10. Progression points

This programme follows the standard scheme of award and classification set out in Senate Regulation 5, with one exception. The Quality and Standards Sub Committee has approved a dispensation from SR 5.32 for the purposes of this programme. Under this dispensation student are required to achieve 40% in modules to the value of 195 credits or greater.

Students are required to complete 120 credits of taught modules delivered over two semesters each academic year (a total of 60 credits must be studied in each semester). Legal foundation modules must be passed at 40%.

a) Course transfers

1. Students who have passed the first year examinations for the degree of Bachelor of Laws JD Pathway may apply to transfer into the second year of the course for the degree of Bachelor of Laws in Law at the University of Leicester.

2. Students who have passed the final year examinations (undertaken in the second year of the programme) for the degree of Bachelor of Laws JD Pathway may apply to transfer to the final year of the course for the degree of Bachelor of Laws in Law at the University of Leicester. Students are not permitted to choose options already studied in year 2.

3. Students permitted under paragraph 1 or paragraph 2 to transfer from the Bachelor of Laws JD Pathway degree to the degree of Bachelor of Laws will be subject to the scheme of assessment for that degree.

In cases where a student has failed to meet a requirement to progress, he or she will be required to withdraw from the course.

11. Criteria for award and classification

This programme follows the standard scheme of undergraduate award and classification set out in Senate Regulations – see the version of Senate Regulation 5 governing undergraduate programmes relevant to the year of entry. Note: legal foundation modules must be passed at 40%.

12. Special features

The JD Pathway LLB provides an opportunity for graduates of another discipline (i.e. not law) to achieve a degree in law over two years, which constitutes a qualifying law degree for the purpose of exemption from the first stage of professional training in England and Wales. Such a qualification is also exportable. These students will be more mature and have a broader range of skills and knowledge from their previous educational experience, adding to the quality and diversity of the overall student body. The target market includes international graduates (notably from Canada) wishing to undertake an LLB rather than the one year conversion course. This is a most effective method of conversion of non-law graduates to the equivalent of law graduate status. The programme is condensed to comprise the seven legal foundation subjects plus 2 modules on Canadian Law.

13. Indications of programme quality

- Performance in the National Student Survey
- External examiners' reports
- Degree results and career destination statistics
- Annual Development Review reports
- Periodic Development Review reports
- Peer review of teaching and peer review of marking exercises
- Student-Staff Committee feedback
- Module Feedback
