

Podcast: Producing Resources for Schools (20.42 minutes)

- 00.0 Communicating what archaeology is about. How the schools programme is delivered, lessons learnt, general information about the programme.
- 04.15 Use of mobile phones to teach chronology of objects, general dating of objects.
- 05.50 Other activities on and off campus, community outreach, trainees.
- 08.55 Burrough Hill Fort project and community involvement with the project. Resources created. Students working with schools in Melton and Somerby to create resources.
- 12.25 Description of group sessions and activities to demonstrate techniques and collaboration in the Richard III project.
- 16.02 Thoughts on engaging with minority communities, archaeology having no national boundaries, Britain having people from across the world for many years. Issues around lack of non-white people in archaeology.
- 20.42 End.