7. Programme aims

The programme aims to:

- Develop a critical understanding of modern human resource management analysis, ideas and practices and their relevance to a variety of institutional and organisational contexts; to develop quantitative, communications and information technology skills, and the ability to apply these in organisational contexts
- Increase a graduate's marketability by: encouraging intellectual development, critical ability, research skills, communication skills and confidence in problem recognition, formulation and solution; and by promoting awareness of the general business and financial environment and current human resource management issues
- Prepare students for career and training opportunities in human resource management in both the private and public sectors and voluntary organisations; and to prepare those interested in postgraduate study for the transition to an increasingly independent regime of study and research.

For the aims, learning outcomes and application criteria for the GCSA Year Abroad please see link in section 5.
