

RESEARCH

1921 University of Leicester (college) established

1924

Physics Dept opened

1980s

Renewable energy research in Engineering and Geology departments

1990s

Centre for Mass Communication starts to address role of media and communication in environmental issues

2000s

Earth Observation Group grew into a multi-disciplinary team with an international reputation and a focus on climate change as observed from space

OPERATIONS

Environmental Sustainability Strategy published. Education for Sustainable Development Group

1960

Space Research

group launches

2010

Carbon Management Plan and Travel Plan published

Environment Team first formed at the University of Leicester

TIME FOR CHANGE

2012

Centre for Landscape & Climate Research established to connect researchers, academics and staff

Our Future

Climate Strategy:

We have divested from fossil fuels We will be net zero carbon

2013

2010

The new world of the

Anthropocene established

First Biodiversity policy published

2017

One of the first Universities to sign the SDG Accord

2019

Reached 25% carbon reduction target

2005 Baseline carbon footprint established

2009

Law School researchers

social policy expertise

to explore the effects

combine legal and

for consumers by

provision of energy

regulation and services

CLIMATE CHANGE

