10. Progression points

This programme follows the standard Scheme of Progression set out in Senate Regulations – see the version of Senate Regulation 5 governing undergraduate programmes relevant to the year of entry.

Students are required to complete 120 credits of taught modules delivered over two semesters each academic year (a total of 60 credits must be studied in each semester). Legal foundation modules must be passed at 40%.

Application to Transfer from single subject LLB to LLB with a Year Abroad

Students may apply to transfer to the LLB with a Year Abroad after successful completion of the first year and subsequent successful completion of the second year.

- The application process is handled by the University's Study Abroad Unit. For the aims, learning outcomes and application criteria for the GSCA Year Abroad please see the information herehttps://le.ac.uk/study/undergraduates/courses/abroad

Course transfers

Students may apply to transfer to the LLB with a Year Abroad during year 2.

Students on the LLB Law (Canadian Law Stream) may apply to transfer to either the LLB Law or Canadian Law Year Abroad variant at the end of Year 1.

Students on the LLB Law programme are not permitted to transfer to the LLB Law (Canadian Law Stream) after the course transfer window has closed at the beginning of Year 1. No transfers are permitted after this time.

Students on the LLB Law and LLB Law (Canadian Law Stream) may apply to transfer to the LLB Maitrise up until the end of Semester 1 in Year 1. Interview selection required during Semester 2 of Year 1. All transfer applications are subject to the course entry requirements being met and there being places available at the partner institution, Universite de Strasbourg.

Course transfers onto any other LLB Law degrees (to include graduate entry variants and joint variant programmes) are not permitted, unless the course transfer application is received at the beginning of Year 1 and before the University's course transfer window has closed, usually within the first 2 weeks of the start of Semester 1. All transfer applications are subject to the course entry requirements being met.

11. Criteria for award and classification

This programme follows the standard scheme of undergraduate award and classification set out in Senate Regulations – see the version of Senate Regulation 5 governing undergraduate programmes relevant to the year of entry. Note: legal foundation modules must be passed at 40%.

12. Special features

The LLB with a Year Abroad provides for students spending their third year at one of our partner institutions and then returning to Leicester for their final year. More information is available via Study Abroad Unit

Please note that availability at the partner institutions varies each year and places cannot be guaranteed at the destinations listed.

Students for the LLB with a Year Abroad degree must apply originally though UCAS for the LLB degree. Applications to transfer on to the LLB with a Year Abroad degree are made during year 2.

It is the student's responsibility to apply for a year abroad, and to comply in full with the preparation process.
