

English Local History PhDs in Progress 2019

Medieval (4)

- Chris Mitchell, Roger of Hereford's 'Liber de arte astronomice iudicandi': England's First Astrology Textbook?
- Matthew Tuohy, The Landscape History of Willey Hundred, Bedfordshire.
- Alister Sutherland, Peasant Seals and Sealing Practices in Eastern England, c.1200-c.1500. AHRC-funded
- Harry Wilkinson, The Night in Anglo-Saxon England. AHRC-funded

Early Modern (6)

- Trixie Gadd, Survival Strategies of the Clergy of Dorset in the Seventeenth Century.
- Elias Kupfermann, The Role of the Castle and Town of New Windsor during the English Civil Wars (1642–1651). M.Phil.
- Bethany Marsh, Protestant Martyrs or Irish Vagrants?' Responses and the Organisation of Relief to Irish Refugees in England, 1641-1651. AHRC-funded
- Elizabeth Round, 'Shiten Shepherde and a clene sheep'? Clergy-Lay Relationships in Seventeenth-Century Herefordshire. AHRC-funded
- Rachel Small, Food, Identity and Humoral Theory in Early Modern England. AHRC-funded
- Diane Strange, 'The contempt and reproach of this nation': widows, orphans and the Court of Wards, 1625-1650. AHRC-funded

Modern (13)

- Philip Batman, A Comparison of Kinship Family Survival in York and in the Nineteenth Century.
- Denise Bonnette-Anderson, The Culture of Anglican Church Redundancy: Leicestershire and Lincolnshire, 1945-1995.
- Alison Browne, A Social History of Scottish Homicide, 1840-1869.
- Prisca Greenhow, Pauper Letters and Poor Relief in Mattishall, Norfolk.
- Jordan Harris, Bi-Racial People in Nineteenth-Century Britain.
- Jodie Lampert, Bodmin Moor: A Cultural and Genetic Study.
- Isobel Moore, Crime Reporting in the Provincial Press in the Nineteenth Century: A Study of Two Essex Newspapers, 1850-1900.
- Brenda Mortimer, Petitions for Mercy to Robert Peel, 1822-1827.
- Paul John Owens, The Social and Ecclesiastical Significance of Church Seating Plans, 1700-1900.
- Kimberley Pullen, The Old Poor Law, Enclosure and Social Change in Leicestershire and Rutland, 1700-1834. AHRC-funded
- John Pullin, The Locomotive Drivers: The Working and Domestic Lives of the Men who Drove the Trains, 1850-1885.
- Julian Raynor, London Homicides, 1750-1900.
- Mary Rudling, The Old and New Poor Law in Suffolk.