10. Progression points

This programme follows the standard Scheme of Progression set out in Senate Regulations – see the version of Senate Regulation 5 governing undergraduate programmes relevant to the year of entry.

In cases where a student has failed to meet a requirement to progress he or she will be required to withdraw from the course and a recommendation will be made to the Board of Examiners for an intermediate award where appropriate.

a) Course transfers

Students wishing to transfer to year 2 of the BSc pathway would need to have studied and passed introductory criminology modules at year 1.

11. Criteria for award and classification

This programme follows the standard scheme of undergraduate award and classification set out in Senate Regulations – see the version of Senate Regulation 5 governing undergraduate programmes relevant to the year of entry.

12. Special features

The programme is completely delivered by the School of Criminology and its academic members of staff with the curriculum being underpinned by research from within the School.

The course includes a core year 1 module, Criminal Justice in Action, which is tailored to students' employability needs. The School also offers a number of additional courses in employability and careers development, including career planning, volunteering, interview techniques, CV writing, preparing applications and how students can market themselves. The course also offers students the opportunity to meet practitioners in their field.

The course has a clear focus on Research Methods, with 60 credits in the second year dedicated to Understanding and Doing Criminological Research and 60 credits in the third year - dedicated to planning and undertaking a research project on a criminological topic of the students choosing

12a. Research-inspired Education

Students on this programme will advance through the four quadrants of the University of Leicester Research-inspired Education Framework as follows:

RiE Quadrant	Narrative
Research-briefed  Bringing staff research content into the curriculum.	Our programme provides students with a thorough understanding of society through a variety of different lenses. As part of studying at a research-intensive university, students on this programme have the following extra or co-curricular opportunities available to them to gain exposure to research culture:

Our well-renowned Scarman and Neustadt lectures take place each year and students at every level across our School are invited to attend. The topics of these important lectures change each time in order to ensure that our students are exposed to a range of cutting-edge contemporary issues, presented by leading figures in their fields.

Our School also holds a monthly research seminar series, whereby staff showcase their latest collaborative research projects to staff and students alike. This provides another opportunity for our students to hear about our interdisciplinary research outside of the traditional classroom.

Teaching on this programme will be research-informed (it draws consciously on systematic inquiry into the teaching and learning process itself) in the following way:

The School supports all staff involved in teaching to gain an accredited Higher Education teaching qualification, in which they demonstrate their use of teaching theory to support their own practice and reflect on their current teaching and continuing professional development.

All programme module convenors attend an annual education away day, which supports teaching activities across the School. Our monthly 'Learning over Lunch' programme provides more frequent opportunities for staff to share ideas regarding engaging teaching approaches. This programme of events supports staff to deliver educational best practice through the sharing of ideas from teaching conferences, talks from external educational speakers, and a platform for staff to share evaluations of their own teaching practice.

13. Indications of programme quality

- Periodic Developmental Review Reports
- External examiners' reports
- First Destinations Data
- Student feedback (NSS)
- Annual Developmental Review

The programme is centered on research inspired education with School of Criminology research outputs feeding directly into the programme's range of core and option modules. The Research Excellence Framework (REF) 2021 results show that vast majority of research within the School of Criminology was judged to be of global significance. 77% of our research activity was rated as 'world-leading' or 'internationally excellent'.

We deliver undergraduate teaching to the highest standards with National Student Survey (NSS) feedback indicating excellent student satisfaction.

BSc Criminology with Year Abroad addition: full and clear feedback to study abroad co-ordinator is provided before, during and after study abroad sessions.

14. External Examiner(s) reports

The details of the External Examiner(s) for this programme and the most recent External Examiners' reports for this programme can be found at exampapers@Leicester [log-in required]
