

RESEARCH SEMINARS Spring Term 2018-19

The University of Leicester's Medieval Research Centre is pleased to announce this Autumn Term's schedule of Tuesday Research Seminars. These Research Seminars are fora for discussing new research, research ideas and current debates in the field of medieval studies, whether historical, art historical, architectural, archaeological, literary or numismatic, from AD 500-1550. This new block of fortnightly talks has the theme of 'Medieval travel and travellers':

29 January – Elite and royal households and travel in medieval England

Prof Chris Woolgar (School of History, University of Southampton)

12 February – Were medieval roads better than ours?

Prof Chris Dyer (Centre for English Local History, University of Leicester)

26 February – The Gough Map: getting about in medieval Britain

Dr Nick Millea (Map Librarian, Bodleian Library, University of Oxford)

The Luttrell Psalter (Brit. Lib. Add. 42130), c. 1325-1340: a travelling coach (covered wagon) for royal ladies (fol. 181v) - http://www.bl.uk/manuscripts/Viewer.aspx?ref=add_ms_42130_f181v

Time: 5.00-6.30 pm. Venue: Charles Wilson 4th Floor, SR 408 Woodhouse

All Welcome!
