10. Special features

This Programme is designed to give students a specialised knowledge of law, with options to choose one of five specialist streams from International Commercial Law, International Human Rights Law, Public International Law, International Business & Corporate Law and International Law. The Programme allows students the freedom and the flexibility to create their own programme choosing from a wide range of modules available.

11. Indicators of programme quality

- External examiners' reports
- Degree results
- Annual Development Review reports
- Periodic Development Review reports
- Peer review of teaching and peer review of marking exercises
- Student Feedback
- Publication of dissertations

12. Criteria for award and classification

This programme follows the standard scheme of taught postgraduate award and classification set out in Senate Regulations – see the version of Senate Regulation 6 governing taught postgraduate programmes of study relevant to year of entry.

13. Progression points

As defined in Senate Regulations - refer to the version of Senate Regulation 6 governing taught postgraduate programmes of study relevant to year of entry.

Full time students are required to successfully complete 120 credits of taught modules divided equally over two semesters, in order to progress to the Dissertation stage. Part time students complete the same amount of credits over four semesters.

To qualify for an LLM the students then have to complete a 60 credit dissertation over the summer vacation period.

In order to meet the requirements of the LLM students must undertake a dissertation.

In cases where a student has failed to meet a requirement to progress he or she will be required to withdraw from the programme and a recommendation will be made to the Board of Examiners for an intermediate/exit award where appropriate.

14. Rules relating to re-sits or re-submissions

As defined in Senate Regulations - refer to the version of Senate Regulation 6 governing taught postgraduate programmes of study relevant to year of entry.

15. External Examiners reports

The details of the External Examiner(s) for this programme and the most recent External Examiners' reports for this programme can be found at exampapers@Leicester [log-in required]

16. Additional features (e.g. timetable for admissions)

The Programme begins in October of each year. Admissions for that year are closed on 31 August prior to the start date. Students registered on the Programme will be required to attend an induction week at the beginning of term and follow a core study skills module (LW7004) as part of that induction.

- (i) Candidates, who accumulate 60 credits from the taught modules (that is excluding the dissertation) and satisfactorily complete the assessment requirements for each of the taught modules, will be awarded a Postgraduate Certificate.
- (ii) Candidates, who accumulate 120 credits from the taught modules (that is excluding the dissertation) and satisfactorily complete the assessment requirements for each of the taught modules, will be awarded a Postgraduate Diploma.
- (iii) Candidates, who accumulate 180 credits, and satisfactorily complete the assessment requirements for each of the taught modules and submit a satisfactory dissertation, will be awarded the degree of Master of Laws.
