10. Progression points:

French Studies Major (Beginners and Advanced):

In accordance with Senate Regulation 5, in cases where a student has failed to meet a requirement to progress he or she will be required to withdraw from the course. Final Year core language programmes must be passed at Honours level in order to graduate.

All core language modules must be passed in order to progress to the following year of the programme and must be passed at Honours level (40%+).

French Language Minor (Beginners and Advanced):

All core language modules must be passed in order to progress to the following year of the programme.

11. Scheme of Assessment

This programme follows the standard scheme of award and classification set out in Senate Regulation 5.

12. Special features

Major in French Studies:

Consolidation of linguistic skills and opportunity for cultural enrichment at an early stage of the course through three-week summer programme in target country at end of Year 1, involving tuition from native speakers at a University and linguistic immersion through accommodation with local families.

Work placement or a period of study during the Year Abroad: Consolidation of linguistic skills, enhancement of cultural understanding and knowledge and the opportunity for the development of study skills.

13. Indications of programme quality

External examiners' reports consistently emphasize the quality of the student learning experience and the high standard of teaching and of assessment. They also favourably comment on the careful design of our modules' intended learning outcomes and their meeting the requirements of the QAA benchmark statements in all its key elements.

Modern Languages at Leicester achieves regularly very high scores in the National Student Survey. In the 2017 NSS Modern Languages achieved an overall satisfaction score of 97.4% (JACS subject area of 'European Languages and Area Studies'). Students' comments praise in particular the vibrant and supportive student-staff community within Modern Languages.

Modern Languages at Leicester was ranked 8th nationally in the Guardian university league table 2017.

95% of the School's research is recognised internationally.

14. External Examiners

The details of the External Examiners for these programmes and the most recent External Examiners' reports for these programmes can be found here.

Appendix 1: Programme structure (programme regulations)

There are two main routes through the core language modules in this programme: One for students with well-developed abilities in a language other than English and their native language, and one for students without such abilities. The former group of students take the programme with advanced language skills; the latter group of students take the programme ab initio. For example, an advanced French student will take FR1010 Advanced French Language in year 1, followed by FR2010 Post-Advanced French Language in year 2. A beginners level student will take FR1020 French Beginners and FR1021 French Beginners in year 1 followed by FR2018 French Post-Beginners in year 2. Major students will be taught together in final year language groups. Post-beginner Minor students, who have not gone on a year abroad, will be taught in 'upper intermediate' final year language groups. Please see the diagrams below.

Note: Modern Languages Cultural Studies modules are listed at the end of each year and may be subject to change from year to year.
