English class: these are similar in contents and format to the regular EBCP classes and would contain no more than 16 students.

Cultural event: we would give the student an online introduction to aspects of British culture. For instance, they may involve a virtual visit to a local museum.

Social event: these are fun online activities with University of Leicester students, giving the EBCP students the chance to meet people of their own age.

English Club: these are informal discussion groups of around five students hosted by our friendly support staff.

Independent study: students will be given weekly tasks and activities which they will complete by themselves following instructions from teachers.
