7. Programme aims:

The programme aims:

- to enable students to explore their interest in English and French/Italian/Spanish literature and language, including the study of literary history and genre, as well as the culture and societies of French/Italian/Spanish and French/Italian/Spanish-speaking countries;
- to enable students to develop and demonstrate a range of skills necessary for the study of English and French/Italian/Spanish at undergraduate and postgraduate level;
- to provide an intellectually challenging and stimulating curriculum drawing on the research expertise and teaching strengths in English and Modern Languages;
- to develop students' ability to access and transform information, to communicate clearly and effectively in both English and French/Italian/Spanish, and to present their findings in a professional manner;
- to develop students' skills in close reading and literary analysis;
- to foster students' initiative, independent thinking and judgement, including research skills;
- to deliver learning opportunities through lectures, seminars, workshops and individual supervision;
- to enable students to demonstrate an ability in the skills of examinations, essays, portfolios, oral presentations, and group projects;
- to equip students with subject-specific and transferable skills in preparation for employment in a wide area including teaching, academic research, marketing, journalism, law, trainee management, publishing, translating, administration, media and the arts, travel and tourism, leisure industry, hotel and catering, social work;
- to equip all students with a high degree of proficiency in the use of French/Italian/Spanish Language as a medium for expression and communication, both written and spoken, through a programme of progressive tuition based on authentic documentation (press, film, literature and broadcast media), academic texts and exposure to native speakers;
- to provide students with a comprehensive knowledge and understanding of the cultures, communities and societies where French/Italian/Spanish is used, through approaches which draw upon key ideas, concepts and methodologies shared with other disciplines, including literary, cultural and film studies, historical, social and political;
- to promote intercultural awareness and understanding through the lived experience of time spent abroad and through the development of analytical skills of comparing, contrasting and mediating between cultures and societies

10. Progression points:

This degree programme follows the University's standard progression rules set out in Senate Regulation 5. However, all core language modules must be passed in order to progress to the following year of the programme and must be passed at Honours level (40%+). Final Year core language programmes must be passed at Honours level in order to graduate.

11. Scheme of Assessment

This programme follows the standard scheme of award and classification set out in Senate Regulation 5

12. Special features

Consolidation of linguistic skills and opportunity for cultural enrichment at an early stage of the course through three-week summer programme at end of Year 1, involving tuition from native speakers at a University and linguistic immersion through local accommodation.

Opportunity for total immersion in the target language and culture by the provision of one full academic session spent in France/Italy/Spain or a French/Italian/Spanish-speaking country during the third year (depending on programme of study).

Opportunity for the development of study skills in target country universities following a guided programme of learning for the period spent abroad.

13. Indications of programme quality

Modern Languages

External examiners' reports consistently emphasize the quality of the student learning experience and the high standard of teaching and of assessment. They also favourably comment on the careful design of our modules' intended learning outcomes and their meeting the requirements of the QAA benchmark statements in all its key elements.

Modern Languages at Leicester achieves regularly very high scores in the National Student Survey. In the 2017 NSS Modern Languages achieved an overall satisfaction score of 97.4% (JACS subject area of 'European Languages and Area Studies'). Students' comments praise in particular the vibrant and supportive student-staff community within Modern Languages.

Modern Languages at Leicester was ranked 8th nationally in the Guardian university league table 2017.

95% of the School's research is recognised internationally.

English

We are currently 28th in The Complete University Guide. We have consistently excellent results in the National Student Survey with ratings of 90% or over since the survey began in 2005, and 91% in 2016. Positive reports of the quality and efficiency of examinations and assessment procedures from External Examiners note, for example, that the School 'has an impressive range of forms of assessment across all three years', 'has good students who are being taught well across the board', and is 'delivering impressive feedback' and marking. In the 2012 Periodic Developmental Review (previously last conducted in 2004), the panel's report on the School was extremely positive: 'Throughout discussions with both staff and students the Panel noted a very collegial and student-centred approach to all the School's activities. The Panel particularly noted a culture of embedding the assurance of quality and standards into all areas of the School. The enhancement of the student experience was also actively encouraged and fostered. The Panel was impressed with the knowledge of the Chairs of the School's committees and their engagement with managing and enhancing the learning opportunities of students across the provision. The Panel also praised the leadership of the [then] Head of School who actively and knowledgeably oversaw the School's activity. The Panel had confidence in the management of quality assurance and quality enhancement processes in place within the School to assure the quality of the learning opportunities available to students and to comply with both the QAA Codes of Practice and the University Codes of Practice.

The details of the External Examiner(s) for this programme and the most recent External Examiners' reports for this programme can be found here.

Appendix 1: Programme structure (programme regulations)

There are two main routes through the core language modules on this programme: One for students with well-developed abilities in a language other than English and their native language, and one for students without such abilities. The former group of students take the programme with advanced language skills; the latter group of students take the programme ab initio. For example, an advanced French student will take FR1010 Advanced French Language in year 1, followed by FR2010 Post-Advanced French Language in year 2. A beginners level student will take FR1020 French Beginners and FR1021 French Beginners in year 1 followed by FR2018 French Post-Beginners in year 2. These students will be taught together in final year language groups. The same pattern applies to other languages. Please see the diagrams below.

Notes:

- 1) Optional modules are listed at the end of each year; they may be subject to change from year to year and will not run if under-recruiting.
- 2) Students whose native language is either French, Italian or Spanish, and who wish to study this language as part of their degree programme at Leicester, will normally be required to substitute 30 credits of ELTU modules from the range EL2001-EL2024 for the core language modules (FR1010 or IT1010 or SP1010). Students with native speaker fluency in both English, and the language they wish to study as part of their degree programme at Leicester, will be required to substitute 30 credits of cultural modules taken from the range on offer in the relevant language or ML modules for the relevant core language modules.

FIRST YEAR

Students are required to attend a compulsory three-week summer school (ML2007: Modern Language Summer School, 0 credits), organised by the School of Modern Languages and in one of the languages they are studying, during the long vacation at the end of the first year. Students studying at beginner's level must go to the summer school in that language.
