10. Progression points

This programme follows the standard Scheme of Progression set out in Senate Regulations – see the version of Senate Regulation 5 governing undergraduate programmes relevant to the year of entry.

Students are required to complete 120 credits of taught modules delivered over two semesters each academic year (a total of 60 credits must be studied in each semester). Legal foundation modules must be passed at 40%.

Application to Transfer to LLB Law with Politics (with a Year Abroad)

Students are invited to apply at the end of their first year to transfer to the LLB Law with Politics (with a Year Abroad). The application process is handled by the University's Study Abroad Unit and the process, including eligibility and criteria, is set out by the Study Abroad Unit.

Progression from 2nd year to year abroad

Students are required to meet the progression criteria as set out by the Study Abroad Unit in order to progress to the year abroad element of this programme.

During the year abroad, students are required to attempt to complete the equivalent of 60 ECTS if studying at a European partner institution or an equivalent number of credits at one of the International partner institutions as agreed between the Law School and the partner Law School.

Progression from year abroad to final year

In addition to the requirements set out in the standard Scheme of Progression in the Senate Regulations

In addition, for a student to progress to the final year of the LLB Law with Politics (with a Year Abroad) programme the following will apply:

i)   European Exchange: Students are required to attempt approved credits of 60 ECTS as agreed by the Law School. In order to pass the year students must achieve a credit weighted average of 50% for the year, including any resit options as per the partner institution's rules by the August Board of Examiners. If a student fails to achieve a credit weighted average of 50%, the Board will consider whether the student should have to transfer to the LLB Law with Politics for his/her final year taking into account overall attendance and observation of academic obligations.

ii)   International Exchange: Students are required to attempt an academic load equivalent to 120 Leicester credits as agreed by the Law School. In order to pass the year students must achieve a credit weighted average of 50% for the year, including any resit options as per the partner institution's rules by the August Board of Examiners. If a student fails to achieve a credit weighted average of 50%, the Board will consider whether the student should have to transfer to the LLB Law with Politics for his/her final year taking into account overall attendance and observation of academic obligations.

The year abroad does not contribute towards the overall classification, and will therefore be assessed on a pass or fail basis.

In cases where a student has failed to meet a requirement to progress, he or she will be required to withdraw from the programme.

a) Course transfers

Students who have passed first or second year assessments of the LLB Law with Politics may, on giving notice in writing to the School not later than the beginning of the first semester of the next academic year, transfer to the second or final year of the LLB in Law, as the case may be.

Students transferring to the final year of the LLB in Law shall be credited with the 30 credits obtained in Politics modules in the second year and these credits will be attributed to the Part 1 Final Examination.

Students may apply to transfer to the LLB Law with Politics (with a Year Abroad) at the end of Year 1.

11. Criteria for award and classification

This programme follows the standard scheme of undergraduate award and classification set out in Senate Regulations – see the version of Senate Regulation 5 governing undergraduate programmes relevant to the year of entry. Note: legal foundation modules must be passed at 40%.

12. Special features

Students may apply to transfer to the LLB Law with Politics (with a Year Abroad) after successful completion of the first year and subsequent successful completion of the second year.

The LLB Law with Politics (with a Year Abroad) provides for students spending their third year at one of our partner institutions and then returning to Leicester for their final year. For the full list of partner institutions available visit: Study Abroad Unit

Please note that availability at the partner institutions varies each year and places cannot be guaranteed at the destinations listed.

Students for the LLB with a Year Abroad degree must apply originally though UCAS for the LLB degree. Applications to transfer on to the LLB with a Year Abroad degree are made at the end of the first year. Details on how to apply: Study Abroad Unit
