10. Special features

This programme will give students the option of choosing to take either a 15,000 word or 25,000 word dissertation, depending on other modules chosen. The programme will therefore provide a solid foundation for further postgraduate study and will also appeal to those intending to pursue careers in other areas.

11. Indicators of programme quality

The MA in English Studies offers students the opportunity to work across the wide range of specialisms in English literature covered by staff within the School of Arts. Staff based in English can offer expert teaching and supervision in all periods of English literature from the late medieval to the present. This MA programme is designed to provide a strong grounding in research methods that can be applied to all periods of English literature.

External Examiners have confirmed that the assessment strategy, standard of achievement, design and delivery of the curriculum are effective and of similar standard to other comparable programmes in the sector

12. Criteria for award and classification

This programme follows the standard scheme of taught postgraduate award and classification set out in Senate Regulations – see the version of Senate Regulation 6 governing taught postgraduate programmes of study relevant to year of entry.

13. Progression points

As defined in Senate Regulations - refer to the version of Senate Regulation 6 governing taught postgraduate programmes of study relevant to year of entry.

A Board of Examiners meeting will convene at the conclusion of the taught part of the course, to assess whether students can proceed to the dissertation stage in line with the requirements set out in regulations governing taught postgraduate programmes. In accordance with Senate Regulation 6, cases where a student has failed to meet a requirement to progress he or she will be required to withdraw from the course and a recommendation will be made to the Board of Examiners for an intermediate award where appropriate.

14. Rules relating to re-sits or re-submissions

As defined in Senate Regulations - refer to the version of Senate Regulation 6 governing taught postgraduate programmes of study relevant to year of entry.

15. External Examiners reports

The details of the External Examiner(s) for this programme and the most recent External Examiners' reports for this programme can be found at exampapers@Leicester [log-in required]
