12. Special features

Research-inspired Education

Students on this programme will advance through the four quadrants of the University of Leicester Research-inspired Education Framework as follows:

RiE Quadrant	Narrative
	The Marketing programme provides a thorough grounding of the knowledge and skills required by marketing professionals. It provides students with the ability to think critically, problem solve and appraise potential solutions to real-world issues. It draws on global and international expectations ensuring that the knowledge and skills acquired by graduates align with the expectations of the profession.
Research- briefed  Bringing staff research content into the curriculum.	Research briefed – From the beginning of the course students will be exposed to both research processes and outputs from members of the university's research groups related to Marketing, Consumers, Innovation and Strategy as well as external researchers and members of the marketing professional community.
Research- based Framed enquiry for exploring existing knowledge.	Research based – Students will have an experience of working individually or in small groups to analyse the given organisation by employing strategic marketing tools and frameworks. Based on the analysis and critical evaluation, students will also provide strategic marketing insights and proposed recommendations.

Researchoriented

Students critique published research content and process.

Research oriented – students are required to critically evaluate academic literature, data including business and consultation reports from the professional bodies.

Researchapprenticed

Experiencing the research process and methods; building new knowledge.

Research apprenticed – training and practice will be provided for all students on writing for a variety of audiences, collaborative working, oral presentation skills and academic literacy.

Students will be required to present findings from research and problem-based activities in a variety of formats for a variety of academic and business focused audiences.

As part of studying at a research-intensive university, students on this programme have the following extra or co-curricular opportunities available to them to gain exposure to research culture:

Research seminars and workshops are timetabled on a weekly basis across the College of Business and are accessible to all students within the College. These sessions focus not only on potential research outputs and working papers from academic staff within the College but also on the processes underpinning research and dissemination of work.

Most of modules within the programme, contents are largely drawn from publications and books associated with the research undertaken by academics associated with the University of Leicester.

Teaching on this programme will be research-informed (it draws consciously on systematic inquiry into the teaching and learning process itself) in the following way:

The School supports all staff involved in teaching to gain an accredited Higher Education teaching qualification, in which they demonstrate their use of teaching theory to support their own practice and reflect on their current teaching and continuing professional development.

All module leaders and teaching team are not only members of their subject specific research group but also the College's Academy of Education. The College Academy of Education runs regular sessions including external speakers and workshops for recognition of external awards for teaching excellence. The Academy also facilitates a journal paper book group which provides an informal environment to discuss contemporary pedagogic issues related to Business education.

The academy underpins a teaching and learning research culture which provides staff with a clear platform to share and evaluate current and potential practice-based activities within the pedagogic sphere.

13. Indications of programme quality

The quality of all ULSB programmes is the responsibility of the School's Education Committee. The school use a variety of indicators to maintain oversight of programme quality including:

- External Examiner Reports
- Internally Administered Student Satisfaction Feedback
- Student Attainment Data
- Peer Enhancement of Learning and Teaching Process and Reporting
- Panel of Examiners

All programmes are reviewed formally through the University administered processes of:

- Periodic Development Review
- Annual Programme Review
- Curriculum Planning

14. External Examiner(s) reports

The details of the External Examiner(s) for this programme and the most recent External Examiners' reports for this programme can be found at exampapers@Leicester [log-in required].

15. Rules relating to re-sits or re-submissions
