc, 1984. Mr Hallett died in September 2011.

Hawkes Colin, Diploma in Social Work, 1972. Dr Hawkes died in 2011.

Hoerkens Jean, German BA, 1965. Mrs Hoerkens died in 2011.

Hodge Elizabeth, Social Science BA, 1965. Miss Hodge died in 2011.

Hale John, General Science BSc, 1950; Diploma in Education, 1952. Mr Hale died in 2011.

Muma Derrick, Mass Communications MA, 2010. Mr Muma died on 15 January 2012. He began his PhD in 2011, and was described by his supervisor as "already making good progress and showing great promise as a postgraduate researcher". Mr Muma has also been described as "an extremely determined and hardworking young man". He will be missed by his large network of friends in Leicester.

Perrett Lorraine, Education BEd, 1981. Miss Perrett died in 2011.

Pike Malcolm, Law LLB, 1981. Mr Pike died on 3 June 2010. He was very proud to have graduated from the University of Leicester. Mr Pike was unfortunately one of the Cumbria shooting victims in 2010.

Pointon Barbara, MBA, 2003. Mrs Pointon died in 2011.

Rickard Frederick, History BA, 1948. Mr Rickard died in 2010.

Rider Alison, Musicianship BA, 1985. Mrs Rider died in 2011.

Sinton Christine, Combined Studies BA, 1976. Mrs Sinton died in 2009.

Smith Jayne, Biological Sciences BSc, 1976. Dr Smith died on 14 July 2010 after battling with a long illness.

Smith John, Chemistry with Geochemistry BSc, 1980. Mr Smith died on 3 December 2009.

Sweet Arthur, General Arts BA, 1952. Mr Sweet died in 2009.

Honorary Graduates

Wood Kenneth, Honorary Doctor of Science, 1980. Mr Wood died in August 2011. Mr Wood worked for 30 years as a general surgeon at Leicester Royal Infirmary, retiring in 1990. He helped raise money to build the hospital's Post Graduate Medical Centre and played a leading role in establishing the University of Leicester's Medical School. Mr Wood, who was a member of Court and a former member of the Alumni Association, received an Honorary Doctor of Science from the University of Leicester in 1980.

Associates

Gordon Phil. Mr Gordon died on 11 May 2010. Mr Gordon represented the Green Party on Leicester City Council.

Information about the death of a graduate should be forwarded to the Development and Alumni Relations Office. We hope that readers will understand that it is impossible to provide full obituaries. Emphasis is therefore given to the University's graduates and to those members of staff who will have been well known to members. Additional biographical details are often available on request from the Development and Alumni Relations Office.

Tel: 0116 223 1071
or Email: alumni.relations@le.ac.uk

University of Leicester

© University of Leicester 2013

Development and Alumni Relations Office
University of Leicester
University Road
Leicester LE1 7RH
UK

www.le.ac.uk