5. Typical entry requirements

A relevant second-class honours degree or its equivalent from a non-UK university (GPA 3.0 or above) for the three programmes. Degrees in English language, other languages, linguistics or education are preferred. Some prior engagement with language teaching is expected, e.g. through employment, internship, volunteer teaching or relevant previous training (applicants are normally at or near the beginning of a career as an English language teacher). Candidates who are not native speakers of English need to have a proficiency level equivalent to GCSE O level Grade C; IELTS 6.5 with a minimum of 6.0 in each sub-skill; TOEFL 575 (paper) plus TWE 4.0, 90 (IBT); Cambridge Proficiency Grade C or above.

6. Accreditation of Prior Learning

Requests for exemptions, on the basis of prior learning, may be made for a maximum of 30 credits. Holders of the Cambridge DELTA (Diploma in Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages) or equivalent are exempted from 30 credits, which corresponds to one of our core 30-credit modules: EDXXXX Teaching and Learning a Second Language.
Detailed evidence of the prior learning with copies of programme outlines and transcripts should be submitted with the request.

Students who graduate with a PGCert (60 credits) or PGDip (120 credits) or who have a number of credits on this programme, may return within five years to this programme under resumption of studies regulations to register for a higher award (i.e. PGDip or MA/MSc). Such students would rescind their existing award, and their maximum period of registration will be the time remaining for their intended award (i.e. maximum period minus time already taken).

7. Programme aims

Participants will develop their professional skills and competencies by observing and reflecting on language learning and gain practical teaching experience with beginner learners of English. Participants will also explore and understand how English works and is used and expand their knowledge of contemporary ELT pedagogy. The programme includes the opportunity to gain an additional, internationally recognised teaching qualification, with the Cambridge Teaching Knowledge Test (TKT) and Cambridge Certificate in English Language Teaching to Adults (CELTA).

The general teaching aims of the MA TESOL programme are to:

1. Provide participants with the opportunity to study key sub-disciplines that apply to TESOL: grammar awareness, phonology, and second language learning and teaching.
2. Provide an opportunity for participants to personalize and enrich their study programme through a choice of relevant options.
3. Provide opportunities for intending teachers to study the practice of contemporary English teaching.
4. Provide opportunities for intending teachers to gain practical teaching experience.
5. Provide participants with the theoretical foundations upon which sound pedagogic practice is based.

On successful completion students in MA in TESOL should be able to:

1. Display knowledge and critical understanding of principles, and practices and debates in TESOL, drawing on contemporary theory and research.
2. Demonstrate knowledge of key concepts in linguistics and the ability to apply this to the description and analysis of language form, function and use.
3. Apply knowledge, skills and critical understanding to the evaluation and implementation of pedagogic practice in different educational settings.
4. Plan and conduct practitioner research in TESOL or a related field, applying relevant research methods.
5. Construct arguments and communicate effectively within relevant international academic and professional communities of practice.
